NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
NOVEMBER 30, 2016
(Amounts expressed in US Dollars)

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Portlogic Systems Inc. ("Portlogic") was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on June 22, 2004. On June 5, 2008, Portlogic filed a Form S-1 Registration Statement under the United States Securities Act of 1933. It became effective June 24, 2008.

Portlogic is a Toronto, Canada based technology company with enterprise mobile marketing applications solutions, kiosk hardware and software products which fall into six principal product families: m2Meet, m2Bank, m2Market, m2Ticket, m2Kiosk, and m2Workflow. Prior to January 2010, Portlogic created and licensed online interactive community portal software systems and developed a series of web-based community portal products.

On September 16, 2009, Portlogic incorporated a wholly-owned subsidiary, Sunlogic Energy Corporation in Panama City, Republic of Panama for the purpose of looking at solar and alternative green energy software and products. Sunlogic Energy Corporation is still incorporated as a subsidiary but its operations are on hold.

On June 18, 2012, Portlogic incorporated a wholly owned subsidiary, VOIP 1, Inc. under the laws of the State of Nevada. VOIP 1, Inc. specializes in data and voice telecommunications technologies. VOIP 1 began earning revenues in September 2012.

In August 2015, Portlogic started development on a high definition video server platform.

The consolidated financial statements include Portlogic and its subsidiary (herein after referred to collectively as the "Company"). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for consolidated financial information. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

NOTE 2. GOING CONCERN

The consolidated financial statements are presented on a going concern basis which contemplates the realization of assets and discharge of obligations in the normal course of business as they come due. Accordingly, they do not include any adjustments relating to the realization of the carrying value of assets or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

The Company has incurred losses from inception and, during the six month period ended November 30, 2016, the Company utilized $46,617 (November 30, 2015 - $30,193) of cash in operations. At November 30, 2016, the Company reported a deficit of $1,552,455 and continues to expend cash in amounts that exceed revenues. These conditions cast substantial doubt on the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and meet its obligations as they come due. Management is considering various alternatives and is pursuing raising additional capital resources. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that these initiatives if undertaken will be successful.

(Amounts expressed in US Dollars)

NOTE 2. GOING CONCERN (cont'd)

The Company has shifted its focus to specializing in mobile applications solutions marketing, and data and telecommunications technology. The Company also develops a series of web-based community portal products as well as a series of off-the-shelf template based websites. The Company's continuance as a going concern is dependent on the commercialization of more of the Company's products and the achievement of profitable operations as well as the success of the Company in raising additional long-term financing through debt or equity offerings. In the event that the Company is not successful in these efforts, the assets may not be realized or liabilities discharged at their carrying amounts, and differences from the carrying amounts reported in these consolidated financial statements could be material.

NOTE 3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial information is unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position as of November 30, 2016 and the results of operations, and cash flows presented herein have been included in the consolidated financial statements. All such adjustments are of a normal and recurring nature. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of results of operations for the full year.

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Financial statement items subject to significant judgment include the expected life of equipment, the net realizable value of accounts receivable, the completeness of expense accruals, as well as income taxes and loss contingencies. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents comprise highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased. As at November 30, 2016, cash equivalents amounted to $Nil (May 31, 2016 - $Nil).

Asset Impairment

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. An impairment loss would be recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds the estimated undiscounted future cash flows that are expected to result from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and included as part of selling and administrative expenses. Advertising costs amounted to $Nil for the six month period ended November 30, 2016 (November 30, 2015 - $Nil).

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue at the point of passage to the customer of title and risk of loss when there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement, the sales price is determinable, and collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured.

Service revenues are generally recognized at the time of performance. Revenues billed in advance under contracts are deferred and recognized over the corresponding service periods.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Amounts expressed in US Dollars)

NOTE 3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

Foreign Currency Translation

The Company maintains its accounting records in US dollars, which is its functional and reporting currency. At the transaction date, each asset, liability, revenue and expense denominated in a foreign currency is translated into the functional currency by the use of the exchange rate in effect at that date. At the period end, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into the functional currency by using the exchange rate in effect at that date. The resulting foreign exchange gains and losses are included in operations. Foreign exchange loss amounted to $Nil for the six month period ended November 30, 2016 (November 30, 2015 - $Nil).

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for its income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, "Income Taxes", which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in operations in the period that includes the enactment date. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

Earnings (Loss) per Share

The Company reports earnings (loss) per share in accordance with ASC 260, "Earnings per Share." Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed similar to basic earnings (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Diluted earnings (loss) per share has not been presented since the effect of the assumed conversion of the convertible loan into common shares would have an anti-dilutive effect.

Comprehensive Income

The Company has adopted ASC 220, "Comprehensive Income," which establishes standards for reporting and the display of comprehensive income, its components and accumulated balances. Comprehensive income is defined to include all changes in equity except those resulting from investments by owners or distributions to owners. Among other disclosures, the standard requires that all items that are required to be recognized under the current accounting standards as a component of comprehensive income be reported in a financial statement that is displayed with the same prominence as other financial statements. Comprehensive income would be displayed in the statement of shareholders' equity and in the balance sheet as a component of shareholders' equity (deficiency). The Company had no other comprehensive income (loss) for the six month periods ended November 30, 2016 and November 30, 2015. As such, net loss is equivalent to total comprehensive loss.

