1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

General Development and Narrative Description of Business – The Company was incorporated in Nevada on December 16, 2016 with the name of Medically Minded Holding Corp. for the purpose of engaging in a holding company reorganization with Medically Minded, Inc. completed on December 23, 2016 with the merger of On March 31, 2017 the Company acquired 66 Oilfield Services, LLC. The transaction is being accounted for as a reverse merger.

66 Oil Field Services ("66") is a third generation heavy oil field equipment company founded by J.C. Houck in Oklahoma in 1959 and focuses on supplying the oil industry with custom drilling rigs, heavy-weight drill pipe, drill collars, pup joints, pony collars, handling tools, tubing, casing, blow-out preventers, engines, compressors and other select equipment to customers world-wide through our facilities in Oklahoma City, Germany and Dubai.

No additional securities were issued in the transaction. The Company will utilize reissue of the currently outstanding 3,000,000 shares of Series A-1 Preferred Stock representing 80% of the Company's equity.

History of the Company –The business of the Company's original predecessor is unknown. Beginning in 1999 and sequentially after that to the date of the holding company reorganization the predecessor was engaged in development of a high-end, Swiss-made mechanical wrist watch movement, development of a platform and application for live video streaming to hand held devices (twice), durable and disposable medical equipment sales and medical cannabis and low thc/high cbd cannabidoil products. For period of time, the predecessor was not engaged in any business. The predecessor survived the holding company reorganization as a minority-owned subsidiary of the Company and was liquidated on December 31, 2016.

Subsequent to March 31, 2017, the Company applied for and received a new ticker symbol – SSOF. The ticker symbol of the Company's predecessor was MMHC.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition –Revenues are generally recognized when the products are shipped to the customers. The Company has no substantial sales at this time.

Inventories – Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The cost of inventory is based on the weighted average principle for finished goods and on the standard cost principle for raw materials and work-in-progress for inventories that are manufactured. Cost includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories, production or conversion costs and other costs incurred in bringing them to their existing location and condition. In the case of manufactured inventories and work in progress, cost includes an appropriate share of production overheads based on normal operating capacity. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated cost of completion and selling expenses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - All highly liquid investments with original maturities of nine months or less are classified as cash and cash equivalents. The fair value of cash and cash equivalents approximates the amounts shown on the financial statements.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. These estimates and assumptions are used in, but not limited to, certain receivables and accounts payable and the provision for uncertain liabilities. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

Income Taxes - The Company is subject to income taxes in the United States. Income tax expense (benefit) is provided for using the asset and liability method. Deferred income taxes are recognized at currently enacted tax rates for the expected future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between amounts reported for income tax purposes and financial reporting purposes. Deferred taxes are provided for the undistributed earnings as if they were to be distributed. The tax rate for the period ended December 31, 2016 is affected by the estimated valuation allowance against the Company’s deferred tax assets. The Company regularly reviews its deferred tax assets for recoverability taking into consideration such factors as recurring operating losses, projected future taxable income and the expected timing of the reversals of existing temporary differences. The authoritative guidance issued by the FASB requires the Company to record a valuation allowance when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. In determining a conclusion that a valuation allowance is not needed is difficult when there is negative evidence such as cumulative losses in recent years. Based on the level of deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2016 the level of historical losses realized and the fact that the Company not filed any income tax returns until recently, the Company has determined that the uncertainty regarding the realization of these assets is sufficient to warrant the establishment of a full valuation allowance against the Company’s net deferred tax assets.

Recently Adopted Accounting Standards - The Company has adopted all recently issued accounting pronouncements. The adoption of the accounting pronouncements, include those not yet effective, is not anticipated to have a material effect on the financial position or results of operation of the Company.

