Use the space below to provide any additional details, including footnotes to the table above:

(1) On September 19, 2017 – 400,000,000 common shares were issued to the sole shareholder of Room 21 Media, Inc. ("Room 21"), John Stippick, in a change of control / share exchange transaction. Due to reverse acquisition accounting (see below), the Company is required to prorate these shares over the initial issuance dates of when Room 21 issued their common equity. Therefore, for accounting purposes these 400 million shares issued on September 19, 2017, are reflected as 25,000,000 shares issued on inception of Room 21 on November 9, 2016 and 375,000,000 shares issued on August 21, 2017.

(2) On September 19, 2017, the Company acquired Room 21 Media, Inc., resulting in a change of control. The acquisition was treated as a reverser acquisition, for accounting purposes (ASC 805 – Business Combinations), as disclosed in our financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report and included below:

Share Exchange and Reorganization

On September 19, 2017 (the "Effective Date"), Room 21 Media, Inc. merged into MC Endeavors, Inc. and became a 100% subsidiary of MC Endeavors, Inc. Furthermore, the Company entered into and closed on a share exchange agreement with Room 21 Media, Inc. and its shareholders.

Pursuant to the terms of the share exchange agreement, MC Endeavors, Inc. issued 400,000,000 shares of its newly issued common stock and one (1) share of Special 2017 Series A Preferred Stock to the shareholders of Room 21 Media, Inc. in exchange for 32,000,000 shares of Room 21 Media, Inc.'s common stock, representing 100% of its issued and outstanding common stock, and as a result of the share exchange agreement, Room 21 Media, Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of MC Endeavors, Inc.

Recapitalization

For financial accounting purposes, this transaction was treated as a reverse acquisition by Room 21 Media, Inc., and resulted in a recapitalization with Room 21 Media, Inc. being the accounting acquirer and MC Endeavors, Inc. as the acquired company. The consummation of this reverse acquisition resulted in a change of control. Accordingly, the historical financial statements prior to the acquisition are those of the accounting acquirer, Room 21 Media, Inc. and have been prepared to give retroactive effect to the reverse acquisition completed on September 19, 2017, and represent the operations of Room 21 Media, Inc. The consolidated financial statements after the acquisition date, September 19, 2017 include the balance sheets of both companies at historical cost, the historical results of Room 21 Media, Inc. and the results of the Company from the acquisition date. All share and per share information in the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements and footnotes has been retroactively restated to reflect the recapitalization.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

Organization and Operations

MC Endeavors, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated in the State of Nevada on May 22, 2001, Room 21, Media, Inc. (“Room 21”), its wholly owned subsidiary, was incorporated in Wyoming on November 9, 2016, The Share TV, Inc., (“SHTV”) a Wyoming corporation was incorporated on March 14, 2018, as a wholly owned subsidiary.

On September 19, 2017 (the “Effective Date”), Room 21 Media, Inc. merged into the Company and became a 100% subsidiary of MC Endeavors, Inc. Furthermore, the Company entered into and closed on a share exchange agreement with Room 21 Media, Inc. and its shareholders.

On March 13, 2018, the Company formed SHTV to become a 100% subsidiary of the Company.

The Company is engaged in the business of producing, distributing and monetizing online communities for individuals and businesses to interact with industries ranging from industrial business to healthcare to entertainment.

Going Concern Matters

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”), which contemplates the Company’s continuation as a going concern. The Company has incurred operating losses of $49,407 during the three months ended March 31, 2019 and has an accumulated deficit of $878,508 as of March 31, 2019. In addition, current liabilities exceed current assets by $252,506 as of March 31, 2019.

Management intends to raise additional operating funds through equity and/or debt offerings. However, there can be no assurance management will be successful in its endeavors.

There are no assurances that the Company will be able to either (1) achieve a level of revenues adequate to generate sufficient cash flow from operations; or (2) obtain additional financing through either private placement, public offerings and/or bank financing necessary to support its working capital requirements. To the extent that funds generated from operations and any private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing are insufficient, the Company will have to raise additional working capital. No assurance can be given that additional financing will be available, or if available, will be on terms acceptable to the Company. If adequate working capital is not available to the Company, it may be required to curtail or cease its operations.

Due to uncertainties related to these matters, there exists a substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments related to the recoverability or classification of asset-carrying amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that may result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements and related disclosures have been prepared by management and are unaudited. The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”) of the United States.

Consolidation Policy

For March 31, 2019, the unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Room 21 Media, Inc and The Share TV, Inc. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include assumptions about collection of accounts and notes receivable, the valuation and recognition of stock-based compensation expense, the valuation and recognition of derivative liability, valuation allowance for deferred tax assets and useful life of fixed assets.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to cash with original maturities of three months or less, at the date acquired. As of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, the Company had $80,560 and $6,438 in cash and cash equivalents, respectively.

Revenue recognition

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to a customer, in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. The Company derives its revenues from the rendering of business advisory services, such as training, implementation, consulting, and other customer-specific services. The Company applies the following five steps in order to determine the appropriate amount of revenue to be recognized as it fulfills its obligations under each of its agreements:

- identify the contract with a customer;
- identify the performance obligations in the contract;
- determine the transaction price;
- allocate the transaction price to performance obligations in the contract; and
- recognize revenue as the performance obligation is satisfied.

Revenues from the services rendered are recognized in proportion to the services delivered.

Any amount receivable or received, but unrecognized for revenue recognition purpose is recorded as deferred revenues.

