6 Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

A. A description of the Issuer's business operations.

Based in Irvine, CA, My Social Income, Inc. (“MSOA”), was formerly a communications company, but recently has dropped the pursuit of telecom customers and has changed its business strategy. MSOA intends to become a holding company to acquire and develop subsidiaries and has developed a business plan of operations to acquire small but profitable businesses through the issuance of convertible preferred stock or cash. Each of these acquisitions will function as a standalone subsidiary within MSOA. Each will have its own P&L statement and balance sheet, with MSOA acting as a parent corporation, while allowing Managing Partners to continue the growth and operations of the subsidiary. The ultimate end goal will be to acquire $4,000,000 in assets to enable the company to trade on the NYSE Marketplace Exchange.

The Managing Partner Concept

The Managing Partner concept is unique and will provide significant cash flow to MSOA along with an exit strategy for the subsidiary that is acquired by MSOA. Not all acquisitions will utilize the managing partner concept but many will. The proposed managing partner will buy into the acquired subsidiary for 20% of its purchase price. The managing partner will share in the profits of the subsidiary at a rate to 20% per annum which will be paid to them in the form of a bonus and earn a competitive salary for managing the subsidiary. Over the period of five years, the managing partner may elect to purchase the subsidiary from MSOA using their share of the profits. At the end of the five-year term, the managing partner may then purchase the subsidiary in full based on its current market value. If the managing partner elects not to purchase the subsidiary, MSOA may spin it off and sell it on the open market based on its market value. The managing partner also has the option to cancel their commitment to the subsidiary if, within one year, they notify MSOA. The managing partner would be entitled to a full refund of their 20% buy in, after a 90-day notice period which allows MSOA to acquire a replacement managing partner. This concept drives annual profit and can create a major financial gain if brought to fruition.

Description of Business

Mission Statement: About MSOA

Based in Irvine, California, My Social Income, Inc. (“MSOA”), intends to become a holding company to acquire and develop subsidiaries and has developed a business plan of operations to acquire small but profitable businesses through the issuance of convertible preferred stock or cash. Each of these acquisitions will function as a standalone subsidiary within MSOA. Each will have its own P&L statement and balance sheet, with MSOA acting as a parent corporation, while allowing Managing Partners to continue the growth and operations of the subsidiary. The ultimate end goal will be to acquire $4,000,000 in assets to enable the company to trade on the NYSE Marketplace Exchange.

Company Ownership/Legal Entity

My Social Income, Inc. is a C Corporation publicly traded as OTC PK: MSOA. The name will be changed soon to more accurately reflect on our new mission.

Company History

Founded in 1997 as IntelCom, Inc. MSI offered a wide array of communication services. With the appointment of new Chief Executive Officer, Christopher Kimberlin, the company is taking a new direction in its journey to the NYSE Marketplace Exchange. Mr. Kimberlin was appointed to be CEO on October 13th 2016 and his vision is to take this company to the NYSE Marketplace Exchange within six months to one year, at the most.

Important strengths and core competencies

The most important strength MSOA possesses is our business model. MSOA seeks to become a “mini Berkshire Hathaway”, acquiring profitable private companies and folding them into MSOA. In short, we are buying assets with preferred stock or cash. MSOA also has something extra, the Managing Partner Program. As explained previously, this program allows a Managing Partner to own a business with a fraction of the funds required to buy one. The proposed managing partner will buy into the acquired subsidiary for 20% of its purchase price. The managing partner will share in the profits of the subsidiary at a rate to 20% per annum which will be paid to them in the form of a bonus and earn a salary for managing the subsidiary. Over the period of five years, the managing partner may elect to purchase the subsidiary from MSOA using their share of the profits. At the end of the five-year term, the managing partner may then purchase the subsidiary in full based on its current market value. If the managing partner elects not to purchase the subsidiary, MSOA may retain the entity or spin it off and sell it on the open market based on its market value. The managing partner also has the option to cancel their commitment to the subsidiary if, within one year, they notify MSOA. The managing partner would be entitled to a full refund of their 20% buy in, after a 90-day notice period which allows MSOA to acquire a replacement managing partner. Funds acquired from the managing partner program will provide MSOA with the liquid cash necessary to acquire larger companies with more significant assets and cash flows in the future.

