The process is noninvasive and there is no direct contact between the equipment and the patient.

During the last quarter of the year ending December 31, 2013, the company began sales from its first model Kiosk format. It continued its wholesale sales opportunities and is investigating additional methods to expand its market.

In April of 2014, the company began several transition phases. The first of these was to transition from prior ownership controlling the corporation; the second was to transition to new management; and, the third was to change the focus of the business to beverages.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The statements presented were prepared by the company based on operations during the most recent quarter, i.e., that ending June 30, 2014, the year and prior period accounting records.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Principles of Consolidation

The financial statements are not consolidated.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand and cash in time deposits, certificates of deposit and all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less. The company maintains several accounts, the largest of which is with Wells Fargo.

Prepaid Expenses

None.

Investments in Marketable Securities

None

Deposits

Deposits are the balances outstanding that have not been redeemed as of the date of the Financial Statements.

Accounts Receivable/Other Receivable

Accounts Receivable represent amounts due to the company from sales or services rendered.

Notes Receivable

Notes Receivable are executed contractual obligations to pay the company reflecting amounts due for sales or services rendered to another by the company. As of June 30, 2014, there are no notes receivable.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to earnings as incurred; additions, renewals and betterments are capitalized. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts, and any gain or loss is included in operations.

Depreciation of property and equipment is provided using the MACRS method for substantially all assets with estimated lives of 5 years and, to the extent available, accelerated depreciation per Internal Revenue Code Sec. 179.

As of June 30, 2014, there is no property or equipment. All equipment in use is the property of officers and/or consultants to the company.

Inventory

Inventory consists of items for sale through wholesale or retail distribution means.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") 104.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for its stock-based compensation in accordance with SFAS No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment, an Amendment of FASB Statement no. 123." The Company recognizes in the statement of operations the grant-date fair value of stock options and other equity-based compensation issued to employees and non-employees.

During the period from April 1 to June 30, 2014, no shares were issued by the company. Management expects to issue shares to consultants in the future to obtain services while preserving cash.

Income Taxes

The Company utilizes the SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in the future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each period and based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

At this point in time, it is difficult to ascertain the company's tax position due to the lack of income tax documents. Transcripts for prior years' returns have been ordered from the Internal Revenue Service in order that the company may become fully compliant. It is probable that the company may need to restate financial information based upon information received from the Internal Revenue Service, filing of returns for prior periods and/or changes in accounting, including but not limited to characterization of deferred losses.

Basic and Diluted Earnings per Share

Earnings per share are calculated in accordance with the SFAS No. 128 ("SFAS No. 128"), "Earnings per Share." Net earnings per share for all periods presented have been restated to reflect the adoption of SFAS No. 128. Basic earnings per share is based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is based on the assumption that all dilutive convertible shares and stock options were converted or exercised. There are neither convertible shares, options, or warrants that need to be factored into the calculation. There are no options or warrants. Dilution is computed by applying the treasury stock method. Under this method, options and warrants are assumed to be exercised at the beginning of the period (or at the time of issuance, if later), and as if funds obtained thereby were used to purchase common stock at the average market price during the period. At this time there are no stock options or warrants granted or outstanding.

Note 5 – Notes Payable

There is one note payable as of June 30, 2014. The holder is a non-related party. The note itself is a demand note, callable at any time. During the year, there were no principal payments made. Interest has been accrued for the year.

Note 6 – Loans To/From Officers & Loan

Loans are stated at par and are presented in aggregate. Such sum represents the loan of funds and/or withdrawal of funds by officers and is not considered revenue to the company, nor income to individual officers.

The “Loan” account represents amounts extended on credit by suppliers for the implementation of point of sales locations in the SouthWest. The roll-out of Kiosk point of sales locations was began during the third quarter and continued into the fourth quarter.
