Item 4. Management's discussion and analysis or plan of operation.

A. Plan of Operation.

1. The Company's business plan remains virtually the same. Over the next twelve months, management intends to devote a substantial amount of time and effort to building the Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc. brand. The goal is to develop numerous revenue streams. Management is also committed to achieving its stated mission to create a more inclusive work environment and contribute to greater diversity, and is confident that the Company will benefit substantially from its ability to attract talented and motivated individuals from overlooked demographics. Cash requirements: The Company's plans for aggressive expansion will give rise to concomitant capital needs. At the present time, the Company intends to release its extensive product line in a graduated rollout process that will reduce the urgency of such capital demand, and should provide a continuing base of revenues to fund further expansion.

Significant changes in the number of employees: Management does not have specific figures or concrete plans in place to augment the work force. Instead, such staff increases will be dictated by the pace at which the Company is able to achieve its stated goals and reach milestones that will both necessitate additional personnel and provide the revenue base to support an augmented staff.

Over the next twelve months, it is Management's intent to have numerous product lines producing revenues and creating profits for Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc. Management intends to launch such product lines in a way that does not interfere with the profitability of the Companies existing products. Over the next twelve months Management intends to create a solid financial base on which to build from. Creating a solid and long term profit foundation from ongoing operations is the number one goal of the Management team of Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc.

i. The Company expects that it will need to raise additional funds in the next twelve months in order to sustain operations and continue its business plan.

Accountant's Review Report

The Board of Directors
Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc (Delaware Corporation)

The accompanying income statement; and the related balance sheet, statement of changes of stockholders' equity and statement of cash flow have been reviewed and present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of Hall of Fame Beverage,

Inc. (a Delaware Corporation) for the quarter ended June 30, 2011, in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. All information included in these financial statements is the responsibility of the officers of Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc.

A review consists principally of inquiries and analytical procedures of evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. It is substantially less in scope than an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole.

Accordingly, we do not express such opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modification that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

HALL OF FAME BEVERAGES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
For the quarter ended June 30, 2011

1. Nature of Organization

Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc. is a Delaware Corporation

- Significant Accounting Policies

Accounting Method

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and are in conformity with General Accepted Accounting Principles, Generally Accepted Auditing Standards & Generally Accepted Government Audit Standards.

Financial Statement Presentation – Sources and Uses of Revenue

Revenue is generated from sales of products. The uses of revenue are determined by Operating Expenses and General and Administrative Expenses.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, if any, at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Equipment

Equipment is carried at cost. Depreciation is calculated using both the straight-line method and the accelerated method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

- Income Taxes

The company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 (FAS 109), "Accounting for Income Taxes." FAS 109 utilizes the asset and liability method, whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax impact attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply in the years in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered.

- Accounts Payable

Accounts Payable as of June 30, 2011 consists of various invoices that are due in the next 30 days.

- Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable as of June 30, 2011 consist various invoices that are due but not received.

- Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the company to concentrations of credit risk, consist principally of cash in bank and cash equivalents. The company maintains its cash and cash equivalents with what management believes to be high credit quality financial institutions and limits the amount of credit exposure to any one particular institution.

- Subsequent Events

Brad Godfrey no longer holds the position of Chief Business Development Officer of Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc.

In June 2011 Calvin Ross resigned as Chief Financial Officer of Hall of Fame Beverages, Inc.
