

5 million shares to be returned from a WRAPmail partner as agreement has been cancelled

In February 2012 the company issued 5M restricted shares to a Partner as part of a stock exchange agreement. This agreement has been cancelled and these 5M shares will be returned to the treasury and cancelled. When the certificates have been returned the company will update issued shares total on OTC Markets website.