GREENGRO TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013
(Unaudited)

NOTE 1- DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND HISTORY

Greengro Technologies Inc. (formerly Authorizor, Inc.) (the "Company" or "GreenGro") was incorporated in 1996 under the laws of the State of Delaware. On September 1, 2009, the Company changed its name to GreenGro Technologies, Inc. The Company owns 51% equity in BP Gardens, Inc. which was incorporated under the laws of the state of Nevada on September 9, 2013 for the purpose of partnering with affiliates to lease and development 4.5 acres in Buena Park where together they will build greenhouses to demonstrate the Company's advanced indoor growing technology. The production will be sold commercially and at the farmers market they hope to launch on the leased property in Buena Park California.

On January 15, 2014, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with John Taylor (dba Lincoln Hills Organics) to construct six greenhouses on the 45,000 square foot property. The Company will operate the joint venture agreement through BP Gardens 2, Inc., a 50% owned corporation, which was incorporated under the laws of the state of Nevada on February 28, 2014. We are currently matching capital to develop the land and construct our innovative greenhouse technology. We plan to grow lettuce, tomatoes, leafy greens, herbs and fish for the sale in commercial markets. The revenues and costs of operations will be split 50/50 with our partner John Taylor.

The Company designs, manufactures, and markets eco-friendly sustainable vertical cultivation systems.

NOTE 2- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT POLICIES

Basis of Presentation- The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Principles of Consolidation- The accompanying consolidated financial statements include all of the accounts of the Company, BP Gardens, Inc., BP Gardens 2, Inc. and Greensticks, Inc. as of March 31, 2014. The Company owns 51% equity in BP Gardens, Inc., 50% in BP Gardens 2, Inc., and 100% of Greensticks, Inc. The Company has accounted for the non-controlling interest using GAAP accounting standards. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Unaudited Interim Financial Information- The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in The United States of America and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all the information necessary for a comprehensive presentation of financial position and results of operations.

It is management's opinion, however, that all material adjustments (consisting of normal and recurring adjustments) have been made which are necessary for a fair financial statements presentation. The results for the six months ended September 30, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2013.

Non-Controlling Interest - Greengro Technologies, Inc. owns 51% of BP Gardens, Inc and 50% of BP Gardens 2, Inc. Under the Equity Method of Accounting, it is required to consolidate 100% of the operations of a majority-owned subsidiary, that portion of subsidiary net equity attributable to the non-controlling ownership, together with an allocated portion of net income or net loss incurred by the subsidiaries, must be reflected on the consolidated financial statements. On the balance sheet, non-controlling has been shown in the Equity Section, separated from the equity of Greengro Technologies, Inc. while on the income statement, the non-controlling shareholder allocation of net loss has been shown in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. Such estimates include management's assessments of the carrying value of certain assets, useful lives of assets, and related depreciation and amortization methods applied.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For the purpose of the statements of cash flows, all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents. The carrying value of these investments approximates fair value.

Accounts Receivable- Accounts receivable related to the products and services sold are recorded at the time revenue is recognized, and are presented on the balance sheet net of allowance for doubtful accounts. The ultimate collection of the receivable may not be known for several months after services have been provided and billed.

The Company has established an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors pertaining to the credit risk of specific customers, analyses of current and historical cash collections, and the aging of receivables. Delinquent accounts are written-off when the likelihood for collection is remote and/or when the Company believes collection efforts have been fully exhausted and the Company does not intend to devote any additional efforts in an attempt to collect the receivable. The Company adjusts their allowance for doubtful accounts balance on a quarterly basis.

Property Plant, & Equipment- Property, plant, and equipment are recorded at cost. Major renewals and improvements are capitalized, while maintenance and repairs are expensed when incurred. Expenditures for major additions and betterments are capitalized in amounts greater or equal to $500. Depreciation of equipment is computed by the straight-line method (after taking into account their respective estimated residual values) over the assets estimated useful life of three (3), five (5), or seven (7) years. Upon sale or retirement of equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is reflected in statements of operations.

Leasehold Improvements- Leasehold improvements are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. The Company records amortization using the straight-line method over the life of the lease, which is one year. Maintenance and repair costs are expensed as they are incurred while renewals and improvements which extend the useful life of an asset are capitalized. At the time of retirement or disposal of property and equipment, the cost and related accumulated amortization are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in the results of operations.

