The current economic conditions have caused many people to fall behind due to lower income, unemployment or rising costs in their daily lives. As a result, their credit scores have been negatively affected which in turn has made them too risky of a candidate for traditional loans. Title King intends to fill this void by offering consumers no credit check lending at competitive or superior rates to similar businesses. Our goal is to provide easy access to cash on property already owned by the consumer. Our short-term loans will provide an affordable pay-back schedule for the borrower and will allow them the opportunity to pay off the entire loan at any time.
