Item 6. Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

A. Description of the Issuer's Business Operations:

Grand Capital Ventures, Inc. (GRCV) is a company which specializes in working with under performing companies and bringing together the resources needed for them to attain financial stability and growth. Our focus is on companies showing a positive upside while striving to bring new technologies and unique products to market.

One area of focus will involve supporting the opening and maintaining of precious metal mines. With the underlying insecurity in today's world economy, we feel involvement in this type of business will help GRCV deliver long stability to its shareholders and the businesses it supports. To satisfy this end of the Company's business mission, we will be looking for joint venture partnerships in the mining industry, both US-based as well as throughout North and Central America.

The second area of focus will be to partner with companies involved in bringing new technologies to market, with a concentration on renewable energy products. To this end, GRCV recently signed a joint venture with WBC Holdings (WBC), a Michigan based company, to help fund the development of a hydrogen fueled electric generator. WBC holds the exclusive Sales, Marketing and Licensing rights for this product and is working directly with the technology's inventor, as well as several Michigan-based manufacturing partners to help bring the product to market by Q1 2014.

Beyond this, Grand Capital Ventures plans to seek out other cutting edge technologies and high return opportunities which will add value to the Company's bottom line and ensure its long term profitability and market performance.

In late July, 2013, the Company entered into a Letter of Intent to acquire all of the member interests in TomCat Films, LLC. TomCat produces, acquires, licenses and distributes independent films on a worldwide basis. TomCat specializes in feature-length genre films in the same vein as films produced by companies like Troma and The Asylum and by the legendary Roger Corman. Subject to the negotiation of a definitive agreement and due diligence, the Company anticipates completion of this transaction by September 30, 2013.
