Item 6: Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

Description of the Issuer's Business Operations

Prior to 2013, the Company was operated as a development stage company for 2011 and part of 2012. The Company's intent was to provide nutritional supplements to consumers throughout the United States. In the second and third quarters of 2012, the company was engaged in developing new supplements for its market. By the end of 2012, the development of new supplements became uneconomical and the Company began to seek other more efficient and effective revenue generating opportunities.

In November 2013, the Company purchased a corporation known as Platinum

Pari-mutual Group, Inc. (“Platinum”). In return for restricted common stock of the Company, Platinum sold 100% of its stock to the Company and became the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary. Platinum owns and operates an online gaming hub, capable supporting multiple gaming applications. Platinum has designed a game application that allows users to follow and share information regarding the fast-paced global financial marketplace and to compete against each other in a traditional racing format known as “stock-racing”. Platinum has a Hub computer system located in St. Kitts to facilitate the transaction processing. This location provides Platinum the ability to service both domestic (U.S.) and international markets simultaneously, but separately, since the rules and regulations of those jurisdictions may differ. U.S., domestic play will be “for fun” only because most for real money online gaming is illegal, while most international jurisdictions will allow “for real money” play. If the U.S. market opens up “for real money” in this application, Platinum is poised to offer such services to their players. The system is based on a pari-mutuel wagering system (“pari-mutuel” is a French word, loosely interpreted, meaning “betting amongst ourselves”) where the operator takes a percentage of sales to pay the costs (expenses, marketing, profit, etc.) and the rest is paid back to the players. The typical risk management restrictions that are common in most other non-pari-mutuel models are not required in this business model.

The key management of Platinum has extensive relationships within the gaming industry from owning race horses to financial reconciliations with host racing facilities to technical and regulatory backgrounds in multiple gaming applications. The “man years” involved with the gaming industry by these key personnel is well in excess of 75 man years.

Platinum will provide its stock racing system for both internet gambling users and social media users who do not wish to gamble for money but who enjoy the social media aspects of the game. Platinum believes that the game is fast-paced and exciting while providing a social media platform where the user community will be able to discuss the financial markets and financial instruments, users will be able to compete against each other in contests that involve picking the best or worst performing racers.

Because of current Internet gambling laws In the United States, Platinum offers U.S. users the opportunity to play “for fun” contests that are comprised of single or multiple races. Platinum plans to offer a portfolio contest structured like fantasy football, but instead of drafting players, users will draft securities, and instead of competing against other users with a fantasy team of players, users will compete with their fantasy portfolios of securities.

The Company has never been involved in any bankruptcy, receivership or any similar proceeding. There has never been any delisting of the Company's securities by any securities exchange or NASDAQ or deletion from the OTC Bulletin Board. There are no current, past, pending or threatened legal proceedings or administrative actions either by or against the issuer that could have a material effect on the issuer's business, financial condition or operations. There are no current, past or pending trading suspensions by securities regulators.
