

Dear shareholders,

As the new CEO of Cloud Centric Systems, Inc. it is with much regret that my first correspondence with you is to inform you that due to a lack of funding resulting from the DTC chill, the directors of Cloud Centric Systems (UK), Ltd have filed for a voluntary winding up action with the Companies House in the United Kingdom. This decision was not reached easily and was the result of many discussions regarding the future of Cloud Centric Systems, Inc.. I can assure you that company is doing all it can to remove the chill and drive forward into the future. Cloud Centric Systems, Inc. is also currently executing new ventures that will help us in our progression and growth of the company, further information of this will be disclosed in the near future.

Cloud Centric Systems (UK), Ltd, was a wholly owned subsidiary of Cloud Centric Systems Inc. Up until recently, Cloud Centric Systems (UK), has been the majority business operating within Cloud Centric Systems Inc. Cloud Centric Systems Inc. has formed a new venture, and details of which will be disclosed in the near future.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the previous members of the Cloud Centric Systems (UK), Ltd. staff and management for all of their hard work and assisting efforts in the growth of the company, and especially David Lovatt, former CEO and President of Cloud Centric Systems (UK), Ltd., who has worked within the company since he originally founded Cloud Centric Systems (UK), Ltd. in January 2009.

I would like to personally assure each shareholder that the boards' primary focus is to remove the DTC chill as soon as possible and to bring the company forward. We will do all we can and although some of the decisions are difficult, everything we do is in the best interest of the future Cloud Centric Systems, Inc. and it's shareholders.

Sincerely,

Michael Jenkins, CEO
