5) Financial Statements

Provide the financial statements described below for the most recent fiscal year end or quarter end to maintain qualification for the OTC Pink Current Information tier. For the initial disclosure statement (qualifying for Current Information for the first time) please provide reports for the two previous fiscal years and any interim periods.

- A. Balance sheet;
- B. Statement of income;
- C. Statement of cash flows;
- D. Financial notes; and
- E. Audit letter, if audited (Not Applicable)

The financial statements requested pursuant to this item shall be prepared in accordance with US GAAP by persons with sufficient financial skills.

You may either (i) attach/append the financial statements to this disclosure statement or (ii) post such financial statements through the OTC Disclosure & News Service as a separate report using the appropriate report name for the applicable period end. (“Annual Report,” “Quarterly Report” or “Interim Report”).

If you choose to publish the financial reports separately as described in part (ii) above, you must state in the accompanying disclosure statement that such financial statements are incorporated by reference. You may reference the document(s) containing the required financial statements by indicating the document name, period end date, and the date that it was posted to otcq.com in the field below.

The required Financial Statements are hereby incorporated by reference and were filed on OTC Markets on the same date as this Issuer Disclosure Statement, that being March 28, 2016, under the name: “Quarterly Report - Financial Statements for the Quarter Ended September 30, 2015.”

Information contained in a Financial Report is considered current until the due date for the subsequent Financial Report. To remain in the OTC Pink Current Information tier, a company must post its Annual Report within 90 days from its fiscal year-end date and Quarterly Reports within 45 days of its fiscal quarter-end date.

The Company previously entered into a Credit Agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) with TCA Global Credit master Funds, LP, a Cayman Islands limited partnership (“TCA Global”), dated December 10, 2014. The Credit Agreement covered the Company as well as its subsidiaries, Patten Energy Enterprises, Inc., Atlantic-Pacific, LLP and A.P.

Lubes, Inc. as joint and several guarantors. Mr. Remo was obligated to perform specific corporate actions under a Validity Certificate, executed as CEO/President of the Company

The amounts borrowed pursuant to the Credit Agreement are evidenced by a Revolving Note (the “Revolving Note”) and the repayment of the Revolving Note is secured by a first position security interest in substantially all of the Company’s assets in favor of TCA, as evidenced by a Security Agreement by and between the Company and TCA (the “Company Security Agreement”) and a first position security interest in substantially all of the Subsidiaries’ assets in favor of TCA, as evidenced by a Security Agreement by and among the Subsidiaries and TCA (the “Subsidiaries Security Agreement” and, together with the Company Security Agreement, the “Security Agreements”). The Revolving Note is in the original principal amount of $800,000, is due and payable, along with interest thereon, on June 10, 2015, and bears interest at the rate of 11% per annum, increasing to 18% upon the occurrence of an event of default, in addition to a monthly collections fee payable to TCA under the Credit Agreement. The loan is currently in default.

The Company has defaulted on the Credit Agreement. It has negotiated forbearance Agreements with TCS Global. However, TCA Global has obtained a final Order of Default and Default Final Judgment against the Company, its subsidiaries and Mr. Remo. Pursuant to said Order of Default and Default Final Judgment, TCA is entitled to the total amount of $1,036,752.33, together with $28,844.58, of pre-judgment interest.

The Company has been in negotiations with TCA Global and is hopeful of a negotiated settlement of the amount due to TCA Global. However, there is no assurance that any discussions will result in a settlement at this time.
