

CURRENT REPORT

FUSION INTERACTIVE CORP.

December 31, 2015

The Board of Directors held a meeting on December 31, 2015 and re-nominated Thomas Seifert and Phillip Ellett to its board members for re-election. Scott Smith was not nominated for re-election. At the same meeting, the Board of Directors, appointed Philip Ellett as Chief Executive Officer.

Philip Ellett has more than 40 years of experience in high-tech businesses. Mr. Ellett has held positions in sales, marketing and executive management based in both North America and Europe.

As the former President of the Americas for Ingram Micro, the world's largest computer products distributor and a Fortune 100 Company, he was responsible for an operation that generated over $20 Billion in annual revenue and had over 16,000 employees. In this position he established the Internet Fulfillment business unit that provides comprehensive supply chain and information services to B-to-B and B-to-C based customers. During his tenure at Ingram Micro, Phil also held the positions of President Europe Middle East and Africa and also General Manager of the Consumer Markets Division.

Prior to joining Ingram Micro, Phil was the CEO of Gates/F.A. He led this company from 60 people and $60 million in annual sales to 500 people and $ 600 million in sales in 5 years. During this time the stock price of the Company increased from 35 cents per share to $22.50 per share.

As the Vice President of Sales for Iomega Corporation Phil was responsible for the establishment of the North American and European Sales channels and the formation, management and training of the sales organization. During his six-year tenure at Iomega, sales grew from $1M to $120M annually.

Phil's career started with Digital Equipment where he was the Account Executive for Schlumberger. He has twice been selected by Computer Reseller News as one of the computer industry's top 25 executives. He has been a speaker on Sales Channel Selection and Management at many U.S. and European conferences, trade shows and educational seminars.