Challenges MSOA Faces Now and in the Near Future

Identifying and making acquisitions is at the forefront of MSOA short term goals. With our new CEO, Christopher Kimberlin and his expertise in this endeavor MSOA is uniquely positioned to take advantage of Mr. Kimberlin's expertise in acquiring and turning companies around and making them more profitable in a short period of time. He is a believer in "bootstrapping" business by making them grow with as little debt involved as possible.

Why our Model Will Work

Because it has worked in the past for others who have tried it. Two different approaches will be used when it comes to acquisitions. MSOA will acquire healthy companies with significant cash flow. It will also buy distressed entities in need of restructuring that will become profitable once the restructuring takes place. The net result will be large heterogeneous companies composed of separate verticals that when combined together will create a massive profit making operation. Not to mention the Managing Partner program, which will both fund MSOA and allow it to find competent managers of its acquisitions who all will have financial motivation toward profitability. Mr. Kimberlin, CEO, has experience in the Mergers and Acquisitions space and has lined up more than 50 private companies who are looking to divest or merge with a larger public company.

Cash Flow- Where the Money Will Come From

Revenue from Acquired Companies

Once MSOA acquires a company through the use of convertible preferred shares or cash, the acquired company may be run by the incoming Managing Partner. The acquired company's balance sheet will be consolidated with MSOA's. Once the acquisition is complete, MSOA will then take control of the company's bank account and cash flows. At this point the cash flows become part of MSOA's income statement as well.

Managing Partner Funds

Upon most acquisitions, a Managing Partner will be brought in. The managing partner will invest 20% of the purchase price to become the managing partner and to share in 20% of the profits. The managing partner will also draw a salary to run the business. Each acquired business with a managing partner will have a five-year exit plan. The managing partner may choose to use their 20% share to purchase the business they are managing from MSOA at current market value at the end of the five-year term. They may decide not to buy the business and MSOA may retain or sell the business on the open market at current market value. In the end, MSOA will realize the profits of the business for five years, and the sales price of the business at the end of the five-year term of ownership if sold.

Stock Price Appreciation

As more acquisitions are made, MSOA's consolidated revenue, that will be reported quarterly, should increase. Should the stock price move in tandem with earnings, the stock's price increase will bring value to shareholders.

Targets for Acquisition

In order for this plan to be successful, MSOA must acquire companies and take them public on a regular basis. The verticals MSOA management is researching include but are not limited to:

- *Bio Medical Companies

- *Food Service & Hospitality

- *Real Estate (Commercial or Residential)

- *IT Consulting & Software Companies

Any business seeking to become part of the MSOA family should have revenue of at least $400,000 gross per year and a business plan to double that in three years' time. Ideally, prospects would have been in business for at least two years with auditable double digit revenue growth quarter by quarter. Managing Partners should be in place, seasoned and ambitious to expand their operations. MSOA is not looking to buy a business and run it. MSOA is looking to buy businesses and bring in investing managing partners to run them. Some acquisitions will have experienced management in place and may not need a managing partner but most will.

OF INTELECOM, INC.

As adopted August 15, 1997

ARTICLE I

OFFICES, CORPORATE SEAL, AND CORPORATE ARTICLES

Section 1. Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business of the Corporation shall be 5500 East Yale Avenue, Suite 200, Denver, Colorado, 80222. The principal place of business may be changed from time to time by the board of directors.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also maintain offices at such other place or places, either within or without the State of Nevada, as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors, and the business of the Corporation may be transacted at such other offices with the same effect as that conducted at the principal office.

Section 3. Corporate Seal. A corporate seal shall not be requisite to the validity of any instrument executed by or on behalf of the Corporation, but nevertheless if in any instance a corporate seal be used, the same shall be, at the pleasure of the officer affixing the same, either (a) a circle having on the circumference thereof the name of the Corporation and the year of the incorporation and in the center "Corporate Seal Nevada," or (b) a circle containing the words "Corporate Seal" on the circumference thereof.

Section 4. References to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Articles will be deemed to refer to its Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto as at any given time on file with the Nevada Secretary of State, together with any and all certificates theretofore filed by the Corporation with the Nevada Secretary of State.

Section 5. Seniority of Articles. The statutes of the State of Nevada will in all respects be considered superior to the Articles, with any inconsistency resolved in favor of the statutes. The statutes and Articles will in all respects be considered senior and superior to these By-Laws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the statutes and Articles, and with these By-Laws to be deemed automatically amended from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistency which may then exist.

