Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

When used in this report, the words "will", "expect", "anticipate", "continue", "estimate", "project", "intend" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27a of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21c of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 regarding events, conditions, and financial trends that may affect the Company's Future plans of operations, business strategy, operating results, and financial position. Persons reviewing this report are cautioned that any forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties and those actual results may differ materially from those included within the forward looking statements as a result of various factors. Such factors include, among other things, uncertainties relating to our success, in judging consumer preferences, financing our operations, entering into strategic partnerships, engaging management, seasonal and period-to-period fluctuations in sales, failure to increase market share or sales, inability to service outstanding debt obligations, dependence on a limited number of customers, increased production costs or delays in production of new products, intense competition within the industry, inability to protect intellectual property in the international market for our products, changes in market condition and other matters disclosed by us in our public filings. From time to time forward-looking statements speak only as to the date they are made. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made. Where, in any forward-looking statement, the Company expresses an expectation or belief as to future results or events, such expectations or belief is expressed in good faith and believed to have a reasonable basis, but there can be no assurance that the statement of expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements.

1) Name of the issuer and its predecessors (if any)

Currently: NanoTech Gaming, Inc. – (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) as of April 23, 2015.

Past History: The Company was founded in 1989 by Fayiz Hilal and was Cetek Technologies, organized as a Delaware corporation on April 28, 1994 under the name of Cetek Technologies Inc. Effective April 11, 2006, the Company changed its corporate domicile from Delaware to Nevada.

Effective June 6, 2014, the Company changed its name to High Velocity Enterprises, Inc. and increased its authorized capital stock to 45,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share.

On or about February 10, 2015, NanoTech Entertainment, Inc. (“NTEK”) purchased controlling interest from Bruce Schoengood (hereinafter referred to as the “NTEK Acquisition”) consisting of 1,834 shares of Preferred Stock with super voting rights. Additionally, on the same date, NTEK sold certain assets to High Velocity Enterprises, Inc. pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement which included office furniture and related items, computer hardware, computer peripherals, computer software, firmware development capitalized costs, software development capitalized costs, and various Intellectual Property items which include certain U.S. patents in consideration of 15,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock.

On March 24, 2015, the Company also filed a Certificate of Change in order to conduct a 10-for-1 forward split of its issued and outstanding Common Stock. The Company filed a Notification of Issuer Corporate Action with FINRA concerning the name change and the forward split which was approved on April 23, 2015 (post end of 1st quarter of FYE for the Company). Pursuant to this now approved forward stock split, the Company rounded all shareholders with partial shares of Common Stock up to the next even numbered share of common stock and issued to shareholders additional common stock who ended up with 99 shares or less, to 100 shares of Common Stock (e.g. even lot). As such, the Company issued an additional 112,850 shares of Common Stock. This is explained in under “Security Information” under Item 3 below.

On March 31, 2015, NTGL assigned back 100% interest in King Media, Inc. to a former control person of NTGL in exchange for their assumption of the liabilities of King Media, Inc. Thus divestiture of King Media, Inc. will allow NTGL to focus on its core business which is described above.
