RAMOIL MANAGEMENT, LTD., (RAMO) has a total of 7 Employees/Independent Contractors.

For issuers engaged in mining, oil and gas production and real estate activities, substantial additional disclosure of the issuer's business is required. Contact Pink Sheets for more information.

Item VI The nature of products or services offered.

In responding to this item, please describe the following so that a potential investor can clearly understand the products and services of the issuer:

A. principal products or services, and their markets;

The Principal product is GREEN RENEWABLE ENERGY, related Technology and the operation of Waste-to Energy Plants in multiple locations and countries, world-wide..

B. distribution methods of the products or services;

Our patented and licensed Waste-to-Energy Technologies will be utilized commercially in plants across Europe, North America and the Caribbean Basin. The "Output Electricity" produced by the plants we will operate will be sold directly to the local Governments and/or Power Companies feeding straight into the local electrical grids.

C. status of any publicly announced new product or service;

Since the company has just entered into negotiations with a potential group to buy their business plan and opportunities, there has not been any public announcement on its activity as a Waste-to-Energy Plant Operations and Technology Company.

D. competitive business conditions, the issuer's competitive position in the industry, and methods of competition;

GREEN/RENEWABLE ENERGY has extensive competition at the Technology development level. Therefore we have positioned ourselves between the Technology Developer and the Energy Consumer finding and developing commercially viable plants and plant locations utilizing a host or entire menu of technologies available to us to achieve our plant output goals.

E. sources and availability of raw materials and the names of principal suppliers;

The source and availability of raw materials is extensive. Since we turn Municipal Waste into useable Electricity/Energy we are actually paid for accepting the waste material.

Some of our typical suppliers are Medical Waste, Industrial Waste and Municipal Waste collectors along with Governments at Municipal, Regional and National levels.

F. dependence on one or a few major customers;

Yes, we are dependent on the local power company or government power company to buy our electricity. Fortunately, we are in such a welcomed "Niche Market" that we negotiate our long term "Power Purchase Agreements" well in advance of ever breaking ground on a potential plant site. This assures us that once development and construction of any plant completed, 100% of our production capacity is already pre-sold.

G. patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts, including their duration; and

The company currently has no trademark, patent nor licenses and other agreements that it has signed but will pursue such agreements in the future as the necessity arises.

H. the need for any government approval of principal products or services and the status of any requested government approvals.

The company has secured most all of the government requirements regarding its position as GREEN/RENEWABLE ENERGY Supplier or Company. In most cases the local, regional or federal governments are partnered up with us in the development of each plant site.

Item VII The nature and extent of the issuer's facilities.

The goal of this section is to provide a potential investor with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer. In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer, give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership. If the issuer leases any assets, properties or facilities, clearly describe them as above and the terms of their leases.

RAMOIL MANAGEMENT, LTD. uses the offices of its CEO at no cost. We are presently looking for office space in Miami, Florida for our International Headquarters (HQ) and Dublin, Ireland for our European HQ.

Item XVII Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Instructions to Item XVII

Issuers that have not had revenues from operations in each of the last two fiscal years, or the last fiscal year and any interim period in the current fiscal year for which financial statements are furnished in the disclosure statement, shall provide the information in paragraphs A and C of this item. All other issuers shall provide the information in paragraphs B and C of this item. The discussion and analysis shall focus specifically on material events and uncertainties known to management that would cause reported financial information not to be necessarily indicative of future operating results or of future financial condition. Issuers are not required to supply forward-looking information. This is distinguished from presently known data that will impact upon future operating results, such as known future increases in costs of labor or materials. This latter data may be required to be disclosed.

A. Plan of Operation.

1. Describe the issuer's plan of operation for the next twelve months. This description should include such matters as: i. a discussion of how long the issuer can satisfy its cash requirements and whether it will have to raise additional funds in the next twelve months;

Over the coming 12 months the issuer will be finalizing negotiations for a business plan take-over and commencing the execution of the Waste-to Energy opportunities. Presently there is 1st plant is scheduled to break ground in 2010 in Europe which will greatly and positively impact the cash flow and asset position of the issuer.

The Issuer will need to raise cash for Worldwide Operations as well financially support the expansion of the existing and planned future plants. However, presently we have identified a strong potential financing source for our first plant scheduled to be built in Spain.

ii. a summary of any product research and development that the issuer will perform for the term of the plan;

The Issuer is currently conducting research and development of new technologies as well as locating possible future plant locations

iii. any expected purchase or sale of plant and significant equipment; and

We have identified a strong financing partner interested in financing the development of our Waste-to-Energy plants. Presently we are in the final stages of developing all engineering plans, contracts and designs for our 1st plant in Spain to be gin construction in 2010. Possible financial support for some soft costs might be required.

iv. any expected significant changes in the number of employees.

Once financing is completed and the plants built, we expect to need to hire close to 30 new employees to staff offices in Miami, Florida, Dublin, Ireland and the plant in Spain.