Financial Instruments and Risk Concentrations

The Company's financial instruments comprise cash and cash equivalents, loan receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, notes payable and convertible loan. Unless otherwise indicated, the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities approximate their recorded values due to their short-terms to maturity. The Company determines the fair value of its long-term financial instruments based on quoted market values or discounted cash flow analyses.

PORTLOGIC SYSTEMS INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
NOVEMBER 30, 2016
(Amounts expressed in US Dollars)

Financial Instruments and Risk Concentrations (cont'd)

Financial instruments that may potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk comprise primarily cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. Cash and cash equivalents comprise deposits with major commercial banks and/or checking account balances. With respect to accounts receivable, the Company performs periodic credit evaluations of the financial condition of its customers and typically does not require collateral from them. Allowances are maintained for potential credit losses consistent with the credit risk of specific customers and other information. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest or currency risks in respect of its financial instruments.

Leases

Leases entered into by the Company as a lessee are classified as capital or operating leases. Leases that transfer substantially the entire risks and benefits incidental to ownership are classified as capital leases. At the inception of a capital lease, an asset and an obligation are recorded at an amount equal to the lesser of the present value of the minimum lease payments and the asset's fair market value at the beginning of each lease. Rental payments under operating leases are expensed as incurred.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has adopted SFAS 123 (Revised), "Share Based Payment," which requires the Company to measure the cost of employee and non-employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award. That cost will be recognized over the period during which an employee or a non-employee is required to provide service in exchange for the award-the requisite service period. No compensation cost is recognized for equity instruments for which employees do not render the requisite service. The grant-date fair value of employee and non-employee share options and similar instruments will be estimated using option-pricing models adjusted for the unique characteristics of those instruments.

NOTE 4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Beginning June 1, 2008, the Company partially applied accounting standard, "Fair Value Measurements," codified as ASC 820. The standard defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. The standard defines fair value as the price that would be received upon sale of an asset or paid upon transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date and in the principal or most advantageous market for that asset or liability. The fair value, in this context, should be calculated based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, not on assumptions specific to the entity. In addition, the fair value of liabilities should include consideration of non-performance risk including our own credit risk.

In addition to defining fair value, the standard expands the disclosure requirements around fair value and establishes a fair value hierarchy for valuation inputs. The hierarchy prioritizes the inputs into three levels based on the extent to which inputs used in measuring fair value are observable in the market. Each fair value measurement is reported in one of the three levels which are determined by the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. These levels are:

- Level 1 Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are either directly or indirectly observable;
- Level 3 Assets or liabilities for which fair value is based on valuation models with significant unobservable pricing inputs and which result in the use of management estimates.

NOTE 6. SHORT TERM LOANS

In the year ended May 31, 2014, the Company received short-term loans from two separate parties to help meet cash flow needs for operations. These are short term loans that the Company has already started repaying in installments. The aggregate balance payable on these short term loans is $23,025 as of November 30, 2016 (May 31, 2016 - $23,025).

NOTE 7. ASSIGNMENT AND NEW CONVERTIBLE LOANS

On October 11, 2012, the Company entered into a convertible loan agreement with Bedford International Ltd. for $25,000 which was received on October 4, 2012 to meet cash flow needs for operations. On January 12, 2014, the Company received notice that this convertible loan was assigned to Haynes Gallo Wealth Management Ltd. by Bedford International. On May 8, 2015, the Company agreed to settle the convertible note in full by issuing 1,250,000 share of common stock to Haynes Gallo Wealth Management at the conversion rate of $0.02 per share. The common stock was issued on July 15, 2015.

NOTE 7. ASSIGNMENT AND NEW CONVERTIBLE LOANS (cont'd)

On December 31, 2013, the Board of Directors approved to amend an existing $636,546 in Notes Payable and New Loan to provide for conversion and assignment of outstanding amounts due and owing into shares of the Company's common stock. $70,000 of the Notes Payable were loaned by separate third parties and therefore reclassified. On August 12, 2016, the Company entered into a debt conversion agreement whereby $300,000 was elected to be converted into 60,000,000 share of common stock at the conversion rate of $0.005. The common stock was issued on August 26, 2016. Therefore, the total balance payable on this convertible loan is restated as $266,546 as of November 30, 2016 (May 31, 2016 - $566,546).

On December 3, 2013, the Company borrowed $45,000, structured as a convertible loan, from KJV Property Group LLC to help meet cash flow needs for operations. On March 26, 2015, $20,000 of this loan was assigned to Fenwood Capital LLC. On May 5, 2015, $20,000 of this loan was elected to be converted into 1,000,000 shares of common stock at the conversion rate of $0.02 per share. The common stock was issued on July 15, 2015. As of May 31, 2016, there is a balance remaining of $5,000 payable on this convertible loan. Interest accrued on the $40,000 prior loaned amounts has been written off. On October 16, 2014, the Company borrowed a further $9,800 from KJV Property. On May 1, 2015, the Company entered into a Convertible Drawdown Loan Agreement with KJV Property, in consideration of a drawdown loan up to $100,000 for funds advanced over a term of two years. Interest payable on the principal amount shall accrue at a fixed rate equal to the prime interest rate plus 2%. On June 4, 2015, the Company borrowed $12,460 from the $100,000 available to be drawn down. The total balance payable on this convertible loan is $22,260 as of November 30, 2016 (May 31, 2016 - $22,260).

