

Stratton Holdings, Inc.

650 Castro St. Ste 120-426
Mountain View, CA 94041

Point of Interest:

Management has issued a request to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. for a Non-Objecting Beneficial Owner List.

This was submitted May 19th, 2010.

For clarification:

What Does Non-Objecting Beneficial Owner - NOBO Mean?

A beneficial owner who gives permission to a financial intermediary to release the owner's name and address to the company(ies) or issuer(s) in which they have bought securities. Companies and issuers request this personal information so they can contact the shareholder regarding important shareholder communications (such as proxies, circulars for rights offerings and annual/quarterly reports).

Purpose:

To begin a new project where company and shareholders more easily communicate and work together towards the goals of the company. Also to establish relationships with all shareholders so management has a better reality on whom the larger shareholders are and can proceed in creating a relationship with them.
