CURRENT INFORMATION REGARDING CHINA INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION SYSTEMS, INC.

The following information is furnished to assist with "due diligence" compliance. The information is furnished pursuant to Rule 15c2-11 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended: The items and attachments generally follow the format set forth in Rule 15c2-11.

1. Exact name of Company and its predecessor (If any)

The exact name of the issuer is China Intelligence Information Systems, Inc. (herein sometimes called the "Company" or the "Issuer").

We were incorporated as Crawford Lake Mining, Inc. on October 18, 2004, in the State of Nevada for the purpose of is the acquisition and exploration of mineral resource. On November 7, 2006, the company changed its name to China VoIP & Digital Telecom, Inc. to reflect a change in direction. China VoIP & Digital Telecom Inc. acquired on August 17, 2006, all of the outstanding capital stock of Jinan YinQuan Technology Co. Ltd. ("Jinan YinQuan") in exchange for the issuance of 40,000,000 shares of our common stock to the Jinan Shareholders and $200,000. Such shares are restricted in accordance with Rule 144 of the 1933 Securities Act. In addition, as further consideration for the acquisition, Apollo Corporation, the principal shareholder of the Company, agreed to cancel 11,750,000 post-split shares of its outstanding common stock. Based upon same, Jinan YinQuan became our wholly-owned subsidiary. Jinan YinQuan was established in JiNan in the People's Republic of China ("the PRC") in 2001. The exchange of shares with Jinan YinQuan has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition under the purchase method of accounting since the stockholders of the Jinan YinQuan obtained control of the consolidated entity. On May 7, 2008 (the "Closing Date"), Jinan Yinquan completed the acquisition of 80% of Beijing Power Unique Technologies Co., Ltd. ("BPUT"), a company incorporated under the laws of the People's Republic of China, in accordance with the Investment Agreement. On July 5, 2008, Jinan Yinquan acquired another 20% ownership of BPUT. BPUT therefore became 100% owned subsidiary of Jinan Yinquan on the same date. The Company's principal activities are developing and sales of computer software and hardware, digital video pictures system; and developing and sales of computer network and network audio devices. Before July 2009, the Company was focused on the Voice Over Internet Phone ("VOIP") technology related business. In July 2009, the VOIP business was discontinued by China government and the company transitioned to focus on providing virtualization solutions and services. On November 10, 2010 the company changed its name to China Intelligence Information Systems Inc. and was focused on cloud based technology in the Republic of China. On May 29, 2017, the company through a merger with IICN Acquisition, Inc., a Nevada corporation, acquired the shares of Liglass Trading Cz s.r.o., a Czech Republic limited liability company located in Prague, Czech republic wholly owned subsidiary. On May 29, 2017, Liglass Trading Cz, s.r.o. transferred all of its assets and liabilities to IICN Acquisition, Inc., our wholly owned subsidiary.

The virtualization platform is built on a business-ready architecture. Use virtualization software to transform or “virtualize” the hardware resources of an x86-based computer—including the CPU, RAM, hard disk and network controller—to create a fully functional virtual machine that can run its own operating system and applications just like a “real” computer. Each virtual machine contains a complete system, eliminating potential conflicts. Multiple operating systems run concurrently on a single physical computer and share hardware resources with each other. By encapsulating an entire machine, including CPU, memory, operating system, and network devices, and a virtual machine is completely compatible with all standard x86 operating systems, applications, and device drivers. You can safely run several operating systems and applications at the same time on a single computer, with each having access to the resources it needs when it needs them. In this way, over 90% resources will be used rather than that wasted under the traditional server run mode.6. Describe the Issuer's Facilities.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reported period. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets and any other parameters used in determining these estimates could cause actual results to differ and such differences could be material.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is derived from contracts with our consumers. Revenue is recognized in accordance with ASC 605. As such, the Company identifies performance obligations and recognizes revenue over the period through which the Company satisfies these obligations. Any contracts that by nature cannot be broken down by specific performance criteria will recognize revenue on a straight-line basis over the contractual term of period of the contract.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers cash and cash equivalents to include all stable, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is reported at the customers' outstanding balances, less any allowance for doubtful accounts. Interest is not accrued on overdue accounts receivable.

Investments

The Board of Directors discusses the valuation of the investment and determines that cost equals fair value of the investment in good faith based on the input of Management.

Stock Based Compensation

When applicable, the Company will account for stock-based payments to employees in accordance with ASC 718, "Stock Compensation" ("ASC 718"). Stock-based payments to employees include grants of stock, grants of stock options and issuance of warrants that are recognized in the consolidated statement of operations based on their fair values at the date of grant.

The Company accounts for stock-based payments to non-employees in accordance with ASC 505-50, "Equity-Based Payments to Non-Employees." Stock-based payments to non-employees include grants of stock, grants of stock options and issuances of warrants that are recognized in the consolidated statement of operations based on the value of the vested portion of the award over the requisite service period as measured at its then-current fair value as of each financial reporting date.

