A. a description of the issuer's business operations;

IDW

Idea and Design Works, LLC ("IDW") is an entertainment company that includes IDW Publishing and IDW Games. IDW Publishing boasts high-profile titles such as G.I. Joe, Locke and Key, Star Trek, The Transformers, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, My Little Pony, Classic Disney characters including Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and Uncle Scrooge, Powerpuff Girls, X-Files, Orphan Black and Godzilla. IDW is also the home to the Library of American Comics imprint, which publishes classic comic strip reprints, Yoe! Books, a partnership with Yoe! Studio and the multiple award-winning Artist's Edition imprint. IDW Games is a new category of board game products introduced in fiscal 2015.

On December 12, 2014, IDW purchased principally all of the assets of Top Shelf Productions. The purchase increased the properties and products of IDW.

On April 1, 2015, the Company increased its ownership interest in IDW from approximately 77% to 83%.

IDW and its imprint, Top Shelf, is one of the premiere publishers of comic books and graphic novels and was the fourth largest publisher in 2015 with a market share of 5.6%. IDW has been named Publisher of the Year five times by Diamond Comic Distributors. IDW and Top Shelf titles have won 35 Eisner Awards and 22 Harvey Awards.

IDW's comic book and trade paperback print publications are distributed through three channels: (i) to comic book specialty stores on a non-returnable basis (the "direct market") (ii) to traditional retail outlets, including bookstores and mass market stores, on a returnable basis (the "non-direct market") and (iii) to ebook distributors ("digital publishing"). In addition, IDW provides clients with custom comic books and artwork/graphic design services ("creative services").

In the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, direct market revenue accounted for 57% and 52% as compared to 52% and 50% of IDW's revenue for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015. Non-direct market revenue accounted for 16% and 21% of IDW's revenue in the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, as compared to 18% and 22% for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015. IDW's revenue from IDW Games accounted for 8% and 9% of IDW's revenue for the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, as compared to 4% and 6% for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015. Digital publishing revenue accounted for 10% and 9% in the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, as compared to 11% and 10% for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015. Other publishing revenue, which includes new product launches and specialty sales, accounted for 2% and 1% of IDW's revenue in the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, as compared to 6% and 5% for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015. IDW's other sources of revenue include direct to consumer sales, licensing and royalty revenue, which accounted for 7% and 8% of IDW's revenues for the three and six months ended April 30, 2016 as compared to 9% and 6% for the three and six months ended April 30, 2015.

IDW Games and Micro Comic Fun Packs products (included in other publishing revenue) have greatly expanded the number of distributors and accounts that IDW sells to directly. IDW's primary customer is Diamond Comic Distributors, Inc. ("Diamond"), an unaffiliated entity that handles the vast majority of all comic publishers' direct market distribution. Diamond purchases IDW's publications and subsequently sells them to both the direct and non-direct markets. Retail stores are also non-direct IDW customers.

In an effort to increase availability of versions of its content at retail outlets, IDW has entered into a number of digital distribution agreements, and IDW's publications are currently available for purchase via handheld devices, including iPhones, iPod Touch, iPad, Amazon Kindle, Nokia, Kobo Arc, Blackberry and Google Android devices. IDW titles are also available direct-to-desktop via several websites.

IDW faces significant competition from other publishers such as Marvel Comics and DC Comics, which are substantially larger than IDW and have much greater resources than IDW.

IDW Entertainment

IDW Entertainment ("IDWE") is a company created in fiscal 2013 to leverage IDW's properties in television production enterprises. IDWE develops, produces and distributes television series.

IDWE also has theatrical film projects in development, including Chris Ryall and Ashley Wood's Zombies vs. Robots with Michael Bay's Platinum Dunes and Sony.

IDWE sold the U.S. broadcast rights to "Wynonna Earp", a live-action television series based on the IDW Publishing comic, to the Syfy Network with an initial order of 13 one-hour episodes. Seven24 started production on the series in August 2015 and Syfy began airing the episodes in April 2016. IDWE is the worldwide distributor of the series and recently announced that Dynamic TV will be handling foreign sales for the series. Those sales efforts began in October 2015 at MIPCOM, a global market exhibition venue for entertainment content across platforms.

IDWE, in partnership with Universal Cable Productions, sold the U.S. broadcast rights to "Brooklyn Animal Control" to USA Network and a one-hour pilot has been produced.

IDWE, in partnership with Ideate Media, sold the U.S. broadcast and subscriber-video-on-demand rights to "Dirk Gently", a live-action series based on the Douglas Adams novels, which have also been published as comic books by IDW, to BBC America with an initial order of 8 one-hour episodes. The show will be a co-production with AMC Studios. WME/IMG will be handling foreign sales for the series. The series started production in May 2016 and is scheduled to air in October 2016.

IDW Entertainment's television licensing revenue accounted for 100% of its sales for all periods in the three and six months ended April 30, 2016 and 2015. During the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, all of IDW Entertainment's revenue was derived from the licensing of the television broadcasting rights to "Wynonna Earp".

CTM

CTM Media Group, Inc. ("CTM") develops and distributes print based advertising and information in targeted tourist markets. Advertisers include entertainment venues, tourist attractions, and cultural sites as well as their related service providers including dining, lodging, and transport services. CTM leverages its regional network of more than 14,000 proprietary brochure display stations to distribute printed brochures, magazines and rack cards to the traveling public.

CTM also develops and distributes digital advertising and information through its affiliate Etractions Inc.'s website, ettractions.com and its ExploreBoard network of inter-active touch screen kiosks throughout its market areas.

CTM was an independent brochure distribution company until it was purchased by IDT Corporation ("IDT") in June 2000. At that time, CTM's primary business centered on the distribution of brochures promoting Broadway shows within the greater New York City metropolitan area. Additional territories at the time included Boston and other locations in New England, Toronto, Ottawa, Philadelphia, Southeast Florida and Ohio.

CTM has grown both geographically and by developing related lines of business. Geographic growth had been driven both by organic expansion to new territories and through selective purchases of regional businesses.

On February 13, 2015, CTM acquired the assets of the brochure distribution network of a company in New England. This acquisition expanded CTM's network in the area adding over 1,200 display stations.

On February 16, 2016 CTM acquired the assets of a publishing, digital web and distribution service company on Cape Cod in Massachusetts. This acquisition expanded CTM's network by several hundred display stations and widened CTM's service area in New England.

CTM's client base includes advertisers in 32 states and provinces in the United States and Ontario, Canada. Its distribution territory in the United States includes the Northeast, Southeast, Mid-Atlantic and Midwestern states, as well as Southeast Florida. CTM is a brochure distribution market leader in each of the following greater metro areas:

New York City, Boston, Toronto, Ottawa, Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis/St. Paul, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Milwaukee, Cleveland and Atlanta.

Throughout its operating region, CTM operates four integrated and complimentary business lines: Brochure Distribution, Digital Distribution, Publishing and RightCardTM.

Brochure Distribution

CTM distributes client brochures through its network of more than 14,000 strategically located display stations. Brochure distribution is CTM's largest line of business generating approximately 79% of CTM's revenues in both the three and six months ended April 30, 2016 as compared to 82% for both the three and six months ended April 30, 2015.

CTM's extensive distribution and display station network is the key value driver and differentiator in the CTM's distribution line of business. The large quantity and diversity of its display station locations allows CTM to segment its visitor audience and tailor targeted marketing programs for its clients. Locations are typically hosted within facilities serving the travel, tourism and entertainment industry, including hotels and other lodgings, corporate and community venues, transportation terminals and hubs, tourist attractions and entertainment venues. CTM also has agreements with public transportation authorities, business improvement districts, public tourism authorities and high volume retail chains to host a small percentage of its brochure display stations.

CTM has developed strong relationships with its display station hosts and its regional client advertisers. These relationships constitute a significant barrier to entry that CTM believes provides it with a competitive advantage over new entrants into the industry or movement by other industry participants into certain metropolitan markets.

As of April 30, 2016, CTM remained one of the largest travel and tourism brochure display companies in the Eastern and Midwestern United States, and the second largest nationally. Privately held Certified Folder Display ("Certified") is the national market leader with over 21,000 display station locations, primarily in the Western United States. Certified's key metropolitan areas include San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles, Phoenix and Las Vegas. An estimated 20 to 30 other distribution companies competing from smaller regional bases comprise the remainder of the brochure distribution and display industry.

Digital Distribution

CTM's digital marketing platform is offered in association with CTM's affiliate, Ettractions Inc. The Ettractions Digital Distribution program offers CTM's customers a multi-channel marketing platform that includes the web, mobile internet and the ExploreBoard interactive touch screens of varying sizes. Digital distribution revenues accounted for approximately 14% of CTM's revenues in both the three and six months ended April 30, 2016 as compared to 11% in both the three and six months ended April 30, 2015.

Digital revenue is primarily generated from 400 Ettractions ExploreBoard interactive touch screens in place as of April 30, 2016. Additional advertisers, more advertising opportunities and increased traffic are contributing factors in revenue growth in CTM's digital distribution business. Internet traffic reached a level of approximately 68,000 active in-market visitors and approximately 240,000 page views during the last fiscal year ended October 31, 2015. ExploreBoard profile views totaled approximately 17,400,000 views during the last fiscal year ended October 31, 2015.

Publishing, Design & Print

CTM publishes maps with integrated display advertising and identified tourist locations. Current maps cover key metropolitan areas within CTM's distribution territory including Boston/New England, Chicago, Kansas City, Minneapolis/St. Paul, New York City, Philadelphia, Southeast Florida, St. Louis, and Toronto. CTM also leveraged its in-house design team and large print volumes to provide clients with cost-effective custom design and print referral services, and earns a referral fee for this service. Publishing, Design & Print accounted for approximately 5% of CTM's revenues in both the three and six months ended April 30, 2016 as compared to 5% in both the three and six months ended April 30, 2015.

RightCard™

CTM designs and prints the RightCard™ – pocket-sized cards in a consistent format distributed through a network of specialized display stations in high-traffic areas. The RightCard™ content format can include a discount or value offer, map and contact information. The RightCard™ program contributed approximately 2% of CTM's revenues for both the three and six months ended April 30, 2016, compared to 2% for both the three months and six months ended April 30, 2015.
