Re: Central Wireless, Inc.; Attorney Letter with Respect to Adequate Current Information; Annual Disclosure Statement for the annual Period Ended December 31, 2016 and the subsequent quarterly periods that ended March 31, 2017, June 30, 2017 and Sept 30, 2017.

Dear Sirs:

This letter is written on behalf of Central Wireless, Inc., a Colorado corporation, formerly National Corporate Systems, Inc. (US.CWIR.PK) (the "Issuer"). OTC Markets Group, Inc. ("OTC Markets") is entitled to rely on such letter in determining whether the Issuer has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933 with regard to Issuer's common stock (the "Securities"). This law firm (hereafter "Firm") is a professional corporation, incorporated in the state of Illinois and the undersigned counsel (hereafter "Counsel") is a U.S. resident and have been retained by the Issuer for the purpose of rendering this letter and related matters. We serve as corporate and securities counsel to the Issuer. This Firm has no relationship with the Issuer other than as attorney-client and, other than its members, has no existing or prior relationship with any prior counsel of Issuer. This Firm is not currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violation of federal or state securities laws. However, since 2009, the undersigned, Randall Goulding has been in civil litigation with the SEC for Investment Advisers Act matters, principally books and records alleged violations, none of which were intentional or material, and all of which were immediately corrected following the routine on-site examination of The Nutmeg Group, LLC, a Registered Investment Adviser, and prior to the litigation. In the history of Nutmeg, there was never an investor complaint. Within the context of the litigation, all other allegations (non-books and records) have been shown to be false.

On or about November 7, 2017, OTCMarkets placed a "Skull and Cross Bones" designation on the stock, apparently due to some perceived stock promotion. The principals and the insiders have confirmed that they did not participate in any such promotion and that they are in compliance with all applicable rules and regulations and that if there was any kind of promotion it occurred through no fault of their own.

Without relying on the work of other counsel, we have examined such corporate records and other documents and such questions of law as considered necessary or appropriate for purposes of rendering the letter and have relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Issuer and other sources believed to be reliable. In connection with rendering this opinion, we have investigated such matters and examined such documents as deemed necessary. In examining the documents, we have assumed the genuineness of signatures (both manual and conformed), the authenticity of documents submitted as originals, the conformity with originals of all documents furnished as copies and the correctness of facts set forth in such documents.

Counsel is authorized to practice law in the state of Illinois and is permitted to practice before the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and has not been prohibited from practice before such agency. In connection with the preparation of this letter, we have reviewed the following documents in connection with the preparation of the letter (the "Information"), the dates that such documents were posted on OTC Disclosure and News Service ("OTC News Service" and formerly "Pink Sheets News Service") reflected therein:

~ Issuer on July 16, 2014 entered into a non-bankruptcy triangular reorganization and contemporaneous share exchange pursuant to the applicable provisions enumerated in Section 368, et seq. of the Internal Revenue Service Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Central Utah, which was converted and domiciled to a Colorado corporation on April 4, 2014. Issuer, Central Wireless, Inc. was incorporated in the State of Utah on March 6, 1987 ("Central Utah"). Central was initially incorporated under the name "Wonder Capital, Inc.", which it continued to use until February 1995. Then, Central Utah changed its name to "Dry Dairy International, Inc.", which name it continued to use until September 1999. Thereafter, Central Utah changed its name to "Dryden Industries, Inc.", which it continued to use until April 2000. Lastly, Central Utah then changed its name to "e resources inc." which it used until August 16, 2002, when it changed its name to "Central Wireless, Inc." Issuer has undertaken to provide the most up-to-date information and has submitted the following documents to enable placement on OTC News Service (formerly Pink Sheets News Service) as current information through full corporate public disclosure, including its most recent Annual and Quarterly Reports. This Information includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the Issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c2-11 and complies as to form with the OTC Markets Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information. This Information has been made available and verified by the appropriate officers and has been made available through the OTC Markets disclosure platform and includes not less than the following information and documents which were reviewed in relation to the Issuer:
