

Alternative Reporting Standard:

Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information

OTC Markets Group encourages all issuers of OTC equity securities to make adequate current information available to the public markets. OTC Markets Group believes that federal securities laws, such as Rules 10b-5 and 15c2-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), and state Blue Sky laws, require issuers to provide adequate current public information. With a view to encouraging compliance with these laws, OTC Markets Group has created these Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information ("Guidelines") in order to assist issuers with understanding their disclosure obligations under the Alternative Reporting Standard.<sup>1</sup>

In contrast to securities listed on U.S. stock exchanges, securities may trade in the OTC market whether or not they are registered with the SEC. There are three ways that issuers of OTC traded securities provide disclosure to investors:

- SEC Reporting Standard: Issuers may register a class of their securities with the SEC and comply with SEC reporting requirements.
- Alternative Reporting Standard: When SEC registration is not required, issuers generally must make the information publicly available pursuant to Rules 10b-5 and 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act and Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act.
- International Information Standard: As an alternative to the SEC Reporting Standard, Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act ("Rule 12g3-2(b)") permits non-U.S. companies with securities listed on a non-U.S. exchange to make publicly available to U.S. investors in English the same information that is made publicly available in their home countries.

OTC Markets Group believes adequate current information must be publicly available when an issuer's securities are quoted by a broker-dealer under the following circumstances:

- At the time of initial quotation in public markets;
- At any time corporate insiders or other affiliates of the issuer are offering, buying or selling the issuer's securities in the OTC market;
- During any period when a security is the subject of ongoing promotional activities having the effect of encouraging trading of the issuer's securities in the OTC market;

<sup>1</sup> This is not legal advice, and OTC Markets Group cannot assure anyone that compliance with our disclosure requirements will satisfy any legal requirements.

- At the time securities initially sold in a private placement become freely tradable in the OTC market; or
- At any time the issuer's securities are quoted on OTCQX or included in the Current Information OTC Market Tier.

Issuers with securities that have qualified for OTCQX International are providing adequate current information because such issuers either (i) have a class of their securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act and are current in their SEC reporting obligations or (ii) are non-U.S. issuers that are exempt from registration pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b), are current and fully compliant with their obligations thereunder, and have posted the information required to be made publicly available pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b), in English via the OTC Disclosure and News Service.

These Guidelines may be amended from time to time, in the sole and absolute discretion of OTC Markets Group, with or without notice.

General Considerations

An issuer preparing a disclosure statement under the Alternative Reporting Standard shall consider the purpose of adequate disclosure. Current and potential investors in the issuer's securities should be provided with all "material" information — the information available to the issuer necessary for the investor to make a sound investment decision. The disclosure should enable an investor of ordinary intelligence and investment skills to understand the issuer's business and prospects.

The disclosure must therefore present the issuer's business plan and include a full and clear picture of the issuer's assets, facilities, properties, investments, management and other resources, as well as a complete description of how they will be used to make profits. The issuer's business plan should clearly describe the competition, regulatory environment and other risks to the issuer's business, as well as the issuer's plans for confronting these challenges.

It is also important for an investor to understand how the issuer raises capital and treats investors. At a minimum, the issuer must describe the ways it has raised capital by issuing shares in the past – to whom and the amount of consideration involved. The investor should also be provided with market information, including the past price history of any transactions in the issuer's shares.

Finally, the disclosure should use plain English.<sup>2</sup> This means using short sentences, avoiding legal and technical jargon and providing clear descriptions. Your goal, as an issuer, should be to give the investor the information you would wish the investor to supply if your positions were reversed. You don't need to be Shakespeare; you must, though, have a sincere desire to inform.

Item 16 Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Instructions to Item 16

Issuers that have not had revenues from operations in each of the last two fiscal years, or the last fiscal year and any interim period in the current fiscal year for which financial statements are furnished in the disclosure statement, shall provide the information in paragraphs A and C of this item. All other issuers shall provide the information in paragraphs B and C of this item.

The discussion and analysis shall focus specifically on material events and uncertainties known to management that would cause reported financial information not to be necessarily indicative of future operating results or of future financial condition.

Issuers are not required to supply forward-looking information. This is distinguished from presently known data that will impact upon future operating results, such as known future increases in costs of labor or materials. This latter data may be required to be disclosed.

A. Plan of Operation.

1. Describe the issuer's plan of operation for the next twelve months. This description should include such matters as:

- i. a discussion of how long the issuer can satisfy its cash requirements and whether it will have to raise additional funds in the next twelve months;

- ii. a summary of any product research and development that the issuer will perform for the term of the plan;
- iii. any expected purchase or sale of plant and significant equipment; and
- iv. any expected significant changes in the number of employees.

Not Applicable.

