The robot arm is comprised of 5 booms connected by four rotary joints which is well suited for heavy construction and repair (bridges, dams, offshore platforms and rigs, pipelines, levees, etc.), forest recovery, mining, flood emergency response, diver assistance, cutting, drilling, grappling, welding, dredging, raking, heavy transport, and other remote services. The Company is not required or responsible for any ongoing development cost, build-out cost, transport cost, and/or any other cost related to the production of the Tiger-Lynk.

During August 2012, the Company signed a strategic distribution agreement with North Cal Woods Products, the nation's premiere reclaimed wood retailer and reclamation services providers for the on-site milling and distribution of wood that may be harvested by the Company.

On June 28, 2013, the Company entered into a Letter of Intent to acquire an interest in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp., a company organized under the laws of Panama. Under the terms of the Letter of Intent the Company would be contracted by B & B Madera S.A. for the harvesting, extraction and processing of trees from Lake Bayano, Panama in the area of Parti, Nacruz Gandi y Tabardi with the approval of the General Congress of the Kuna of Madungandi (the "Concession"). On October 21, 2013, the Company finalized and executed a Contract Agreement with B&B Madera S.A. (the "Contract Agreement"), whereby the Company made its final payment of $60,030 and joint ventured with B&B Madera S.A. for the harvesting, extraction and processing of trees from Lake Bayano, Panama. The partnership called for B&B Madera S.A. to provide the funding required for the initial project and the Company has paid an aggregate of $157,500 (inclusive of deposits, professional fees, penalties and final concession/work-permit cost) as of the date of this report. Under the terms of the Contract Agreement the Company has acquired a 13.8% share in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp and a profit share of 9%. The Company will also receive additional revenues from a wood recovery volume based royalty of 0.16 cents per board foot on heavy hardwoods and 0.10 cents per board foot on light hardwoods. As part of the Contract Agreement, the Company was also to have an option to purchase an additional 11.2% of the shares of Bayano Lake Products and 8% of the profit share by December 31, 2013. As of December 31, 2013, the Company paid an aggregate of $57,000 to execute this option for a total stake of 25% in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp and a profit share of 17%.

During the 1st Quarter of 2014, the Company working collectively with its Senior Partner B&B Madera S.A, through Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp. started logistic operations in advance of harvesting, extraction and processing of underwater timber from the Lake Bayano concession. The logistic operations consist of access road and log landing infrastructure build-out, timber cruise surveys, species identification, tree tagging and on-lake transportation corridor preparation.

On February 28, 2014, the Company signed a professional consulting services agreement with Industrial Hemp and Medical Marijuana Consulting Company, Inc. This agreement was specifically focused on exploring the possibilities of cultivating organic hemp in aquaponics systems and in applying new aquaculture and biodynamic farming practices that would enhance the sustainability and profitability of underwater timber recovery projects. As industrial hemp is a durable, renewable fibre, it represents a next frontier opportunity with strong synergies relating to the Companies underwater timber activities and overall environmental objectives.

Demand for our services will depend in large part on the demand for wood fiber. That demand will be largely fueled by global population growth and the need for infrastructure. At the same time deforestation is consuming millions of acres of wood fiber each year. We believe these factors will increase the demand for services, expertise and products necessary to the harvesting of submerged hardwood that can potentially have a greater value than ordinary timber.

Our current exploitation and development plans are described in this disclosure document. Whether we undertake an exploitation or development project will depend on the following factors:

- availability and cost of capital;
- receipt of additional geographical data or the reprocessing of existing data;
- current and projected lumbar gas prices;
- the costs and availability of equipment supplies and personnel necessary to conduct operations;
- success or failure of activities in similar areas;
- changes in the estimates of the costs to complete our projects;
- our ability to attract other industry partners to acquire a portion of the working interests, to reduce costs and exposure to risks;
- decisions of our joint working interest owners and partners;
- defects in title or loss of any potential concessions could limit our abilities or result in significant unanticipated costs;
- decreased availability or increased costs of key equipment, supplies or commodities could decrease our profitability;
- our operations may adversely impact the environment which could result in material liabilities to us;
- we may be required to obtain governmental permits and approvals for operations, which can be a costly and time-consuming process, can result in restrictions on our operations, and may delay or prevent us from obtaining necessary permits; and
- Union represented labor may result in an increased risk of work stoppages and increased labor costs.

We will continue to gather data about our projects, and it is possible that additional information will cause us to alter our schedule or determine that a project should not be pursued. You should understand that our plans regarding our projects might change.

The Company has determined that the Company is not now or any time in the past a "shell company" as that term is defined by the Commission as per Release 33-8869, footnote 172, whereby the Company is a fully operative ongoing operation with implemented business plan, Note payables, Bank accounts, rights, etc.

B. Date and State (or Jurisdiction) of Incorporation:

The Issuer was organized under the laws of the State of Washington in 1988.

C. The issuer's primary and secondary SIC codes;

The Issuer's primary SIC Code is 3553 and its secondary SIC Code is 3559.

D. The Issuer's fiscal year end date;

The issuer's fiscal year end date is December 31.

E. Principal products or services, and their markets;

The Company offers integrated project development services and solutions for underwater natural resource industries. Our experience, services and solutions particularly focus on underwater forestry project management. These integrated project development services include resource and needs assessment, permitting, environmental and project planning, logging, milling, product branding, marketing and sales.

Estimates from 2006, places approximately 300 million trees worth in excess of $50 billion inundated by over 50,000 man-made lakes and large dam reservoirs covering over 80 million acres around the world. The company has focused in the tropical regions where a large percentage of the underwater forest contains exotic hardwood species. These trees are highly sought after in the marketplace due to their eco-friendly nature and high quality. As a result, underwater harvested wood can sell at a significant premium to comparable new wood. There is a proven market worldwide for underwater wood products including veneer, hardwood flooring, decking, siding and dimensional lumber.

The Company has a worldwide exclusive license agreement on a patented articulated robot manipulator technology named "Tiger-Lynk" which is designed to operate like traditional forest "feller buncher" equipment. The robot arm is comprised of 5 booms connected by four rotary joints. When fully extended, the arm provides a maximum reach of 120 feet and work envelope of 1,100 m3.

What we believe sets the Tiger-Lynk machine system apart is the fully articulated Robot Manipulator. Tiger-Lynk robot arms offer heavy-duty construction, 7-9 degrees of freedom, and up to 50 ton lift capacity. Tiger-Lynk arms can be mounted on vessels, barges or platforms, making it convenient to integrate into existing operations. And when paired with one of Tiger-Lynk's industrial tools, you can perform a wide array of construction and recovery services- all on the same system. You can also integrate a variety of standard tool components via multi-hydraulic circuitry located at the wrist. Tiger-Lynk's design enables scalable arm configurations, with models ranging in length from 50 to 200 feet. Powerful. Versatile. Innovative. Tiger-Lynk machine systems with heavy duty RM Technology are redefining the way contractors work underwater.

Tiger-Lynk is well suited for heavy construction and repair (bridges, dams, offshore platforms and rigs, pipelines, levees, etc.), forest recovery, mining, flood emergency response, diver assistance, cutting, drilling, grappling, welding, dredging, raking, heavy transport, and other remote services.

In addition to the Companies focus on underwater forestry project management, they have also engaged the services of a world leading expert on industrial hemp and its market opportunities as a durable, renewable fibre. The Company believes that the possibilities of incorporating the cultivation of organic hemp in aquaponics systems and in applying new aquaculture and biodynamic farming practices will enhance the sustainability and profitability of underwater timber recovery projects.

March 31, 2014

NOTE –1 CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying condensed financial statements have been prepared by Hollund Industry Marine Inc. (the "Company") without audit. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (which include only normal recurring adjustments) necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows at March 31, 2014, and for all the periods presented herein, have been made.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. It is suggested that these condensed financial statements be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's March 31, 2014 quarterly report and December 31, 2013 alternative reporting filing. The results of operations for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 are not indicative of the operating results for the full year.

The summary of significant accounting policies of the Company is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are the representations of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the condensed financial statements and the December 31, 2013 financial statements included in the alternative report filed on April 14, 2014.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Nature of Business

The Company offers integrated project development services and solutions focused on underwater forest management. The Company has a worldwide exclusive license agreement to manage, operate, market and sell the patented articulated robot manipulator technology named "Tiger-Lynk." On August 5, 2012, the Company entered into that certain 10 year exclusive license agreement with the owner of the patented technology entitled "Tiger-Lynk Articulated Boom and Head" (the "Tiger-Lynk") evidenced by Canadian Patent 2,268,515 and US Patent 6,024,145 which includes all rights, title and interest to the Tiger-Lynk logo, in all formats and colors, as well as Tiger-Lynk trademarks and marketing rights. Tiger-Lynk is a machine technology designed to operate like traditional forest harvesting equipment. The robot arm is comprised of 5 booms connected by four rotary joints which is well suited for heavy construction and repair (bridges, dams, offshore platforms and rigs, pipelines, levees, etc.), forest recovery, mining, flood emergency response, diver assistance, cutting, drilling, grappling, welding, dredging, raking, heavy transport, and other remote services.

