Part C Business Information

Item IX The nature of the issuer's business.

VLOV's fiscal year end December 31 and was incorporated in 1995 as a Nevada corporation. VLOV was an apparel producer in the People's Republic of China ("PRC" or "China") that designed, developed and distributed men's apparel and related products targeted at 20 -45 years old Chinese men. The Company also owned and operated retail stores ("company stores") in Fujian Province. In 2013, the company divested itself of its current business operations and focused on securing additional opportunities that could bring value to the existing shareholders; February 2016 the name was changed to Kali. Inc

August 2013 form 15-12 was filed and we began reporting on the OTC market as an alternative reporting company with the trading symbol KALY. The issuer is a marketing and development company focused on acquiring small to medium size market cap companies in emerging markets. With disposable income on the rise, the company is targeting "lifestyle" services companies that yield high profit margins in growth industries.

Kali was merged with Ricochet Trading Merger Corp, and neither has had a default of any note, loan, lease, or other indebtedness or financing arrangement requiring the issuer to make payments. The current officers and directors and affiliates own 56,035,000 restricted common shares and 10,000,000 class A preferred shares having voting rights.

Currently there are no past, pending or anticipated stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, acquisition, spin-off, or reorganizations planned nor are there any known current, past, pending or threatened legal proceedings or administrative actions either by or against us that could have a material effect on our business, financial condition, or operations and any current, past or pending trading. We have not been in bankruptcy or receivership.

B. Business of Issuer

Kali, Inc. is a marketing and development company focused on small to medium size market cap companies. Kali will leverage existing resources in business to business networks to facilitate and enhance its business strategy; The company targets services and companies in emerging markets with good margins in growth industries.

Item X        The nature of products or services offered

In addition to trading and brokering heavy fuel oils the company occasionally consults with other companies to determine the most cost effective methods of removing contaminants from hydrocarbon products that have degenerated due to age or accidents, thereby returning the product to the original use or secondary markets.

We are not dependent on patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts nor do we require governmental approval of our products or services, however we do have proprietary additives and methods to achieve

We are in a highly competitive business in which personal contact is a primary asset; consequently, our marketing is directed toward our customers' personnel.

Risk Factors

The company's successful implementation of its business plan is dependent on a number of factors that should be considered by prospective shareholders, not the least of which is the company's ability to acquire investment capital.

Kali is in the early stages of development and could fail before implementing its business plan and it may incur net losses for the foreseeable future. The company has operating losses from the initial implementation of its business and operations, and it faces unforeseen costs, expenses, problems and difficulties that could easily prevent it from becoming profitable.

The Issuer could be exposed to liabilities or other claims for which the Company would have no insurance protection. The Company does not currently maintain any comprehensive business insurance policy. If uninsured losses occur a purchaser of the Company's common stock may lose their entire investment.

Item XI        The nature and extent of the issuer's facilities.