On September 4, 2014, the Company borrowed $12,390, structured as a convertible loan, from Fenwood Capital LLC to help meet cash flow needs for operations. On November 20, 2014, a further $4,200 was borrowed. On August 18, 2015 a further $10,000 was borrowed as a private placement for 200,000 common shares at $0.05 per share. As of August 31, 2016, these common shares have not been issued. During the six month period ended November 30, 2016, a further $45,000 was borrowed to help meet cash flow needs for operations. As of November 30, 2016, the total balance payable on this convertible loan is $73,424 (May 31, 2016 - $28,424).

On March 26, 2015, a convertible loan for $20,000 was assigned to Fenwood Capital by another party. On May 5, 2015, Fenwood Capital elected to convert the loan into 1,000,000 shares of common stock at the conversion rate of $0.02 per share. The common stock was issued on July 15, 2015.

On November 16, 2015, the Company borrowed $15,000, structured as a convertible loan, from Haynes Gallo Wealth Management to help meet cash flow needs for operations. As of November 30, 2016, the total balance payable on this convertible loan is $15,000 (May 31, 2016 - $15,000).

Interest expense on all the above loans of the Company has been calculated to November 30, 2016 and amounted to $7,329 for the six months ended November 30, 2016 (November 30, 2015 - $9,493) and is included in selling and administrative expense. As at November 30, 2016, accrued interest of $144,877 (May 31, 2016 - $137,548) is included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities.

NOTE 8. DEBT CONVERSION AGREEMENT

On March 30, 2015, the Company entered into a debt conversion agreement with the Chief Executive and Financial Officer whereby $150,000 of Accounts Payable owed by the Company to the officer was converted to 30,000,000 shares of restricted common stock in full satisfaction of the $150,000 amount owed. The restricted common stock was issued on June 22, 2015.

NOTE 9. SHAREHOLDER LOAN

A shareholder of the Company advanced amounts to the Company as required to help meet cash flow needs for operations. The Company entered into a debt conversion agreement with the shareholder on August 9, 2016 whereby the total balance payable was converted to 7,214,400 shares of restricted common stock in full satisfaction of the loan. The restricted common stock was issued on August 22, 2016. Therefore, the total balance payable to the shareholder as of November 30, 2016 is $Nil (May 31, 2016 - $36,072).

NOTE 10. CONVERTIBLE LOAN

A convertible debenture, issued March 11, 2005, was unsecured, matured March 11, 2012 and carried interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The instrument is convertible at the option of the holder into common shares of the Company at a rate of $0.05 per share, and may be redeemed at any time prior to maturity at the option of the holder, should certain conditions prevail. The holder of the debenture has signed agreements waiving interest accrued from March 11, 2005 through to March 10, 2016. This convertible debenture has not been repaid and is due on March 10, 2017.

NOTE 11. STOCK TRANSACTIONS *

Transactions, other than employees' stock issuance, are in accordance with paragraph 8 of SFAS 123 "Share Based Payment". Thus issuances shall be accounted for on the fair value of the consideration received. Transactions with employees' stock issuance are in accordance with paragraphs (16-44) of SFAS 123. These issuances shall be accounted for based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, or whichever is more readily determinable.

In January 2005, the Company issued a total of 23,605* shares of common stock to nine individuals for cash in the amount of $0.1250 per share for a total of $2,950.

On February 7, 2005, the Company issued a total of 800* shares of common stock to one individual for cash in the amount of $0.25 per share for a total of $200.

On May 26, 2005, the Company issued a total of 12,000* shares of common stock to one individual for cash in the amount of $0.25 per share for a total of $3,000.

In July 2005, the Company issued a total of 202,200* shares of common stock to nine individuals for cash in the amount of $0.25 per share for a total of $50,550.

On September 14, 2005, the Company issued a total of 10,000* shares of common stock to one director for cash in the amount of $0.25 per share for a total of $2,500.

On October 31, 2005, the Company issued a total of 17,920* shares of common stock in the amount of $6.25 per share for a total of $112,000, which was the fair value of the stock on date of issuance, in consideration for the purchase of source code software. A further $40,000 in cash was also paid as consideration for this asset purchase agreement.

In April 2006, the Company issued a total of 240* shares of common stock to three individuals for cash in the amount of $6.25 per share for a total of $1,500.

In May 2006, the Company issued a total of 1,920* shares of common stock to five individuals for cash in the amount of $6.25 per share for a total of $12,000.

In June 2006, the Company issued a total of 250* shares of common stock to three individuals for cash in the amount of $6.00 per share for a total of $1,500.

On July 22, 2006, the Company issued a total of 82* shares of common stock to one individual for cash in the amount of $6.09 per share for a total of $500.
