5. A description of any material agreements or other events related to the Change in Control.

None. There were no special provisions provided for in the SPA that effected the Change of Control.

Termination of Shell Status

At times prior to January 27, 2022, the Company was a “shell” company within the meaning of SEC Securities Act Rule 405 and SEC Exchange Act Rule 12b-2.

On January 27, 2022, the Control of the Company was transferred to CapCon Holdings LLC under the control of David Olund and Charles Ragland.

On February 4, 2022, the Company’s President filed an amendment effectively changing the name to Feel Better Labs Inc., and the Company management proceeded to operate the company which included developing long term branding and marketing plans for the novel Over the Counter nasal and oral products that the Company seeks to commercialize in the near future.

On December 20, 2022, the Company filed a Letter of Intent to enter into a Share Exchange Agreement with ZapVir Inc, a Wyoming Corporation which is anticipated to be concluded in the 2nd Quarter of 2023, and the Company Management has identified its planned national marketing team as well as manufacturing.

The Company is no longer a “shell” company withing the meaning the SEC Securities Act Rule 405 or SEC Exchange Act Rule 12b-2 because it has more than nominal activities and anticipates producing substantial revenues following the anticipated Share Exchange. The Company Management are engaged full time in the ongoing operations if the Company.

The Company attests it is not currently a shell company.

Furthermore, in accordance with OTC Markets Group inc., Disclosure Guidelines, the Company states:

We previously were a shell company, therefore, the exemption offered pursuant to rule 144 is not available. Anyone who purchased securities directly or indirectly from us or any of our affiliate in a transaction or chain of transactions not involving a public offering cannot sell such securities in an open market transaction.
