On March 14, 2011, the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of State of Nevada changing the name of the Company to "Bold Energy, Inc."

On November 12, 2012, the Company, then under the name Bold Energy, Inc., entered into a Share Exchange Agreement (with Anio Limited ("Anio Ltd."), a limited liability company established under the laws of the United Kingdom, which conducts its primary line of business under the name Lot78, Inc., the shareholders of Anio Ltd., and the controlling stockholders of the Company. On February 17, 2016 Barton Hollow, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, and stockholder of the Issuer, filed an Application for Appointment of Custodian pursuant to Section 78.347 of the Act in the District Court for Clark County, Nevada. Barton Hollow was subsequently appointed custodian of the Issuer by Order of the Court on April 4, 2016 (the "Order"). In accordance with the provisions of the Order, Barton Hollow thereafter moved to: (a) reinstate the Issuer with the State of Nevada; (b) provide for the election of interim officers and directors; and (c) call and hold a stockholder meeting.

On July 15, 2016, Barton Hollow, together with the newly-elected director of the Issuer, caused the Issuer to enter into a Letter of Intent to merge with Compound Holdings, LLC, a Connecticut limited liability company. Pursuant to the Letter of Intent, the parties thereto would endeavor to arrive at, and enter into, a definitive merger agreement providing for the Merger. As an inducement to the members of Compound Holdings LLC to enter into the Letter of Intent and thereafter transact, the Issuer caused to be issued to the members 500,000,000 shares of its common stock.

Subsequently, on July 18, 2016, the Issuer and Compound Holdings LLC entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"). Concomitant therewith, the stockholders of the Issuer elected David Schmid, the President of Compound Holdings LLC, Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer, who, along with Barton Hollow, ratified and approved the Merger Agreement and Merger.

The Issuer anticipates the Merger will close in the 3rd quarter of 2016. The Merger is designed as a reverse subsidiary merger pursuant to Section 368(a)(2)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code. That is, upon closing, Compound Holdings LLC will merge into a newly-created subsidiary of the Issuer with the members of Compound Holdings LLC receiving shares of the common stock of the Issuer as consideration therefor. Upon closing of the Merger, Compound Holdings LLC will be the surviving corporation in its merger with the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Issuer, therefore has become the wholly-owned operating subsidiary of the Issuer.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. PLACE AND TIME OF MEETINGS. An annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held each year for the purpose of electing Directors and conducting such other proper business as may come before the meeting. The date, time and place of the annual meeting may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors or as set by the President (as defined below) of the Corporation. If the election of Directors is not held on the date fixed as provided herein and by a resolution for any annual meeting of the stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the stockholders as soon thereafter as may conveniently be held.

Section 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of stockholders may be called for any purpose (including, without limitation, the filling of Board vacancies and newly created directorships), and may be held at such time and place, within or without the State of Nevada, as shall be stated in a notice of meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof. Section 4. NOTICE. Whenever stockholders are required or permitted to take action at a meeting, written or printed notice stating the place, date, time, and, in the case of special meetings, the purpose or purposes, of such meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting. All such notices shall be delivered, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, the President or the Secretary (as defined below), and if mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the stockholder at his, her or its address as the same appears on the records of the Corporation. The officer having charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall make, at least 10 days before every meeting of the stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting arranged in alphabetical order, showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

Section 7. ADJOURNED MEETINGS. When a meeting is adjourned to another time and place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting the Corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 8. VOTE REQUIRED. When a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the stockholders, unless the question is one upon which by express provision of an applicable law or of the Articles of Incorporation a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question. If applicable, where a separate vote by class is required, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares of such class present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall be the act of such class.

Section 9. VOTING RIGHTS. Except as otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law of the State of Nevada or by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation or any amendments thereto and subject to Section 3 of Article VI hereof, every stockholder shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of common stock held by such stockholder.

Section 10. PROXIES. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him, her or it by proxy. Every proxy must be signed by the stockholder granting the proxy or by his, her or its attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A proxy may be made irrevocable regardless of whether the interest with which it is coupled is an interest in the stock itself or an interest in the Corporation generally.