Income Taxes - The Company follows Section 740-10-30 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the fiscal year in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent management concludes it is more likely than not that the assets will not be realized. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company adopted section 740-10-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“Section 740-10-25”) with regards to uncertainty in income taxes. Section 740-10-25 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under Section 740-10-25, the Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent (50%) likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Section 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. The Company had no material adjustments to its assets and/or liabilities for unrecognized income tax benefits according to the provisions of Section 740-10-25.

Earnings (loss) Per Share - The Company computes basic and diluted earnings per share amounts pursuant to section 260-10-45 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders, by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period, excluding the effects of any potentially dilutive securities. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares of common stock during the period. The diluted weighted average number of common shares outstanding is the basic weighted number of shares adjusted as of the first day of the year for any potentially diluted debt or equity.

There are potentially 100,000,000 dilutive shares outstanding as of March 31, 2014 which relate to the 10,000,000 outstanding preferred shares that have 10 to 1 conversion rights.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The Company adopted the provisions of FASB ASC 820 (the “Fair Value Topic”) which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value under GAAP, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.

The Fair Value Topic defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. It requires that valuation techniques maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. It also establishes a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the valuation inputs into three broad levels.

The following fair value hierarchy is used to classify assets and liabilities based on the observable inputs and unobservable inputs used in order to value the assets and liabilities:

A) Market approach—Uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities. Prices may be indicated by pricing guides, sale transactions, market trades, or other sources;

B) Cost approach—Based on the amount that currently would be required to replace the service capacity of an asset (replacement cost); and

C) Income approach—Uses valuation techniques to convert future amounts to a single present amount based on current market expectations about the future amounts (includes present value techniques, and option-pricing models). Net present value is an income approach where a stream of expected cash flows is discounted at an appropriate market interest rate.

Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. An active market for an asset or liability is a market in which transactions for the asset or liability occur with significant frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Level 2: Observable inputs other than Level 1 inputs. Example of Level 2 inputs include quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities and quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs based on the Company's assessment of the assumptions that are market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The carrying amount of the Company's financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, prepaid expenses, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and deferred revenue approximate their fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. The Company's note payable approximate the fair value of such instruments based upon management's best estimate of interest rates that would be available to the Company for similar financial arrangements at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

Impairment of Intangible Assets- The Company follows paragraph 360-10-05-4 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for its long-lived assets. The Company's long-lived assets, such as intellectual property are required to be reviewed for impairment annually, or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable.

The Company assesses the recoverability of its long-lived assets by comparing the projected undiscounted net cash flows associated with the related long-lived asset or group of long-lived assets over their remaining estimated useful lives against their respective carrying amounts. Impairment, if any, is based on the excess of the carrying amount over the fair value of those assets. Fair value is generally determined using the asset's expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. If long-lived assets are determined to be recoverable, but the newly determined remaining estimated useful lives are shorter than originally estimated, the net book values of the long-lived assets are depreciated over the newly determined remaining estimated useful lives.

The Company determined that there were no impairments of long-lived assets as of March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

Commitments & Contingencies

The Company follows subtopic 450-20 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification to report accounting for contingencies. Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment can be reasonably estimated.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows paragraph 605-10-S99-1 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for revenue recognition. The Company will recognize revenue when it is realized or realizable and earned. The Company considers revenue realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) the product has been shipped or the services have been rendered to the customer, (iii) the sales price is fixed or determinable, and (iv) collectability is reasonably assured. In addition, the Company records allowances for accounts receivable that are estimated to not be collected.

Revenues from multi-month training contracts are recognized over the length of the contract term rather than when the contract begins. Because a significant amount of the Company's contract sales are greater than three months in length, the Company apportions that revenue over the duration of the contract term even though either the full amount or a significant portion is collected when the contract begins. The difference between the gross cash receipts collected and the recognized revenue from those sales during the respective reporting period will appear as deferred revenue.

Subsequent Events

The Company follows the guidance in Section 855-10-50 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for the disclosure of subsequent events. The Company will evaluate subsequent events through the date when the financial statements were issued.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Company management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE 3 – PATENTS & INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Investment in Vertical Hydrogardens Technology

During 2011, the Company acquired Vertical Hydrogarden patent pending technology for 21,000,000 shares of common stock valued at $766,500 and issuing a note payable of $100,000 to two individuals. The Company determined that the goodwill acquired, predominately patentable technology, had a fair value of $250,000. At December 31, 2012, the Company did an impairment analysis on the goodwill asset and found it to be impaired. The Company recorded a $250,000 impairment expense for the year ended December 31, 2012 which resulted in a zero (-$0-) goodwill balance.