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

1. Full fiscal years. Discuss the issuer's financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations for each of the last two fiscal years. This discussion should address the past and future financial condition and results of operation of the issuer, with particular emphasis on the prospects for the future. The discussion should also address those key variable and other qualitative and quantitative factors that are necessary to an understanding and evaluation of the issuer. If material, the issuer should disclose the following:

- i. Any known trends, events or uncertainties that have or are reasonably likely to have a material impact on the issuer's short-term or long-term liquidity;
- ii. Internal and external sources of liquidity;
- iii. Any material commitments for capital expenditures and the expected sources of funds for such expenditures;
- iv. Any known trends, events or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected to have a material impact on the net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations;
- v. Any significant elements of income or loss that do not arise from the issuer's continuing operations;
- vi. The causes for any material changes from period to period in one or more line items of the issuer's financial statements; and
- vii. Any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operation.

The issuer continues to contract with prison facilities in its effort to increase revenues. Issuer has also begun a program whereby it sells the rights to a state to a third party to contract with prison facilities. The third party pays a license fee and royalty fee on gross revenue. Sources of liquidity are revenues from contracted prison facilities as well as the sale licenses. The issuer continually needs to purchase kiosks and funds the purchase either through current revenues or through a contract with the kiosk provider.

2. Interim Periods. Provide a comparable discussion that will enable the reader to assess material changes in financial condition and results of operations since the end of the last fiscal year and for the comparable interim period in the preceding year.

See the posted December 31, 2010 and September 30, 2011 financial statements.

C. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements.

1. In a separately-captioned section, discuss the issuer's off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on the issuer's financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors. The disclosure shall include the items specified in paragraphs C(1)(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Item 16 to the extent necessary to an understanding of such arrangements and effect and shall also include such other information that the issuer believes is necessary for such an understanding.

- i. The nature and business purpose to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements;
- ii. The importance to the issuer of such off-balance sheet arrangements in respect of its liquidity, capital resources, market risk support, credit risk support or other benefits;
- iii. The amounts of revenues, expenses and cash flows of the issuer arising from such arrangements; the nature and amounts of any interests retained, securities issued and other indebtedness incurred by the issuer in connection with such arrangements; and the nature and amounts of any other obligations or liabilities (including contingent obligations or liabilities) of the issuer arising from such arrangements that are or are reasonably likely to become material and the triggering events or circumstances that could cause them to arise; and

- iv. Any known event, demand, commitment, trend or uncertainty that will result in or is reasonably likely to result in the termination, or material reduction in availability to the issuer, of its off-balance sheet arrangements that provide material benefits to it, and the course of action that the issuer has taken or proposes to take in response to any such circumstances.

Issuer has no off balance sheet arrangements.

2. As used in paragraph C of this Item 16, the term off-balance sheet arrangement means any transaction, agreement or other contractual arrangement to which an entity unconsolidated with the issuer is a party, under which the issuer has:

- i. Any obligation under a guarantee contract that has any of the characteristics identified in paragraph 3 of FASB Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others (November 2002) ("FIN 45"), as may be modified or supplemented, and that is not excluded from the initial recognition and measurement provisions of FIN 45 pursuant to paragraphs 6 or 7 of that Interpretation;
- ii. A retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support to such entity for such assets;
- iii. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, under a contract that would be accounted for as a derivative instrument, except that it is both indexed to the issuer's own stock and classified in stockholders' equity in the issuer's statement of financial position, and therefore excluded from the scope of FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (June 1998), pursuant to paragraph 11(a) of that Statement, as may be modified or supplemented; or
- iv. Any obligation, including a contingent obligation, arising out of a variable interest (as referenced in FASB Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (January 2003), as may be modified or supplemented) in an unconsolidated entity that is held by, and material to, the issuer, where such entity provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit risk support to, or engages in leasing, hedging or research and development services with, the issuer.

Instructions to paragraph C of Item 16

- i. No obligation to make disclosure under paragraph C of this Item 16 shall arise in respect of an off-balance sheet arrangement until a definitive agreement that is unconditionally binding or subject only to customary closing conditions exists or, if there is no such agreement, when settlement of the transaction occurs.
- ii. Issuers should aggregate off-balance sheet arrangements in groups or categories that provide material information in an efficient and understandable manner and should avoid repetition and disclosure of immaterial information. Effects that are common or similar with respect to a number of off-balance sheet arrangements must be analyzed in the aggregate to the extent the aggregation increases understanding. Distinctions in arrangements and their effects must be discussed to the extent the information is material, but the discussion should avoid repetition and disclosure of immaterial information.
- iii. For purposes of paragraph C of this Item 16 only, contingent liabilities arising out of litigation, arbitration or regulatory actions are not considered to be off-balance sheet arrangements.
- iv. Generally, the disclosure required by paragraph C of this Item 16 shall cover the most recent fiscal year. However, the discussion should address changes from the previous year where such discussion is necessary to an understanding of the disclosure.

In satisfying the requirements of paragraph C of this Item 16, the discussion of off-balance sheet arrangements need not repeat information provided in the footnotes to the financial statements, provided that such discussion clearly cross-references to specific information in the relevant footnotes and integrates the substance of the footnotes into such discussion in a manner designed to inform readers of the significance of the information that is not included within the body of such discussion.