3. CONVERTIBLE LOANS

The Company entered into seventeen convertible loans with a third party during beginning in December 2014 and during the 2014 and 2016 calendar years. The loans aggregate $391,666.67, have a one year maturity and bear interest at 9% per annum. They are convertible into common stock at a discount of 30% to the then current market price of the common stock. All loans prior to September 30, 2015 are in default. The Company has no and does not expect to have any means of repaying the loans according to their terms and it does not have sufficient authorized and unissued common stock to convert the loans. Furthermore, the Company does not have sufficient authorized and unissued shares of common stock to honor the conversion of the notes.

A former affiliate of the Company has an agreement to acquire the notes from the lender and, upon payment of the acquisition price, to satisfy the notes in full by means of conversion of notes into whatever number of shares of authorized and unissued common stock the Company has available at the conversion date.

4. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

At June 30, 2016, the total number of shares of all classes of stock, which the Company shall have authority to issue is 510,000,000, consisting of 500,000,000 common shares and 10,000,000 preferred shares.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, the Company issued common stock in payment of all accounts payable, not including amounts due it transfer agent and OTCMarkets. On December 15, 2014, the Company settled a court case for the collection of a $101,500 debt of the subsidiary by agreeing to issue 85,000,000 shares to a third party. The shares are issuable in tranches such that the third party does not own more than 4.9% of total issued and outstanding common stock at any time. The Company will issue shares during 2015 in satisfaction of the judgment.

During the six month period ended June 30, 2016, the Company completed the issue of the 85,000,000 shares of common stock described in the preceding paragraph.

On October 19, 2015, the Company settled a court case for claims totaling $103,855 by agreeing to issue 56,526,684 shares to the plaintiff. The shares were issuable in tranches such that the third party does not own more than 4.9% of total issued and outstanding common stock at any time. The Company issue shares during 2015 and the first six months of 2016 in full satisfaction of the court order.

On May 13, 2016, a court order was entered against the Company, and amended July 6, 2016, pursuant to which the Company will issue a total of 246,000,000 shares of its common stock in satisfaction of $219,500 in claims against the Company. Prior to June 30, 2016, 28,884,541 shares have been issued in satisfaction of the court order and the balance of 167,115,459 shares is expected to be issued prior to December 31, 2016.

The number of issued Preferred Stock is 10,000,000 shares: 7,000,000 Series A Preferred Shares and 3,000,000 Series A-1 Preferred Shares. These A Preferred shares have a 10% preferred cash dividend distribution and have 4 votes per share. As compensation of the acquisition of the subsidiary, the Company issued 3,000,000 of Series A-1 Convertible Preferred shares, which are convertible in Common Stock equal to 80%, reduced from 97%, of the total issued and outstanding common stock at the time of conversion, with votes which equals the outstanding common stock votes and the votes and the Series A Preferred shares plus 1 vote..

The Company has no stock-based compensation plans for employees and non-employee members of the Board of Directors.

The Company has adjusted Retained Deficit as needed to balance Total Liabilities and Stockholders' Equity with Total Assets as a result of the reverse acquisition of Medically Minded.

5. INCOME TAXES

The Company was not subject to income tax in the United States prior to May 2014 and has not filed tax returns since that date through taxable year 2015 or for any period subsequent thereto. As a result of the change in control and change in business on March 14, 2017, the Company believes it has no net operating loss carry forward applicable to future tax years.

6. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company does not have any commitments and contingencies.

7. LITIGATION

The Company does not have any current litigation.

On October 19, 2015 the Company's predecessor settled a court case, related with the collection of an aggregate of $96,855.31 in accounts payable and an obligation for $7,000 in plaintiff's attorneys fees pursuant to a court judgment in exchange for 56,526,684 freely tradable shares in reliance on Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act of 1933. The shares are issuable in tranches such that the third party does not own more than 9.9% of total issued and outstanding common stock at any time. The Company assumed its predecessor's obligation under the judgment in the holding company reorganization.

On May 13, 2016, as amended July 6, 2016, a court order was entered against the Company's predecessor in favor of a third party approving the issue of 246,000,000 shares of common stock in satisfaction of $219,500 claims against the Company's predecessor; provided, the third party does not own more than 9.9% of total issued and outstanding common stock at any time.