Section 6. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall, unless otherwise determined by the board of directors, be the calendar year, ending December 31.

ARTICLE II

CLASSES OF STOCK

Section 1. Capital Stock. The total authorized number of shares of stock of this corporation shall be two million (2,000,000). Five hundred thousand (500,000) of said shares of stock shall be known as Class A stock. One million five hundred thousand (1,500,000) of said shares shall be known as class B stock.

Section 2. Voting Rights and Powers. All voting rights and powers shall be vested in class A stock. Class B stock shall not have any voting rights or powers.

Section 3. Dividends. Dividends may be declared on both classes A and B stock. However, no dividend shall be declared or paid on class A stock unless and until a dividend in the same amount or greater amount is declared on class B stock.

Section 4. Value of Stock. The stock shall have no par value. In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, each share of stock, whether class A or B, shall share equally in the distribution of any property or proceeds.

ARTICLE III

STOCKHOLDERS OF CLASS B STOCK

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders of class B stock shall be held on the First Monday of March in each year (or if that be a legal holiday in the place where the meeting is to be held, on the next succeeding full business day) at the hour fixed by the directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. The purposes for which the annual meeting is to be held, in addition to those prescribed by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws, may be specified by the directors. If no annual meeting is held in accordance with the foregoing provisions, a special meeting may be held in lieu thereof, and any action taken at such meeting shall have the same effect as if taken at the annual meeting.

Section 2. General Provisions. All meetings, special meetings, notices of said meetings, actions and votes of the stockholders of class B stock shall be conducted by and held in conformance with and according to the provisions and rules governing stockholders of class A stock.

ARTICLE IV

STOCKHOLDERS OF CLASS A STOCK

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders of class A stock shall be held on the First Monday of March in each year (or if that be a legal holiday in the place where the meeting is to be held, on the next succeeding full business day) at the hour fixed by the directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. The purposes for which the annual meeting is to be held, in addition to those prescribed by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws, may be specified by the directors. If no annual meeting is held in accordance with the foregoing provisions, a special meeting may be held in lieu thereof, and any action taken at such meeting shall have the same effect as if taken at the annual meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders of class A stock may be called by a majority of the directors. Upon written application of one or more stockholders of class A stock who are entitled to vote at the meeting and who hold at least 20% of the class A stock entitled to vote at the meeting, special meetings shall be called by the Clerk, or in the case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Clerk, by any other officer. The call for the meeting shall state the date, hour and place and the purposes of the meeting. No call of a Special Meeting of the stockholders of class A stock shall be required if such notice of the meeting shall have been waived in writing by every such stockholder entitled to notice thereof, or by his attorney thereunto authorized.

Section 3. Place of Meetings. All meetings of stockholders of class A stock shall be held at the principal office of the corporation unless a different place (within the United States) is fixed by the directors and stated in the notice of the meeting.

Section 4. Notices of Meetings. A written notice of every meeting of stockholders of class A stock, stating the place, date and hour thereof, and the purpose for which the meeting is to be held, shall be given by the Clerk or by the person or persons calling the meeting at least ten days before the meeting to each stockholder, who by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws is entitled to such notice, by leaving such notice with him at his residence or usual place of business, or by mailing it postage prepaid and addressed to such stockholder at his address as it appears upon the books of the corporation. No notice need be given to any stockholder if a written waiver of notice, executed before or after the meeting by the stockholder or his attorney thereunto authorized, is filed with the records of the meeting.

Section 5. Quorum. The holders of a majority in interest of all stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at a meeting shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn any meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 6. Voting and Proxies. Each stockholder shall have one vote for each share of stock entitled to vote held by him or her of record according to the records of the corporation, unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Organization. Stockholders of class A stock may vote either in person or by written proxy dated not more than six months before the meeting named therein. Proxies shall be filed with the Clerk of the meeting, or of any adjournment thereof, before being voted. Except as otherwise limited therein, proxies shall entitle the persons named therein to vote at the meeting specified therein and at any adjournment of such meeting. A proxy with respect to stock held in the name of two or more persons shall be valid if executed by one of them unless or at prior to exercise of the proxy the corporation receives a specific written notice to the contrary from any one of them. A proxy purporting to be executed by or on behalf of a stockholder shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise.