Section 11. ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken and bearing the dates of signature of the stockholders who signed the consent or consents, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the state of Nevada, or the Corporation's principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book or books in which proceedings of meetings of the stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the Corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested provided, however, that no consent or consents delivered by certified or registered mail shall be deemed delivered until such consent or consents are actually received at the registered office. All consents properly delivered in accordance with this section shall be deemed to be recorded when so delivered. No written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the earliest dated consent delivered to the Corporation as required by this section, written consents signed by the holders of a sufficient number of shares to take such corporate action are so recorded. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing. Any action taken pursuant to such written consent or consents of the stockholders shall have the same force and effect as if taken by the stockholders at a meeting thereof.

Each Director elected shall hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION. Any Director may resign at any time upon written notice to the Corporation.

Section 4. VACANCIES. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Nevada, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 3. NONEXCLUSIVITY OF ARTICLE V. The rights to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article V shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested Directors or otherwise.

Section 5. EXPENSES. Expenses incurred by any person described in Section 1 of this Article V in defending a proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of such proceeding's final disposition unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

Section 6. EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. Persons who are not covered by the foregoing provisions of this Article V and who are or were employees or agents of the Corporation, or who are or were serving at the request of the Corporation as employees or agents of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, may be indemnified to the extent authorized at any time or from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. CONTRACT RIGHTS. The provisions of this Article V shall be deemed to be a contract right between the Corporation and each Director or officer who serves in any such capacity at any time while this Article V and the relevant provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Nevada or other applicable law are in effect, and any repeal or modification of this Article V or any such law shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts or proceeding then existing.

Section 8. MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION. For purposes of this Article V, references to "the Corporation" shall include, in addition to the resulting Corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its Directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this Article V with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he or she would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

In case any officer or officers who have signed, or whose facsimile signature or signatures have been used on, any such certificate or certificates shall cease to be such officer or officers of the Corporation whether because of death, resignation or otherwise before such certificate or certificates have been delivered by the Corporation, such certificate or certificates may nevertheless be issued and delivered as though the person or persons who signed such certificate or certificates or whose facsimile signature or signatures have been used thereon had not ceased to be such officer or officers of the Corporation. All certificates for shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified. The name of the person to whom the shares represented thereby are issued, with the number of shares and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the Corporation. In that event, it shall be the duty of the Corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate or certificates, and record the transaction on its books. The Board of Directors may appoint a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States or any state thereof to act as its transfer agent or registrar, or both in connection with the transfer of any class or series of securities of the Corporation.

Section 2. LOST CERTIFICATES. The Board of Directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates previously issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his or her legal representative, to give the Corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify the Corporation against any claim that may be made against the Corporation on account of the loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 3. FIXING A RECORD DATE FOR STOCKHOLDER MEETINGS. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date shall not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting. If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be the close of business on the next day preceding the day on which notice is given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. Section 4. FIXING A RECORD DATE FOR ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which date shall not be more than 10 days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by statute, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Nevada, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the Corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt

If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors and prior action by the Board of Directors is required by statute, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

Section 6. SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR STOCK. Unless otherwise provided for in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. The Corporation may lend money to, or guarantee any obligation of, or otherwise assist any officer or other employee of the Corporation or of its subsidiary, including any officer or employee who is a Director of the Corporation or its subsidiary, whenever, in the judgment of the Directors, such loan, guaranty or assistance may reasonably be expected to benefit the Corporation. The loan, guaranty or other assistance may be with or without interest, and may be unsecured, or secured in such manner as the Board of Directors shall approve, including, without limitation, a pledge of shares of stock of the Corporation. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to deny, limit or restrict the powers of guaranty or warranty of the Corporation at common law or under any statute.

Section 5. FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on December 31 of each year, unless otherwise fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. CORPORATE SEAL. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 7. VOTING SECURITIES OWNED BY CORPORATION. Voting securities in any other Corporation held by the Corporation shall be voted by the President, unless the Board of Directors specifically confers authority to vote with respect thereto, which authority may be general or confined to specific instances, upon some other person or officer. Any person authorized to vote securities shall have the power to appoint proxies, with general power of substitution.

