Item III The jurisdiction(s) and date of the issuer's incorporation or organization.

A Nevada Corporation Originally incorporated: 12/08/1998

Item IV The exact title and class of securities outstanding. Common Shares, CUSIP #: 12802P208 Symbol: CBYI, Preferred Series A, B, and C

Item V Par or stated value and description of the security. Common Stock: $.001 Par Value

B. Common or Preferred Stock.

1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

Common stock - The shares of common stock presently outstanding, and any shares of common stock issued upon exercise of stock options and/or warrants, will be fully paid and non-assessable. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote for each share owned on all matters voted on by shareholders, and a majority vote is required for all actions to be taken by shareholders, with the exception that a plurality is required for the election of directors. The common stock has no preemptive rights, no cumulative voting rights, and no redemption, sinking fund, or conversion provisions. Since the holders of common stock do not have cumulative voting rights, holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares can elect all directors, and the holders of the remaining shares by themselves cannot elect any directors. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends, if and when declared by the board of directors, out of funds legally available for such purpose, subject to the dividend and liquidation rights of any preferred stock that may then be outstanding.

2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions:

Series A Preferred – 1000 to 1 Voting Power, 1000 to 1 Conversion into Common Shares. Full board approval required before conversion. No redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Series B Preferred – 1 to 1 voting power, and 1 to 1 conversion. Full board approval required before conversion. No redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Series C Preferred – 1,000,000 to 1 voting power, and 1000 to 1 conversion. Full board approval required before conversion. No redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Dividend Policy: The current intention of the Board is to retain future earnings, if any, to finance the expansion of business and does not anticipate paying cash dividends on common shares for the foreseeable future. The Company may not have sufficient funds to legally pay dividends, and if funds are legally available the Board has sole discretion in deciding to, or not to, pay dividends. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends, if and when declared by the board of directors, out of funds legally available for such purpose, subject to the dividend and liquidation rights of any preferred stock that may then be outstanding.

Material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

4. The names of any parent, subsidiary or affiliate of the issuer, and its business purpose, its method of operation, its ownership, and whether it is included in the financial statements attached to this disclosure statement; All items listed below are subsidiaries of CBYI and are run as separate business units... the financial statement below is inclusive of all separate business units listed:

a. Cal Bay Real Estate Acquisition Division, Cal Bay's RE Acquisition Division oversees and locates properties for the Company. The Division locates property in several ways: 1) A established network of Real Estate Brokers and Salesman provide leads to the company. 2) Direct Customer Contact, The Company investigates areas where it feels property may be worth investing in, and contacts the owner directly. The company is also pursuing placing advertisements to solicit property owners wishing to sell property.

b. Cal Bay Green Division, Cal Bay's Green Division oversees and locates Green Technologies. More Specifically the Company is actively pursuing areas such as Waste to Energy, Sewage to Energy, and Recycling of various goods. The Green Division works along side the RE division to acquire property for new Green Startup Companies and purchases the property of existing Green Companies.

5. The effect of existing or probable governmental regulations on the business; Currently Cal Bay does not see any probable governmental regulations affecting its business in a negative way. Recent reinstatement of Tax Credits in the Green Sector should help increase profitability for Cal Bay International.

6. An estimate of the amount spent during each of the last two fiscal years on research and development activities, and, if applicable, the extent to which the cost of such activities are borne directly by customers; estimated amount spent $0. No monies are borne directly from customers. Company does plan on engaging in R&D activities beginning Q2 of 2011 in areas related to the Green Sector.

7. Costs and effects of compliance with environmental laws (federal, state and local); Currently Cal bay International is not affected by any federal, state or local environmental laws and has no costs related to this. Environmental laws and regulations, both at the federal and state level, are subject to change and changes can be required retroactively. Consequently, a requirement to invest or spend considerable resources to comply with future environmental regulations, or new or modified interpretations of those regulations, may reduce profitability and result in the loss of some or all of investors' funds.

8. The number of total employees and number of full-time employee. Total employees - 3 Full time Employees – 2

Projects in Process for Cal Bay International

a) The Company is involved with a Landfill waste & Foliage to Power (Electricity) processing; waste processing operations are anticipated to begin as soon as this month at an Arizona transfer station facility. Current projection for processing is 25 Tons of waste daily which is expected to generate 12KW/Hours per day of clean electricity into the Grid.

b) The Company is involved in the construction of an "Alternative" fuels processing refinery using waste oils and foliage for the production of Methanol that will then be converted to Bio-Fuels.

B. Distribution methods of the products or services;

1) In-house Representatives 2) Real Estate Brokerages 3) Advertisements in Print Media

C. Status of any publicly announced new product or service;

The Company is actively working in the acquisition of a property to place its recently acquired Green Technology.