During August 2012, the Company signed a strategic distribution agreement with North Cal Woods Products, the nation's premiere reclaimed wood retailer and reclamation services providers for the distribution of wood that may be harvested by the Company.

During June 2013, the Company entered into a Letter of Intent to acquire an interest in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp, a company organized under the laws of Panama. Under the terms of the Letter of Intent, the Company would be contracted by B & B Madera S.A. for the harvesting, extraction and processing of trees from Lake Bayano, Panama in the areas of Parti, Nacruz Gandi y Tabardi (the "Concession"). On October 21, 2013, the Company finalized and executed a Contract Agreement with B&B Madera S.A. (the "Contract Agreement"), whereby the Company made its final payment of $60,030 and joint ventured with B&B Madera S.A. for the harvesting, extraction and processing of trees from Lake Bayano, Panama. The agreement called for B&B Madera S.A. to provide the funding required for the initial project and the Company has paid an aggregate of $157,500 (inclusive of all deposits, professional fees, penalties and final concession/work-permit cost) as of the date of this report. Under the terms of the Contract Agreement the Company has acquired a 13.8% share in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp and a profit share of 9%. The Company will also receive additional revenues from a wood recovery volume based royalty of 0.16 cents per board foot on heavy hardwoods and 0.10 cents per board foot on light hardwoods. As part of the Contract Agreement, the Company was also to have an option to purchase an additional 11.2% of the shares of Bayano Lake Products and 8% of the profit share by December 31, 2013. As of December 31, 2013, the Company paid an aggregate of $57,000 to execute this option for a total stake of 25% in Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp and a profit share of 17%.

During January 2014, the Company announced that it had reached an amicable agreement with its largest Preferred C shareholder to irrevocably eliminate 99.5 percent of his holdings. In order to reach this agreement and have the Shareholder cancel 99.5% of his Shares, the Company agreed in exchange to cancel the MOU between the parties relinquishing the Worldwide Exclusive license agreement. Subsequently, the Shareholder then granted the Company the First Right of Refusal or First Rights to market, sell, make, have made, use, maintain, manage and operate the Tiger-Lynk solely where it applies to the recovery of timber from underwater environments whether man-made or otherwise.

During the 1st Quarter of 2014, the Company working collectively with its Senior Partner B&B Madera S.A, through Bayano Lake Wood Products Corp. started logistic operations in advance of harvesting, extraction and processing of underwater timber from the Lake Bayano concession. The logistic operations consist of access road and log landing infrastructure build-out, timber cruise surveys, species identification, tree tagging and on-lake transportation corridor preparation.

On February 28, 2014, the Company signed a professional consulting services agreement with Industrial Hemp and Medical Marijuana Consulting Company, Inc. This agreement was specifically focused on exploring the possibilities of cultivating organic hemp in aquaponics systems and in applying new aquaculture and biodynamic farming practices that would enhance the sustainability and profitability of underwater timber recovery projects. As industrial hemp is a durable, renewable fibre, it represents a next frontier opportunity with strong synergies relating to the Companies underwater timber activities and overall environmental objectives

In addition the Company continues to work towards securing a number of other underwater logging concession opportunities in which the Tiger-Lynk technology will be employed to harvest inundated forests on a commercial scale in a safe, environmentally friendly and cost effective manner.

NOTE –2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company's condensed financial statements are prepared using generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has not yet established a stable ongoing source of revenues sufficient to cover its operating costs and allow it to continue as a going concern. The continuation of the Company as a going concern is dependent upon the continued financial support from its shareholders, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to sustain operations and the attainment of profitable operations. The Company incurred a net loss of approximately $1,216,200 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 and has an accumulated deficit during the development stage of approximately $10,523,000 since October 9, 2006 (date of inception) to March 31, 2014. The Company had working capital deficit of approximately $6,544,000 as of March 31, 2014. In addition, the Company has total shareholders' deficit of approximately $7,278,000 as of March 31, 2014. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt as to its ability to continue as a going concern.

In order to continue as a going concern, the Company needs to develop a reliable source of revenues, and achieve a profitable level of operations. During 2013 and 2012, the Company has been involved primarily with acquiring concessions for the extraction and harvesting of underwater forestry utilizing the

Company's exclusive license agreement on the Tiger-Lynk technology. The Company has continued to organize and restructure the Company to meet the needs of shareholders and attract suitable financing.

To fund operations for the next twelve months, the Company projects a need for $720,000 that will have to be raised through debt or equity.