Investment in Provisional-Patent-Pending Vaporizer Technology

On March 10, 2014, the Company entered into a purchase agreement whereby they will issue 1,500,000 shares of common stock for the purchase of a provisional-patent-pending technology for an efficient medical electronic vaporizer for Cannabidiol, cannabis and herbal medicine delivery system. The Company formed a wholly owned subsidiary, Greensticks, Inc., to serve as the distribution and development arm of this technology. As of March 31, 2014, the Company issued 750,000 shares with the remaining due in September of 2014. The Company did not record an intangible asset pertaining to this purchase agreement due to the uncertain likelihood of future benefits related to the provisional-patent-pending technology. Therefore, the consideration was recorded as additional paid in capital.

NOTE 4 – MATERIAL AGREEMENTS

Vertical Hydrogardens, Inc.

On March 1, 2013, the Company executed an equity purchase agreement with Vertical Hydrogardens, Inc., (“VH, Inc.”), a retail store located at 106 Sunrise Ave. Suite C2, Roseville, CA 95661, whereby the Company will issue 2,000,000 common shares in return for 33% equity interest in VH, Inc. The shares were valued at the closing price on the date of execution which was $0.08 per share. This resulted in an investment asset of $160,000 with the offsetting credit to stock subscription payable. At December 31, 2013, the Company revalued the asset based on 33% of the December 31, 2013 stockholders’ equity balance of VH, Inc. The equity balance of VH, Inc. at December 31, 2013 was negative, therefore the Company recorded an impairment loss of $160,000 which resulted in the investment asset being written down the zero (-$0-).

In March of 2014, the Company amended the equity purchase agreement dated March 1, 2013, which made it null and void. The new equity purchase agreement with VH, Inc. in March of 2014 states that the Company will purchase 100% equity in VH, Inc. for the issuance of 1,150,000 common shares. The Company also will issue a $150,000 convertible note payable to Don Smith, an owner of VH, Inc. at the time of the agreement. The convertible note will bear interest of 10% per annum, due in full in one year and convertible into shares of the Company at a fixed rate of $0.10 after the legal vesting period. The holder of the convertible note, Don Smith, made payments to vendors of VH, Inc. at the close of the agreement in March of 2014 of approximately $150,000 in order to clear all debts related to VH, Inc. inventory. Being the new equity purchase agreement executed in March of 2014 will make the previous acquisition agreement with VH, Inc. dated March 1, 2013 null and void, the Company has reversed the transaction as of December 31, 2013 regarding the stock payable of $160,000 and impairment loss of $160,000. (See the Subsequent Event Footnote for further description).

BP Gardens

On September 9, 2013, the Company formed a subsidiary corporation, BP Gardens, Inc., for the purpose of entering into a joint venture agreement. The Company entered into a joint venture partnership agreement with John’s Wholesale Nursery (“John”) to develop 4.5 acres of leased land in Buena Park, California. Pursuant to the joint venture agreement, the Company will be entitled to 51% of net revenues and equity. John will be entitled to the other 49% of net revenues and equity. The Company entered into a 20 year sublease agreement with John, whom is the lease holder, on September 1, 2013 at 7701 Knott Avenue in Buena Park, California. The sublease requires the Company to pay John $1,500 a month. The Company and John are in the process of clearing and developing the 4.5-acres of land for the purpose of installing innovative greenhouse technology. They plan to sell the vegetables grown in the commercial market.

BP Gardens 2, Inc.

On January 15, 2014, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with John Taylor (dba Lincoln Hills Organics) to construct six greenhouses on the 45,000 square foot property. The Company plans to grow lettuce, tomatoes, leafy greens, herbs and fish for the sale in commercial markets. Pursuant to the joint venture agreement, the Company entered into a five year sublease agreement with John Taylor whereby the Company will pay Mr. Taylor $100 a month. The revenues and costs of operations will be split 50/50.