. The term "forfeitures" is distinct from "cancellations" or "expirations" and represents only the unvested portion of the surrendered stock option or warrant. The Company estimates forfeiture rates for all unvested awards when calculating the expense for the period.

In estimating the forfeiture rate, the Company monitors both stock option and warrant exercises as well as employee termination patterns. The resulting stock-based compensation expense for both employee and non-employee awards is generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the period in which the Company expects to receive the benefit, which is generally the vesting period.

Earnings per Share

The Company reports earnings per share in accordance with ASC Topic 260-10, "Earnings per Share." Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings per share is computed similar to basic earnings per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Diluted earnings per share has not been presented since there are no dilutive securities.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company has no significant off-balance sheet risks related to foreign exchange contracts, option contracts or other foreign hedging arrangements. The Company currently maintains its cash equivalent balance with one major national financial institution. The amount on deposit in that one institution may from time to time exceed the federally-insured limit.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Business segments

ASC 280, “Segment Reporting” requires use of the “management approach” model for segment reporting. The management approach model is based on the way a company’s management organizes segments within the company for making operating decisions and assessing performance. The Company determined it has one operating segment as of March 23, 2017.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for its income taxes under the provisions of ASC Topic 740, “Income Taxes.” The method of accounting for income taxes under ASC 740 is an asset and liability method. The asset and liability method requires the recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between tax bases and financial reporting bases of other assets and liabilities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company continually assesses any new accounting pronouncements to determine their applicability to the Company. Where it is determined that a new accounting pronouncement affects the Company’s financial reporting, the Company undertakes a study to determine the consequence of the change to its financial statements and assures that there are proper controls in place to ascertain that the Company’s financials properly reflect the change. The Company currently does not have any recent accounting pronouncements that they are studying and feel may be applicable.

Note 3. Income Taxes

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually for differences between financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

The effective tax rate on the net income before income taxes differs from U.S. Statutory rate as follows:

	December 31, 2015
U.S statutory rate	34.00%
Less valuation allowance	-34.00%
Effective tax rate	0.00%
The significant components of deferred tax assets and liabilities are as follows:

	December 31, 2015
Deferred tax assets
Net operating losses
Deferred tax liability
Net deferred tax assets
Less valuation allowance

Deferred tax asset -net valuation allowance on an interim basis, the Company has a net operating loss carryover of approximately $XXX

The Company adopted the provisions of ASC 740-10-50, formerly FIN 48, and “Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes”. The Company had no material unrecognized income tax assets or liabilities as of December 31, 2015.

The Company’s policy regarding income tax interest and penalties is to expense those items as general and administrative expense but to identify them for tax purposes. During the period ending April 30, 2015 there were no income tax, or related interest and penalty items in the income statement, or liabilities on the balance sheet. The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and Nevada state jurisdiction. We are not currently involved in any income tax examinations.

Note 9. Going concern

The Company was unable to repay loans (the “Loans”) from a single lender when due on August 31, 2012 in the aggregate amount of RMB 17,000,000 (approximately $2,615,300) plus accrued interest of approximately RMB 1,500,000 (approximately $230,769). The lender, Shandong Zhengjin Investment and Management Co.,Ltd (the “Lender”), an unaffiliated third party, notified the Company of its default on September 19th, 2012 and demanded payment within three days, and threatened legal action in the event the Company did not repay the Loans. The Company has not made any payment with respect to its remaining obligations under the Loans and does not have sufficient funds to satisfy its obligations. As a result of the recent slowdown in economic activity in China, the Company has had more difficulty collecting receivables on a timely basis and generating revenue, which have adversely affected the Company’s cash flow. The Company is in discussions with the Lender and is seeking other financing, but to date has been unable to modify the Loans or secure additional financing and there can be no assurance that any financing will be available or available on terms acceptable to the Company. To date, the Lender has not commenced legal action against the Company.

The Loans are secured by all of the capital stock of Beijing PowerUnique Technologies Co., Ltd. (“BPUT”), a company incorporated under the laws of the PRC that is directly and indirectly wholly-owned by the Company. Shandong Honest Management Consulting Co., Ltd., (“Honest”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, owns 9.09% of BPUT and 99% of Jinan Yinquan Technology Co. Ltd. (“Jinan Yinquan”). Jinan Yinquan, in turn, owns 99.01% of BPUT.

BPUT and Jinquan are the two operating subsidiaries of the Company. The Company’s virtualization business is primarily conducted through BPUT outside of the Shandong area, while Jinan Yinquan primarily focuses on the Shangdong area.

The inability of the Company to satisfy its obligations under the Loans or to restructure the Loans on terms acceptable to the Company, of which there can be no assurance, may materially and adversely affect the Company’s operations. In the event that the stock of BPUT became the property of the creditor or another party, the Company’s business would be substantially and adversely affected as BPUT accounts for a majority of the Company’s revenues.

The Company has been dormant since 2011. The company have been under custodial hold since January of 2012.

In August of 2013 all debt was outstanding converted debt was converted into equity.
