Item 8: The Nature of the Issuer's Business

A. Business Development

The Company was originally organized as a Nevada corporation on July 2, 1997 as a corporation under the name Full Effect, Inc. On March 30, 2005, the Company changes its name to Western Transitions, Inc. On May 12, 2009, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of KAT Exploration, Inc, a Newfoundland corporation organized in 2005, and completed a merger resulting in the change of name to KAT Explorations, Inc. Company's fiscal year end is November 30. The Company has never been in bankruptcy, receivership or any similar proceeding. The Company has never defaulted on the terms of any note, loan, lease or other indebtedness or financing arrangement.

On February 26, 2009, the Company completed a one-for-twenty-four (1 for 24) reverse split of its issued and outstanding Common Stock. On March 31, 2009, the Company increased its authorized capital stock to 500,000,000 shares of Common Stock. On August 12, 2009, the Company increased its authorized capital stock to 3,000,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 30,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock. On November 30, 2009, the Company filed an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation to grant the authority to the Board of Directors to establish the rights, preferences and limitation of classes of Common Stock and Preferred Stock without the need for shareholder approval.

There are currently no plans for a stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, merger, acquisition, spin-off or reorganization.

The Company has never had any of its securities de-listed by any securities exchange or FINRA. The Company has no past, pending or threatening legal proceeding or actions of any kind that could have a material effect on it's business, financial condition or operations.

B. Business of the Company

The Company is engaged in the exploration and development of mineral properties throughout Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Company's Primary SIC Code is 1000 for Metal Mining.

The Company's Secondary Code is 1090 for Miscellaneous Metal Ores.

The Company is not currently a "shell company" as that term is defined by the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933. When the Company was known as Western Transitions, Inc. it may have been a "shell company" for a period of time.

Item 9: The Nature of Products and Service Offered

_____ At the present time, the Company has staked out the following mining claims:

“Colliers” property-Eastern Newfoundland- copper/silver

“Handcamp”property-Central Newfoundland-gold

“Rusty Ridge”property-Bonavista Peninsula-Eastern Newfoundland-iron oxide/
cooper/gold

_____ “Shaylkee”property-Eastern Newfoundland-cooper/silver

“Lucky” property-North/Eastern Newfoundland-cooper

“South Lucky” property-North/Eastern Newfoundland-cooper

The Company is not a mining company. It is an exploration company in search for mineral deposits. In the event the Company is successful in locating commercially minable deposits for extraction, it anticipates entering into agreements with established mining companies for the exploitation of the deposits.

The Company's main focus has been on Sediment-Hosted Stratiform Copper Deposits in the eastern portion of Newfoundland. Although copper is one of the Company's main focuses, the Company has a great interest in gold properties in and around the central area of the province. One of these is the Handcamp property area that has thus far provided high grade gold numbers as high as 158 g/t. With the discovery of Rare Earth Elements on our 100% owned "Rusty Ridge" property, the company will expand it's focus in this area as well. With the dramatic rise in gold, copper and silver, the company feels that its focus is in the right areas and will proceed to bring its properties to their full potential.

A more complete description of the Company's properties is available on the Company's website at www.katexploration.com.

Item 10: The Nature and Extent of the Issuer's Facilities

The Company's administrative and executive headquarters are located at 15 Blade Crescent, Mount Pearl, NL, Canada A1N 5L1.

Item 16. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

Plan of Operation

Over the next twelve months, the Company expects to maintain all of its six mineral properties and possibly acquire one additional gold property. The Company intends to drill at least one gold property in a joint venture pending the availability of additional financing. The Company's current budgeted cash requirements of $650,000 will allow it to maintain its existing mineral properties and to drill on the gold property. With the Company's on-going financing campaign, it is anticipated that the Company can increase its budget requirements and continue to acquire attractive mineral properties. The Company will continue to employ its current 5 employees along with engaging the services of a geologist on the monthly contract beginning in the second quarter of 2010.

Off-Balance Arrangements

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.