Asset Purchase Agreement with Greenleaf Hydroponics

In March of 2014, the Company executed an asset purchase agreement with Greenleaf Hydroponics, a retail store located at 1839 W. Lincoln Ave, Anaheim CA 92801, whereby the Company will acquire the entire debt-free inventory supply of Greenleaf Hydroponics for approximately $37,570. In connection with the asset purchase agreement, the Company assumed Greenleaf Hydroponics lease of the 3,100 square foot commercial retail space. The lease will require monthly rent payments of $5,208 which includes CAM starting in April of 2014.

NOTE 5 –PROPERTY, PLANT, & EQUIPMENT

Property, plant, & equipment at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 consisted of the following:

	March 31, 2014	December 31, 2013
Equipment	$ 164,941	$ 39,796
Less: Accumulated Depreciation	(4,967)	(1,105)
Property, Plant, & Equipment, net	$ 159,974	$ 38,691

Through our 50% owned subsidiary BP Gardens 2, Inc. which we have a 50/50 joint venture agreement with, we have begun construction of the property to build state of the art greenhouses. NOTE 8 - NOTE RECEIVABLE

On March 20, 2014, the Company executed a convertible note receivable in the amount of $127,000 with Cannabis Ventures, Inc., (“CV”), a private Nevada corporation. The note bears interest of 3% per annum, has a maturity date of September 20, 2014 and may be converted at any time into common shares of CV, Inc. at a fixed conversion rate of $0.50 a share. As of the date of this filing, CV Inc.’s stock does not trade on a public market.

NOTE 9 - CONVERTIBLE NOTE PAYABLE

In connection with the acquisition of Vertical Hydrogardens patent pending technology the Company issued two $50,000 (total of $100,000) note payables which both accrue interest rate of 15% per annum. In March of 2013, the Company amended its note payable agreement with the two individuals to extend payment 12 months from the due date. Also included in the amendment was that all existing accrued interest was forgiven and no additional interest or penalty shall be accrued. In the three months ended March 31, 2013, the Company recorded $30,000 in forgiveness of debt relating to the outstanding accrued interest. On March 5, 2013, the two holders of the $50,000 note payables entered into an agreement with the Company to assign their notes to an unrelated third party at which time the notes would be amended to include a conversion option whereby the holder could convert the principle of the convertible note into common shares of the Company at a fixed rate of $0.01 per share.

In March of 2014, the convertible note holders converted the entire convertible note payable balance of $100,000 into 10,000,000 common shares of the Company.

The Company executed a second note payable in March of 2013 in the amount of $33,796 which accrues $1,000 of interest instantaneously upon execution, and is payable upon demand after June 30, 2013. In August of 2013, the note holder agreed to convert the entire principle of $33,796 and $1,000 of accrued interest into 2,000,000 common shares.

At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the Company had a convertible notes payable balance of $0 and $100,000.

NOTE 13 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events pursuant to the requirements of ASC Topic 855 and has determined that other than listed below, no material subsequent events exist.

1. From April 1, 2014 through the date of this filing May 21, 2014, the Company issued 4,000,000 common shares of which 2,500,000 shares were for $500,000 cash ($227,000 was received in the three months ended March 31, 2014 and recorded as stock subscription payable) and 1,500,000 shares were for services.
2. In April 1, 2014, the Company executed an acquisition agreement with Vertical Hydrogardens, Inc. ("VH, Inc."), a retail store located at 106 Sunrise Ave. Suite C2, Roseville, CA 95661, whereby the Company acquired 100% equity in VH, Inc. for the issuance of 1,150,000 common shares of the Company's stock. The Company also issued a $150,000 convertible note payable to Don Smith, an owner of VH, Inc. at the time of acquisition, with interest of 10% per annum, due in full in one year. Don Smith made payments to vendors of VH, Inc. of approximately $150,000 in order to clear all debt related to VH, Inc. inventory. The convertible note is convertible into shares of the Company at a fixed conversion rate of $0.10 after the legal vesting period. This acquisition agreement executed in March of 2014 will amend the previous acquisition agreement with VH, Inc. dated March 1, 2013 whereby the Company was to issue 2,000,000 common shares for 33% equity interest in VH, Inc. The March 1, 2013 acquisition agreement will be null in void at the completion of the March 2014 acquisition agreement. Moreover, the 2,000,000 common shares pursuant to the March 1, 2013 agreement were never issued and were recorded as Stock payable.