Section 8. INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS. A proper purpose shall mean any purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder. In every instance where an attorney or other agent shall be the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the stockholder. The demand under oath shall be directed to the Corporation at its registered office in the State of Nevada or at its principal place of business.

If such Indemnifying Party does not timely so respond, it will be deemed to have accepted the Indemnified Party's indemnification claim as specified in the notice given by the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party gives a timely objection notice, then the parties will negotiate in good faith to attempt to resolve the dispute, and upon the expiration of an additional thirty (30) day period from the date of the objection notice or such longer period as to which the Indemnified and Indemnifying Parties may agree, any such dispute shall be submitted to arbitration in Reno, Nevada, to a member of the American Arbitration Association mutually appointed by the Indemnified Party and Indemnifying Party (or, in the event the Indemnified Party and Indemnifying Party cannot agree on a single such member, to a panel of three members of such Association selected in accordance with the rules of such Association), who shall promptly arbitrate such dispute in accordance with the rules of such Association and report to the parties upon such disputed items, and such report shall be final, binding and conclusive on the parties. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right, at its election, to take over the defense or settlement of such claim by giving prompt notice to the Indemnified Party that it will do so, such election to be made and notice given in any event at least five (5) days prior to the time at which an answer or other responsive pleading or notice with respect thereto is required. If the Indemnifying Party makes such election, the Indemnifying Party may conduct the defense of such claim through counsel of its choosing (subject to the Indemnified Party's approval, not to be unreasonably withheld), will be responsible for the expenses of such defense, and shall be bound by the results of its defense or settlement of the claim to the extent it produces damage or loss to the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall not settle such claims without prior notice to and consultation with the Indemnified Party and no such settlement involving any injunction or material and adverse effect on the Indemnified Party may be agreed to without its consent. As long as the Indemnifying Party is diligently contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnified Party shall not pay or settle any such claim. If the Indemnifying Party does not make such election, or having made such election does not proceed diligently to defend such claim prior to the time at which an answer or other responsive pleading or notice with respect thereto is required, or does not continue diligently to contest such claim, then the Indemnified Party may take over defense and proceed to handle such claim in its exclusive discretion, and the Indemnifying Party shall be bound by any defense or settlement that the Indemnified Party may make in good faith with respect to such claim. The parties agree to cooperate in defending such third party claims, and the defending party shall have access to records, information and personnel in control of the other part which are pertinent to the defense thereof.

6.6 Limitation of Remedies. No party to this Agreement shall be liable to any other party or parties or have any remedies against any other party or parties under this Agreement other than as provided in this Article 6. The parties understand that this Agreement requires that all disputed claims shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with Section 6.3, "Arbitration."

6.7 Definition of Prevailing. Notwithstanding any of the other provisions hereof, in the event of arbitration and/or litigation with respect to the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement or any provisions hereof, the prevailing party in any such matter shall be entitled to recover from the other party their or its reasonable costs and expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in such arbitration and/or litigation. For purposes of this Agreement, a party shall be deemed to be the prevailing party only if such party (A)(i) receives an award or judgment in such arbitration and/or litigation for more than 50% of the disputed amount involved in such matter, or (ii) is ordered to pay the other party less than 50% of the disputed amount involved in such matter or (B)(i) succeeds in having imposed a material equitable remedy on the other party (such as an injunction or order compelling specific performance), or (ii) succeeds in defeating the other party's request for such an equitable remedy.

ARTICLE 7

RISK OF LOSS

The risk of loss or destruction of all or any part of the Company's properties or assets prior to the Closing Date from any cause (including, without limitation, fire, theft, acts of God or public enemy) shall be upon the Company and the Company Stockholders. Such risk shall be upon LOTE Subsidiary if such loss occurs after the Closing Date.

CERTAIN COVENANTS OF THE PARTIES

8.1 Expenses and Fees. Each party shall be solely responsible for its own costs and expenses (including legal expenses, accounting expenses and brokers or finders fees and expenses), and the costs and expenses of its affiliates, in connection with the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. No party shall have any obligation for paying such expenses or costs of any other party.