Share-Based Expense

ASC 718, "Compensation – Stock Compensation," prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all share-based payment transactions in which employee services are acquired. Transactions include incurring liabilities, or issuing or offering to issue shares, options, and other equity instruments such as employee stock ownership plans and stock appreciation rights. Share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, are recognized as compensation expense in the financial statements based on their fair values. That expense is recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award, known as the requisite service period (usually the vesting period).

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation issued to non-employees and consultants in accordance with the provisions of ASC 505-50, "Equity – Based Payments to Non-Employees." Measurement of share-based payment transactions with non-employees is based on the fair value of whichever is more reliably measurable: (a) the goods or services received; or (b) the equity instruments issued. The fair value of the share-based payment transaction is determined at the earlier of performance commitment date or performance completion date.

Share-based expense totaled $0 and $182,700, respectively, for the period ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Loss per Share Calculations

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted- average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings per share is computed similar to basic earnings (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential common shares if their effect is anti-dilutive. During the three months ended March 31, 2019, there were conversion privileges attached to convertible promissory notes payable. The common share equivalents of these securities have not been included in the calculations of loss per share because such inclusions would have an anti-dilutive effect as the Company has incurred losses during the three months ended March 31, 2019.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

As defined in ASC 820" Fair Value Measurements," fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). The Company utilizes market data or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable. The Company classifies fair value balances based on the observability of those inputs. ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurement).

Lease

Effective January 1, 2019, we adopted Accounting Standards Codification 842, Leases ("ASC 842"). Operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets represent our right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent our obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both of which are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the lease term at the commencement date. Leases with a lease term of 12 months or less at inception are not recorded on our consolidated balance sheet and are expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term in our consolidated statement of income.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Management has considered all recent accounting pronouncements issued since the last audit of our financial statements. The Company's management believes that these recent pronouncements will not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

NOTE 3. LOAN RECEIVABLE

On July 16, 2018, the Company has advanced a fund of $2,500 to an unrelated party. The note receivable is unsecured, 0% interest bearing and payable on July 16, 2019. As of March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, the Company recorded loan receivable of $2,500.

The Company recorded a discount on the convertible note due to a beneficial conversion feature of $3,053.

NOTE 6. DERIVATIVE LIABILITIES

The Company analyzed the conversion option for derivative accounting consideration under ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and hedging, and determined that the instrument should be classified as a liability since the conversion option becomes effective at issuance resulting in there being no explicit limit to the number of shares to be delivered upon settlement of the above conversion options.

Fair Value Assumptions Used in Accounting for Derivative Liabilities

ASC 815 requires we assess the fair market value of derivative liability at the end of each reporting period and recognize any change in the fair market value as other income or expense item.

The Company determined our derivative liabilities to be a Level 3 fair value measurement and used the Black-Scholes pricing model to calculate the fair value as of March 31, 2019. The Black-Scholes model requires six basic data inputs: the exercise or strike price, time to expiration, the risk-free interest rate, the current stock price, the estimated volatility of the stock price in the future, and the dividend rate. Changes to these inputs could produce a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement. The fair value of each convertible note is estimated using the Black-Scholes valuation model. The following weighted-average assumptions were used in the March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018:

	March 31, 2019	December 31, 2018
Expected term	0.47 years	0.72 - 0.84 years
Expected average volatility	175%	202% - 212%
Expected dividend yield	-	-
Risk-free interest rate	2.44%	2.56% - 2.68%

The following table summarizes the changes in the derivative liabilities during the three months ended March 31, 2019:

Fair Value Measurements Using Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Derivative liability as of December 31, 2018	$	123,743
Addition of new derivatives recognized as debt discounts		10,000
Addition of new derivatives recognized as day-one loss		6,260
Change in derivative liabilities recognized as loss on derivative		(9,149)
Derivative liability as of March 31, 2019	$	130,854

The following table summarizes the gain on derivative liability included in the income statement for the three months ended March 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2019		2018
Day-one loss due to derivative liabilities on convertible note payable	$	6,260	$	-
Change in derivative liabilities recognized as loss on derivative		(9,149)		-
Net gain on change in fair value of derivative liabilities	$	(2,889)	$	-

NOTE 7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Note payable

During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company borrowed a total amount of $6,000 from the Company's CEO. The note is an unsecured non-interest-bearing promissory note that is payable on August 3, 2019.

Due to relate parties

During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company borrowed a total amount of $51,300. This loan is a non-interest bearing and due on demand.

As of March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, the Company had note payable – related party of $6,000 and due to related parties of $51,300, respectively.

NOTE 8. STOCKHOLDERS' DEFICIT

Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 30,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a par value of $0.001 and 1 share of Special 2017 Series A Preferred Stock at a par value of $0.001.

As of March 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding.

As of March 31, 2019, and December 31, 2018, 1 shares of Special 2017 Series A Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 1,000,000,000 shares of common stock at a par value of $0.001.

During the three months ended March 31, 2019, the Company issued 65,000,000 shares of common stock as follows;

- 65,000,000 shares of common stock for cash of $113,750.

As of March 31, 2019 and 2018, 575,739,837 and 510,739,837 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding, respectively.

NOTE 9. COMMITMENT

On December 15, 2018, the Company entered into a rental agreement for the corporate office. Monthly rent is $1,700. The term of the lease is month to month. Our office lease meets the definition of a short-term lease because the lease term is 12 months or less. Consequently, consistent with Company's accounting policy election, the Company does not recognize the right-of-use asset and the lease liability arising from this lease. During the three months ended March 31, 2019, the Company incurred rent expense of $5,100.

NOTE 10. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the date these financial statements were available to be issued. Based on our evaluation no material events have occurred that require disclosure.
