

RMD Entertainment Group (RMDM) Merger Opportunity with a USA TV Production Company

— Filing —

BEIJING, June 10, 2010—RMD Entertainment Group (RMDM; <http://www.rmdmgroup.com>) the company is engaged and currently investigating a merger opportunity with a USA based TV production company.

Founded 12 years ago, this TV production company operates production offices in California and Canada. The company specializes in comedy, and drama and currently produces over 3 dozen TV shows, including reality shows, game shows and children shows. The company strives to provide the highest quality production, including high definition broadcasting.

The TV production company plans to rapidly develop alliances with major studios in order to gain further credibility as a thriving TV production company. The company offers original production content not offered by the competition, and plans to become a leading production company in television, features and public entertainment and the promotion of new comedy talent.

The company has demonstrated success and solid management to date. RMDM management sees significant value and potential in the potential merger of this company. RMDM sees synergy with its China based operating subsidiary Innotrek Technology Inc and its hotel ISP services division as a possible content distribution system.

This is a complex transaction which the company feels warrants a filing and an update via OTC Markets distribution services. RMDM will continue to pursue this merger opportunity and will update the public with all developments on a timely basis.