Section 7. Action at Meeting. When a quorum is present, the holders of a majority of the stock present or represented and voting on a matter, except where a larger vote is required by law, the Articles of Organization or these By-Laws, shall decide any matter to be voted on by the stockholders of class A stock. Any election by stockholders of class A stock shall be determined by a plurality of the votes cast by the stockholders of class A stock entitled to vote at the election. No ballot shall be required for such election unless requested by a stockholder present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote in the election. The corporation shall not directly or indirectly vote any share of its stock.

Section 8. Action without Meeting. Any action to be taken by the stockholders of class A stock may be taken without a meeting of all stockholders of class A stock entitled to vote on the matter consent to the action by a writing filed with the records of the meetings of stockholders of class A stock. Such consent shall be treated for all purposes as a vote at a meeting.

Section 9. Special Teleconference Meeting. Meetings of stockholders of class A stock may be held through a telephone conference call provided at least 60% of such stockholders consent to the convening of such a meeting. The rules governing a meeting of the stockholders of class A stock shall otherwise be followed for a telephone conference call meeting.

Section 10. Restrictions on the Sale or Transfer of Class A Stock. In the event that an owner shall desire to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the class A stock of IntelCom, Inc., at any time hereafter, they shall give notice in writing to the corporation, setting forth the person(s) to whom such transfer or other disposition is to be made, and the terms and conditions upon which such transfer or other disposition is to be made. The corporation shall have the right for a period of 60 days after the receipt of such notice, to acquire from such party or parties giving such notice of intention to sell or otherwise dispose of the shares of the class A stock, said stock being offered for sale or transfer, under the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration as the said stock would be transferred or disposed to another party as set forth in the notice. The corporation shall provide notice of its intent to exercise this right of first refusal within 10 days, in writing, to the party providing such notice.

In the event that the corporation does not elect to exercise this right of first refusal as provided under section 10 above, the remaining stockholders of class A stock shall have the right to exercise this option jointly, or severally in proportion to the respective stock holdings of those stockholders choosing to exercise this option. Stockholders choosing to exercise this option must provide notice of their intent to exercise this right of first refusal within 20 days, in writing, to the party providing notice of the intent to transfer or dispose of said stock.

This restriction shall terminate and cease to have effect on December 31, 2001 or upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

1. By vote of an 80% majority of the stockholders of class A stock;
2. Capital stock in the corporation is offered to the general public for sale.

Section 11. Restrictions Endorsed on Stock Certificate. All certificates of class A stock shall include the following language:

"This certificate is subject to, and is transferable only upon compliance with restrictions on transfer set forth in the By-Laws of the Corporation."

Section 12. Failure to Comply. If any stockholder shall do or permit any act which is prohibited under the terms of these By-Laws, or shall fail to give the notice of sale or transfer required hereunder, then at the election of the corporation, such shareholder shall be deemed to have given the required notice on the date the corporation first learned of such act.

ARTICLE V

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the shareholders, the number of persons to serve on the board of directors shall be four; provided, however, that the number of directors shall be not less than three unless all of the outstanding shares of stock are owned beneficially and of record by fewer than three shareholders, in which event the number of directors shall not be fewer than the number of shareholders of the minimum permitted by statute. The directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the shareholders, except as provided in Section 2 of this Article, and each director elected shall hold office until his or her successor is elected and qualified. Directors need not be shareholders.

IntelCom, Inc.
By-Laws

Section 2. Vacancies. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, though not less than a quorum, or by a sole shareholder providing for a different method for filling vacancies and newly created directorships, in which event the provisions of the shareholders agreement shall be controlling. The directors so chosen shall hold office only until the next annual election, even if the term to which they have been elected extends beyond such meeting, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, unless sooner displaced. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by the shareholders agreement binding on all shareholders, if there is one, and otherwise as provided by statute.

Section 3. Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its board of directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts as are not by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

Section 4. Place of Meetings. The board of directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Nevada, and may be held by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

Section 5. Annual Meetings. The regular annual meeting of each newly elected board of directors shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders and in the same place as the annual meeting of shareholders, and no notice to the newly elected directors of such meeting shall be necessary in order legally to hold the meeting, providing all such directors were present at the annual shareholders' meeting and a quorum shall be present. In the event such meeting is not held, the meeting may be held at such time and place as shall be specified in a notice given as hereinafter provided for special meetings of the board of directors, or as shall be specified in a written waiver by all directors.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board may be called by the chairman of the board, the president or the secretary on two day's notice to each director, either personally, by mail, by telegraph, or by telephone; special meetings shall be called by the president or secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors.

