The Company currently only has 250,000,000 shares of common stock authorized. The Company could far exceed its authorized shares of common stock if all the financial instruments as more fully set forth in the Company's financials referenced herein were exercised or converted into shares of common stock. The company however intends to address this issue in the future by continuing to review and have further discussions with major holders of the listed debt transferred from discontinued operations, so as to attempt to reach an agreement that would substantially reduce such liability and its dilutive effect. There can however be no assurance that such an agreement will be voluntarily reached, which may cause the Company to explore further other actions it may deem necessary.

Item 6. Description of the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

- A. Priority Aviation provides its clients with what it believes to be is premier class private jet charter service worldwide. The Company, acting as brokers, accomplishes this through a screening processes that only selects the safest and most reliable private jets available in the industry. By making use of technological innovations our charter department operates

24 hours a day, 7 days a week. With access to thousands of pre-screened aircraft and highly-trained flight crews, flight access can be arranged with as little as 4 hours' notice.

On July 1, 2015, the Company entered into an Amendment to the Executive Employment Agreement with Peter Minikes (the "Amendment"). Pursuant to the terms of the Amendment, the Company will not renew Mr. Minikes' Employment Agreement upon its expiration on December 5, 2016. If the Company desires to enter into another business or if Mr. Minikes is no longer employed by the Company, but in any case after July 1, 2016, Mr. Minikes shall have the right to acquire the operating business segment Priority One Jets. The purchase price for the business segment to be paid by Mr. Minikes to the Company shall be the cancellation of all amounts owed to Mr. Minikes, the return of all stock and options in the Company and the assumption of all liabilities and obligations of the business segment. Priority One Jets shall be entitled to keep the assets in the business segment in excess of the public expenses of the Company from July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2016, including the cost of preparing the Company tax returns.

On December 10, 2015 the Company incorporated Q Technologies LLC, a Wyoming limited liability company, in order to enter into a memorandum of understanding with a private individual for the non-exclusive licensing of a Personal Fertility Assistant Product ("PFA").

On December 15, 2015 the Company's wholly owned subsidiary Q Technologies LLC entered into a Memorandum of Understanding to license and further develop the Personal Fertility Assistant product ("PFA") previously known as Ovucon, and related technology from Israeli inventors.

On May 4, 2016 the Company announced the termination of negotiations to acquire the PFA. The Company is currently no longer actively pursuing an acquisition. Presently the Company intends to continue to operate and hopefully grow its existing subsidiary in the aviation business, though the Company may review additional business opportunities as presented.

Entities controlled by Messrs. Wainstein and Welner have served a lawsuit on their behalf and derivatively by the Company against the Company, its directors and current and past controlling shareholder and director. Based on excerpts of this derivative action, the board and management have concluded that the lawsuit is frivolous, totally without merit and done solely for the further purpose of harassing the Company. The Company has filed its initial response and the suit is in the preliminary stages.

On June 21, 2016, both Mr. Zahavi and Mr. Epstein resigned as directors of the Company.