D. Competitive business conditions, the issuer's competitive position in the industry, and methods of competition;

Real Estate Investment is one of the oldest industries that currently exist. Recently due to the market crash in 2008 a large number of investors have entered the marketplace, thus making acquisition very competitive. Many experts feel that the market is beginning to turn around, and Cal Bay is positioning itself to be ready when this occurs.

Cal Bay sets itself apart from its competition using a few techniques;

1) Land Purchase for Percentage of Business Ownership – The Company feels that a hedge in the current volatile real estate market is to combine acquisitions with taking a percentage of a Startup Co. Currently Cal Bay is acquiring property for several Green startup companies.

2) Extensive Research of Areas of Purchase – Calbay has a specific list of standards that each property needs to meet.

D. Sources and availability of manufacture of hard assets and the names of principal suppliers; These are closely held company secrets and have great value

E. Dependence on one or a few major customers;

Cal Bay International has positioned itself and will continue to position itself so that it WILL NOT have a dependence on one or few major customers.

G. Patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts, including their duration;

Cal Bay International is in negotiations for the rights to several trademarks related to the Green Sector: Currently it holds NONE.

H. The need for any government approval of principal products or services and the status of any requested government approvals. n/a

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF BUSINESS

Cal Bay International ("The Company") was originally formed in NEVADA in 2001. In 2001, the Company acquired Cal Bay Controls, A Nevada Corporation.

The resulting company changed its name to Cal Bay International, A Nevada Corporation trading on the over the counter or "Pink Sheets" market. The Company is engaged in the acquisition, development, management and sale of Real Property

The Company is a development state enterprise since it has not generated significant revenue from the sale of its products from its inception. The Company has been devoted to following its business plan and increasing brand name awareness. Accordingly the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) Number 7, "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises".

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America

Use of Estimates The Company prepares financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting standards which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Although these estimates are based on management's knowledge of events and actions it may undertake in the future, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when acquired, to be cash equivalents. As of December 31 , 2010 management has not made any such investments.

NOTE 3 - NOTES PAYABLE

Notes payable consist of the following:

A non-interest bearing note for $650,722 dated April 21st , 2009 payable to a non-affiliated company with a one year maturity convertible into shares of common stock.

A series of non-interest bearing advances from a non-affiliated company with one year maturities convertible into common stock at rate ranging between $0.005 - $0.01

NOTE 4 - INCOME TAX

The Company is subject to Federal Corporate Income Tax.

C. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements. n/a

1. In a separately-captioned section, discuss the issuer's off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on the issuer's financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors. The disclosure shall include the items specified in paragraphs C(1)(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Item XVI to the extent necessary to an understanding of such arrangements and effect and shall also include such other information that the issuer believes is necessary for such an understanding.

- The nature and business purpose to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements; The importance to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements in respect of its liquidity, capital resources, market risk support, credit risk support or other benefits; The amounts of revenues, expenses and cash flows of the issuer arising from such arrangements; the nature and amounts of any interests retained, securities issued and other indebtedness incurred by the issuer in connection with such arrangements; and the nature and amounts of any other obligations or liabilities (including contingent obligations or liabilities) of the issuer arising from such arrangements that are or are reasonably likely to become material and the triggering events or circumstances that could cause them to arise; and
- Any known event, demand, commitment, trend or uncertainty that will result in or is reasonably likely to result in the termination, or material reduction in availability to the issuer, of its off-balance sheet arrangements that provide material benefits to it, and the course of action that the issuer has taken or proposes to take in response to any such circumstances.

2. As used in paragraph C of this Item XVI, the term off-balance sheet arrangement means any transaction, agreement or other contractual arrangement to which an entity unconsolidated with the issuer is a party, under which the issuer has:

- i. Any obligation under a guarantee contract that has any of the characteristics identified in paragraph 3 of FASB Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others (November 2002) ("FIN 45"), as may be modified or supplemented, and that is not excluded from the initial recognition and measurement provisions of FIN 45 pursuant to paragraphs 6 or 7 of that Interpretation;
- ii. A retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support to such entity for such assets;
- iii. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, under a contract that would be accounted for as a derivative instrument, except that it is both indexed to the issuer's own stock and classified in stockholders' equity in the issuer's statement of financial position, and therefore excluded from the scope of FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (June 1998), pursuant to paragraph 11(a) of that Statement, as may be modified or supplemented; or
- v. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, arising out of a variable interest (as referenced in FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (January 2003), as may be modified or supplemented) in an unconsolidated entity that is held by, and material to, the issuer, where such entity provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit risk support to, or engages in leasing, hedging or research and development services with, the issuer. N/A