Section 8. Quorum. A majority of the membership of the board of directors

IntelCom, Inc.
By-Laws

shall constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a majority of these present shall be sufficient to conduct the business of the board, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board of directors, the directors then present may adjourn the meeting to another time or place, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum be present.

Section 9. Action without Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee.

Section 10. Executive Committee. Upon adoption of a resolution creating the same by the board of directors, there may be an executive committee consisting of a specified number of the board of directors who shall be elected by the board. Members of the executive committee shall serve at the pleasure of the board of directors and each member of the executive committee may be removed with or without cause at any time by the board of directors acting at a meeting or by unanimous written consent. Any vacancy shall be filled by the board of directors. The executive committee shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, but shall not possess any authority of the board of directors prohibited by law.

Section 11. Compensation. The directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the board of directors or a stated salary as director. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Members of special or standing committees may be allowed like compensation for attending committee meetings. The amount or rate of such compensation of members of the board of directors or of committees shall be established by the board of directors and shall be set forth in the minutes of the board.

Section 12. Waiver of Notice. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Any director may waive notice of any annual, regular, or special meeting of directors by executing a written notice of waiver either before or after the time of the meeting.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

Section 1. Designation of Titles. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the board of directors and may, but need not, include a president, a vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, a chairman of the board, additional vice presidents, and one or more assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless the Articles of Incorporation otherwise provide. If only one person is serving as an officer of this corporation, he or she shall be deemed to be president and secretary.

Section 2. Appointment of Officers. The board of directors at its first meeting after each annual meeting of shareholders shall choose the officers of the corporation, each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the board of directors. The board of directors at any time may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary to hold offices at the pleasure of the board of directors and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the board.

Section 3. Salaries. The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors, and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he is also a director of the Corporation. The salaries of the officers or the rate by which salaries are fixed shall be set forth in the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors.

Section 4. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise may be filled by the board of directors at any time.

Section 5. Chairman of the board. The board of directors may elect a chairman to serve as a general executive officer of the Corporation, and, if specifically designated as such by the board, as chief executive officer of the Corporation. The chairman of the board, if one shall have been appointed and be serving, shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors and shareholders unless the chairman defers to the president to do so and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her.

Section 6. President. The president shall preside at all meetings of shareholders upon deferral by the chairman of the board, and if a chairman of the board shall not have been appointed or, having been appointed, shall not be serving or be absent, the president shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors. Unless the chairman of the board has been specifically designated as chief executive officer by the board of directors, the president shall serve as chief executive officer of the Corporation. He or she shall sign all deeds and conveyances, all contracts and agreements, and all other instruments requiring execution on behalf of the Corporation, and InteleCom, Inc.

By-Laws

shall act as operating and directing head of the Corporation, subject to policies established by the board of directors.

Section 7. Vice Presidents. There shall be as many vice presidents as shall be determined by the board of directors from time to time, and they shall perform such duties as from time to time may be assigned to them. Any one of the vice presidents, as authorized by the board, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the president in case of the temporary absence of the president or in case of his or her temporary inability to act. In case of the permanent absence or inability of the president to act, the office shall be declared vacant by the board of directors and a successor chosen by the board.

Section 8. Secretary. The secretary shall see that the minutes of all meetings of shareholders, of the board of directors, and of any standing committees are kept. The secretary shall be the custodian of the corporation seal and shall affix it to all proper instruments when appropriate. The secretary shall have charge of all of the books and records of the Corporation except the books of accounts, and in general shall perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary of a Corporation and such other duties as may be assigned.

Section 9. Treasurer. The treasurer, if there is one, shall have general custody of all the funds and securities of the Corporation except such as may be required by law to be deposited with any state official. The treasurer shall see to the deposit of the funds of the Corporation in such bank or banks as the board of directors shall designate. Regular books of account shall be kept under the treasurer's direction and supervision, and the treasurer shall render financial statements to the president, directors, and shareholders at proper times. The treasurer shall have charge of the preparation and filing of such reports, financial statements, and returns as may be required by law. The treasurer shall give to the Corporation such fidelity bond as may be required and the premium therefor shall be paid by the Corporation as an operating expense. If there is no treasurer, the duties of the treasurer shall be performed by the secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Secretaries. There may be such number of assistant secretaries as from time to time the board of directors may fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as from time to time may be assigned to them. No assistant secretary shall have power or authority to collect, account for, or pay over any tax imposed by any federal, state or city government.