If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations. Accordingly, the accompanying condensed financial statements are accounted for as if the Company is a going concern and do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities or other adjustments that might be necessary should be Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Statement of Cash Flows

NOTE – 5 DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES

The Company applies the accounting standard that provides guidance for determining whether an equity-linked financial feature, or embedded feature, is indexed to an entity's own stock. The standard applies to any freestanding financial instrument or embedded feature that have the characteristics of a derivative, and to any freestanding financial instruments that are potentially settled in an entity's own common stock.

During the years ended 2008 and 2014, the Company issued convertible notes with embedded conversion features to purchase common stock. Certain of the embedded conversion features result in these instruments being treated as derivatives. The estimated fair value of the debt features was determined using the probability weighted averaged expected cash flows Black Scholes Model with the closing price on original date of issuance, a conversion price based on the terms of the note, a period based on the terms of the note, risk free interest rate based on published U.S. Treasury Department interest rates for the expected terms and a volatility factor on the date of issuance are as follows:

	2014	2013	Inception to date
Expected life in years	2-5	2-3	2-3
Stock price volatility	100%	100%	100%
Risk free interest rate	1.74-1.75%	0.64-0.79	0.28-0.79%
Expected dividends	None	None	None

The recorded value of the debt features related to the notes can fluctuate significantly based on fluctuations in the fair value of the Company's common stock, as well as in the volatility of the stock price during the term used for observation and the term remaining for the debt features.

In subsequent periods, if the price of the security changes, the embedded derivative financial instrument related to the debt features will be adjusted to the fair value with the corresponding charge or credit to Other Expense or Income. The estimated fair value of the debt features was determined using the probability weighted averaged expected cash flows Black Scholes Model with the closing price on original date of issuance, a conversion price based on the terms of the note, a period based on the terms of the note, and a volatility factor on the date of issuance.

The recorded value of the debt features related to the notes can fluctuate significantly based on fluctuations in the fair value of the Company's common stock, as well as in the volatility of the stock price during the term used for observation and the term remaining for the warrants.

The significant fluctuations can create significant income and expense items on the financial statements of the Company.

Because the terms of the 2008 and 2014 convertible note require such classification, the accounting rules required additional convertible notes and non-employee warrants to also be classified as liabilities, regardless of the terms of the new notes and / or warrants. This presumption has been made due to the Company no longer having the control to physical or net share settle subsequent convertible instruments because it is tainted by the terms of the notes. Were the notes to not have contained those terms or even if the transactions were not entered into, it could have altered the treatment of the other notes and the conversion features of the latter agreement may have resulted in a different accounting treatment from the liability classification. The current note, as well as any subsequent convertible notes or warrants, will be treated as derivative liabilities until all such provisions are settled.

For the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 and the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company recorded Other Income (expense) of approximately $584,600 and $4,123,700, respectively, related to the derivative features of the convertible debt.

The balance of the carrying value of the derivative liability as of March 31, 2014 is as follows:

$	4,743,217	December 31, 2013 value of derivative liability
	584,634	Increase in value of derivative liability
$	5,327,851	March 31, 2014 value of derivative liability

The balance of the carrying value of the derivative liability as of December 31, 2013 is as follows:

$	619,509	December 31, 2012 value of derivative liability
	4,123,708	Increase in value of derivative liability
$	4,743,217	December 31, 2013 value of derivative liability

NOTE – 7 STOCKHOLDERS EQUITY

Share Based Payments

Stock based compensation expense recognized during the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 and the year ended December 31, 2013 are based on the value of the portion of share based payment awards that are ultimately expected to vest during the period. As stock based compensation expense recognized in the statement of operations for 2014 and 2013 has been based on awards currently vested, it was not necessary to reduce compensation expense for estimated forfeitures. SFAS No. 123R requires forfeitures to be estimated at the time of grant and revised, if necessary, in subsequent periods if actual forfeitures differ from those estimates.

The weighted average fair value of stock based compensation is based on the single option valuation approach. Forfeitures are estimated and it is assumed no dividends will be declared. The estimated fair value of stock based compensation awards are amortized using the straight-line method over the vesting period of the restricted common shares; as such method is consistent with the consultant's contractual obligation.

The Company's fair value calculations for stock based compensation awards for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 and the year ended December 31, 2013 were based on the following assumptions:

	2014	2013
Expected life in years	1 - 2	1 – 2
Stock price volatility	173-223%	1095-1175%
Risk free interest rate	1.74-1.75%	6.5%
Expected dividends	None	None

The following table summarizes stock based compensation, consulting and interest costs related to common shares under SFAS No. 123(R) for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 and the year ended December 31, 2013 and for the period October 6, 2006 (date of inception) through March 31, 2014 is allocated as follows:

	2014	2013	Inception to date
Officer compensation	$ -	$ -	$ 286,694
Compensation to Founders	-	-	253,689
Compensation to former officers	-	-	330,000