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

11. Full fiscal years. Discuss the issuer's financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations for each of the last two fiscal years. This discussion should address the past and future financial condition and results of operation of the issuer, with particular emphasis on the prospects for the future. The discussion should also address those key variable and other qualitative and quantitative factors that are necessary to an understanding and evaluation of the issuer. If material, the issuer should disclose the following:

i. Any known trends, events or uncertainties that have or are reasonably likely to have a material impact on the issuer's short-term or long-term liquidity;

Green Energy seems to be the strongest sector and this increasing awareness

ii. Internal and external sources of liquidity;

Funded by majority shareholders and have identified a willing large project finance group for plant development.

iii. Any material commitments for capital expenditures and the expected sources of funds for such expenditures;

We have no final funding commitments as of yet. However, we are well into negotiations with a large project finance group.

iv. Any known trends, events or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected to have a material impact on the net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations;

Green Energy seems to be the strongest sector and this increasing awareness should positively impact our revenues.

v. Any significant elements of income or loss that do not arise from the issuer's continuing operations;

No significant elements known.

vi. The causes for any material changes from period to period in one or more line items of the issuer's financial statements; and

From zero activity to commercial activity as a result of the acquisition of the appropriate business plan/opportunity which has been identified..

vii. Any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operation.

None.

2. Interim Periods. Provide a comparable discussion that will enable the reader to assess material changes in financial condition and results of operations since the end of the last fiscal year and for the comparable interim period in the preceding year.

There were no changes as there was no activity in the past two years ending, except the anticipated acquisition of the GREEN/RENEWABLE ENERGY business plan and the plant opportunities it holds.

C. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements.

1. In a separately-captioned section, discuss the issuer's off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on the issuer's financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors. The disclosure shall include the items specified in paragraphs

N/A.

2. C(1)(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Item XVII to the extent necessary to an understanding of such arrangements and effect and shall also include such other information that the issuer believes is necessary for such an understanding.

i. The nature and business purpose to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements;

No existing off-balance sheet arrangements.

ii. The importance to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements in respect of its liquidity, capital resources, market risk support, credit risk support or other benefits;

N/A.

iii. The amounts of revenues, expenses and cash flows of the issuer arising from such arrangements; the nature and amounts of any interests retained securities arrangements; and the nature and amounts of any other obligations or liabilities (including contingent obligations or liabilities) of the issuer arising from such arrangements that are or are reasonably likely to become material and the triggering events or circumstances that could cause them to arise; and

N/A.

iv. Any known event, demand, commitment, trend or uncertainty that will result in or is reasonably likely to result in the termination, or material reduction in availability to the issuer, of its off-balance sheet arrangements that provide material benefits to it, and the course of action that the issuer has taken or proposes to take in response to any such circumstances.

No known event.

2. As used in paragraph C of this Item XVII, the term off-balance sheet arrangement means any transaction, agreement or other contractual arrangement to which an entity unconsolidated with the issuer is a party, under which the issuer has:

i. Any obligation under a guarantee contract that has any of the characteristics identified in paragraph 3 of FASB Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others (November 2002) ("FIN 45"), as may be modified or supplemented, and that is not excluded from the initial recognition and measurement provisions of FIN 45 pursuant to paragraphs 6 or 7 of that Interpretation;

N/A.

ii. A retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support to such entity for such assets;

N/A.

iii. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, under a contract that would be accounted for as a derivative instrument, except that it is both indexed to the issuer's own stock and classified in stockholders' equity in the issuer's statement of financial position, and therefore excluded from the scope of FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (June 1998), pursuant to paragraph 11(a) of that Statement, as may be modified or supplemented; or

N/A.

iv. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, arising out of a variable interest (as referenced in FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (January 2003), as may be modified or supplemented) in an unconsolidated entity that is held by, and material to, the issuer, where such entity provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit risk support to, or engages in leasing, hedging or research and development services with, the issuer.

N/A.

Instructions to paragraph C of Item XVII

i. No obligation to make disclosure under paragraph C of this Item XVII shall arise in respect of an off-balance sheet arrangement until a definitive agreement that is unconditionally binding or subject only to customary closing conditions exists or, if there is no such agreement, when settlement of the transaction occurs.

ii. Issuers should aggregate off-balance sheet arrangements in groups or categories that provide material information in an efficient and understandable manner and should avoid repetition and disclosure of immaterial information. Effects that are common or similar with respect to a number of off-balance sheet arrangements must be analyzed in the aggregate to the extent the aggregation increases understanding. Distinctions in arrangements and their effects must be discussed to the extent the information is material, but the discussion should avoid repetition and disclosure of immaterial information.

iii. For purposes of paragraph C of this Item XVII only, contingent liabilities arising out of litigation, arbitration or regulatory actions are not considered to be off-balance sheet arrangements.

iv. Generally, the disclosure required by paragraph C of this Item XVII shall cover the most recent fiscal year. However, the discussion should address changes from the previous year where such discussion is necessary to an understanding of the disclosure.

In satisfying the requirements of paragraph C of this Item XVII, the discussion of off-balance sheet arrangements need not repeat information provided in the footnotes to the financial statements, provided that such discussion clearly crossreferences to specific information in the relevant footnotes and integrates the substance of the footnotes into such discussion in a manner designed to inform readers of the significance of the information that is not included within the body of such discussion.

Part E Exhibits