Section 11. Assistant Treasurers. There may such number of assistant treasurers as from time to time the board of directors may fix, and such persons shall perform such functions as from time to time may be assigned to them. No assistant treasurer shall have power or authority to collect, account for, or pay over any tax imposed by any federal, state or city government.

IntelCom, Inc.
By-Laws

Section 12. Other Powers and Duties. Each officer shall, subject to these By-Laws, have in addition to the duties and powers specifically set forth in these By-Laws, such duties as are customarily incident to his office, and such duties and powers as the directors may from time to time designate. The board of directors may require any or all of the officers or employees of the corporation to give bond for the faithful performance of their duties in such amount and with such sureties as the directors may approve.

ARTICLE VII

STOCK CERTIFICATES

Section 1. Form Thereof. Each certificate representing shares of the Corporation will be in such form as may from time to time be approved by the board of directors, will be numbered and will exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares represented thereby.

Section 2. Signatures and Seal Thereon. All certificates issued for shares of the Corporation's capital stock (whether new, re-issued or transferred) will bear the signatures of the president or a vice president, and of the secretary or assistant secretary, and may, but need not, bear the impression of the Corporation's corporate seal. The signatures of such officers of the Corporation, and the impression of its corporate seal, may be in facsimile form on any certificates which are manually countersigned by or on behalf of an independent transfer agent or registrar duly appointed by the Corporation for the shares of stock evidenced thereby. If a supply of unissued certificates bearing the facsimile signature of a person remains when that person ceases to hold the corporate office indicated on such certificates, they may still be countersigned, registered, issued and delivered by the Corporation's transfer agent or registrar thereafter, the same as though such person had continued to hold the office indicated on such certificate.

Section 3. Ownership. The Corporation will be entitled to treat the registered owner of any share as the absolute owner thereof and, accordingly, will not be found to recognize any beneficial, equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share of the part of any other person, whether or not it has notice thereof, except as otherwise may expressly be provided by statute.

Section 4. Transfers. Transfers of shares will be made on the books of the Corporation only at the direction of the person named on the certificate therefor (or by such person's duly authorized attorney-in-fact) and upon the surrender of such certificate.

IntelCom, Inc.
By-Laws

Section 5. Lost Certificates. In the event of the loss, theft or destruction of any certificate representing capital stock of this Corporation or of any predecessor corporation, the Corporation may issue (or, in the case of any such shares as to which a transfer agent or registrar have been appointed, may direct such transfer agent or registrar to countersign, register and issue) a certificate in lieu of that alleged to be lost, stolen or destroyed, and cause the same to be delivered to the owner of the shares represented thereby, provided that the owner shall have submitted such evidence showing the circumstances of the alleged loss, theft or destruction, and his ownership of the certificate, as the Corporation considers satisfactory, together with any other facts which the Corporation considers pertinent, and further provided that, if the Corporation so requires, a bond shall have been provided in the form and amount satisfactory to the Corporation (and to its transfer agent or registrar, if applicable.) The Corporation may act through its president, and vice presidents, its secretary or its treasurer for any purpose of this Section 5.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

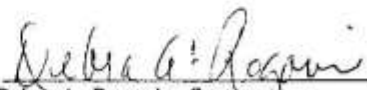

Section 1. Repeal, Alteration and Amendment. These By-Laws may be repealed, altered or amended or substitute By-Laws may be adopted at any time by a majority of the board of directors or by a majority vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon.

Section 2. Voting of Securities Owned by Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the board of directors, the president or any person nominated by the president from time to time, shall be the attorney and proxy of this corporation to vote any shares of stock or other security interests held by this corporation in any other corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other business entity at any meeting of security holders of such corporation or entity or to consent to the taking of any action by such corporation, and to waive notice of any meeting to consider any matter.

CERTIFICATE

The undersigned hereby certifies that the foregoing By-Laws have been duly adopted by the board of directors, that they include all amendments adopted through this date, and that they have not been further amended, rescinded or repealed, and are currently in effect.

Dated this 15th day of August, 1997.