8.2 Public Announcements. The parties agree that no public release, announcement or any other disclosure concerning any of the transactions contemplated hereby shall be made or issued by any party without the prior written consent of LOTE and the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except to the extent such release, announcement or disclosure may be required by applicable laws, in which case the person required to make the release, announcement or disclosure shall allow LOTE or the Company, as applicable, reasonable time to comment on such release, announcement or disclosure in advance of such issuance or disclosure; provided, however, that no notice is required if the disclosure is determined by the LOTE's legal counsel to be required under federal or state securities laws or exchange regulation applicable to LOTE.

8.3 Operations Pending Closing. Each of the Company, on one hand, and LOTE and the LOTE Subsidiary, on the other hand, covenants that from the date hereof through the Closing Date, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement; or with the prior written consent of the other parties, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, shall:

8.3.1 not undertake any transactions or enter into any contracts, commitments or arrangements other than in the ordinary course of business, use its good faith efforts to preserve the present Business and organization of such party, and to preserve the goodwill of others having business relationships with such party;

8.3.2 not enter into, renew, extend, modify, terminate, waive or diminish any right under any material lease, contract or other instrument, except in the ordinary course of business;

8.3.3 not allow any of such parties' assets or properties to become subject to any Encumbrance that does not exist as of the date of this Agreement, except in the ordinary course of business;

8.3.4 maintain such party's existing insurance coverages, subject to variations in amounts in the ordinary course of business;

8.3.5 not declare or make any dividends or distributions; and

8.3.6 not amend the organizational documents of such party.

8.4 Due Diligence Investigation. Each party shall afford to the officers, employees and authorized representatives of the other (including independent public accountants and attorneys) complete access to the offices, properties, books, records, tax returns, financial records (including computer files, retrieval programs and similar documentation), employees and business of such party subject to reasonable prior notice and shall furnish to such party and its authorized representatives such additional information concerning the assets, properties and operations as shall be reasonably requested, including all such information as shall be necessary or appropriate to enable such party or its representatives to verify the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, to verify that the covenants contained in this Agreement have been complied with, and to determine whether the conditions set forth in Article 4 or 5 have been satisfied. Each party shall ensure that all third-party representatives of each, including without limitation accountants and attorneys, fully cooperate and are available to the other party in connection with such investigation, and each party shall bear its own costs and expenses in connection with the same. Any such investigation shall be conducted in a manner that would not interfere unreasonably with the operations of the other party.

8.5 Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto shall, at any time, and from time to time, either before or after the Closing Date, upon the request of the appropriate party, do, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered, all such further acts, assignments, transfers, conveyances and assurances as may be reasonably required to complete the transactions contemplated in this Agreement. After the Closing Date, each party shall use its good faith efforts to assure that any necessary third party shall execute such documents and do such acts and things as the other party may reasonably require for the purpose of giving each party the full benefit of all the provisions of this Agreement and as may be reasonably required to complete the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

8.6 Actions of the Parties.

8.6.1 No Actions Constituting a Breach. From the date hereof through the Closing Date, neither the Company will take or knowingly permit to be done any action in the conduct of the business of the Company, nor will LOTE or the LOTE Subsidiary take any action, which would be in breach of its obligations herein, and each of the parties hereto shall cause the deliveries for which such party is responsible at the Closing to be duly and timely made.

8.6.2 Notification of Breaches. From the date hereof through the Closing Date, each party will promptly notify the other parties in writing if any such Party becomes aware of any fact or condition that causes or constitutes a breach of any of its representations and warranties as of the date of this Agreement. During the same period, each party will promptly notify the other parties of the occurrence of any breach of any covenant of such party in this Article VIII.

8.7 Compliance With Conditions. Each party hereto agrees to cooperate fully with each other party and shall use its good faith efforts to cause the conditions precedent for which such Party is responsible to be fulfilled. Each party hereto further agrees to use its good faith efforts to consummate this Agreement and the transactions contemplated in this Agreement as promptly as possible.

ARTICLE 9
MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Termination.

9.1.1 General. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby may be terminated prior to the Closing: (i) by the mutual written consent of the parties; (ii) by written notice from either party in the event of a material breach of this Agreement by the other party; provided that the party wishing to terminate this Agreement has notified the other parties in writing of such breach and such breach has continued without cure for a period of thirty (30) calendar days after the notice of breach; or (iii) by written notice from LOTE if the Closing has not occurred by March 30, 2014, subject to the provisions of Section 1.3, "Closing," of this Agreement.

9.1.2 Effect of Termination. If any party terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Article 9, all rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall terminate without any liability of any party to the others except for such damages arising out of, related to, or in connection with, breaches of representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements which shall have occurred prior to such termination. Except, as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, this Section shall not be deemed to release any party from any liability for any breach by such party of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements which shall have occurred prior to such termination. However, LOTE shall be entitled to all standstill deposits if the Closing has not occurred as provided in this Agreement.

9.2 Binding Agreement. The parties covenant and agree that this Agreement, when executed and delivered by the parties, will constitute a legal, valid and binding agreement between the parties and will be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

9.3 Assignment. This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their legal representatives, successors. This Agreement cannot be assigned without the consent of the Company.

9.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and its exhibits and schedules constitute the entire contract among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter thereof, superseding all prior communications and discussions and no party hereto shall be bound by any communication on the subject matter hereof unless such is in writing signed by any necessary party thereto and bears a date subsequent to the date hereof. The exhibits and schedules shall be construed with and deemed as an integral part of this Agreement to the same extent as if the same had been set forth verbatim herein. Information set forth in any exhibit, schedule or provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to be set forth in every other exhibit, schedule or provision of this Agreement and therefore shall be deemed to be disclosed for all purposes of this Agreement.

9.5 Modification. This Agreement may be waived, changed, amended, discharged or terminated only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, amendment, discharge or termination is sought.

9.6 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications shall be deemed to have been duly given three (3) days after postmark of deposit in the United States mail, if mailed, certified or registered mail, postage prepaid:

9.7 Choice of Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed, interpreted and enforced according to the laws of the State of Nevada. Each party to this Agreement hereby irrevocably agrees that any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any agreements or transactions contemplated hereby may be brought in the courts of the State of Nevada or of the United States of America for the District of Nevada and hereby expressly submits to the personal jurisdiction and venue of such courts for the purposes thereof and expressly waives any claim of improper venue and any claim that such courts are an inconvenient forum. Each party hereby irrevocably consents to the service of process of any of the aforementioned courts in any such suit, action or proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the address set forth in Paragraph 11.5, "Notices," such service to become effective ten (10) days after such mailing.

9.8 Severability. If any portion of this Agreement shall be finally determined by any court or governmental agency of competent jurisdiction to violate applicable law or otherwise not to conform to requirements of law and, therefore, to be invalid, the parties will cooperate to remedy or avoid the invalidity, but, in any event, will not upset the general balance of relationships created or intended to be created between them as manifested by this Agreement and the instruments referred to herein. Except insofar as it would be an abuse of the foregoing principle, the remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect.

9.9 Other Documents. The parties shall upon reasonable request of the other, execute such documents as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

9.10 Headings and the Use of Pronouns. The section headings hereof are intended solely for convenience of reference and shall not be construed to explain any of the provisions of this Agreement. All pronouns and any variations thereof and other words, as applicable, shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine, neuter, singular or plural as the identity of the person or matter may require.

9.11 Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

9.12 No Waiver and Remedies. No failure or delay on a party's part to exercise any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by a party of a right or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise. No remedy or election hereunder shall be deemed exclusive but it shall, wherever possible, be cumulative with all other remedies in law or equity.

9.13 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto on separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

9.14 Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto shall use commercially practicable efforts to fulfill all of the conditions set forth in this Agreement over which it has control or influence (including obtaining any consents necessary for the performance of such party's obligations hereunder) and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and shall execute and deliver such further instruments and provide such documents as are necessary to effect this Agreement.

9.15 Rules of Construction. The normal rules of construction which require the terms of an agreement to be construed most strictly against the drafter of such agreement are hereby waived since each party have been represented by counsel in the drafting and negotiation of this Agreement.

9.16 Third Party Beneficiaries. Each party hereto intends this Agreement shall not benefit or create any right or cause of action in or on behalf of any person other than the parties hereto.
