RainEarth, Inc. is currently contemplating and has entered into a Letter of Intent (“LOI”) with CableClix, Inc. dba www.cableclix.com with offices located in Virginia. RNER is in the final stages of negotiation and mutual due diligence on the pending transaction and a closing announcement is expected.

Mr. Chandra and the shareholders of RainEarth would like to thank Mr. Gregory Steinke for the assistance in securing this investment and his continued efforts on building value for the company which has been revived to a current filer with the SEC and OTC Markets and is poised for new added value and momentum. Additional investment into the company is presently being evaluated to support the pending acquisition of CableClix, Inc.

About CableClix, Inc.

CableClix, Inc. dba www.cableclix.com is media rebroadcasting company bringing local over-the-air (OTA) and free-to-air (FTA) signals over private networks owned by Internet Service Providers (ISPs) directly to the customers of ISPs. CableClix.com provides high speed, high definition, live and video-on-demand services to subscribers in their local viewing area. Customers will enjoy viewing their favorite cable channels without compromise and be able to “cut the cord” with their present cable company, saving subscribers up to $70 or more per month. CableClix.com subscribers can access local channels and a limited menu of FTA channels with limited or unlimited access to CableClix Cloud DVR library of content. Subscribers can view their own personal lineup of recorded content on their home televisions, computers, tablets, and smartphones. Programming will be re-broadcast or streamed over the Internet Service Provider’s Network and customers can choose between 2 package options, both with no interruptions or additional advertising or commercial inserts. CableClix will acquire additional re-broadcasting rights across the US by partnering with a growing list of local cable affiliate stations with similar re-broadcast rights agreements which are currently in place. CableClix delivers its content from local ISP's providing customers with an affordable viewing experience. CableClix view towards growth and profitability is impressive amongst the growing alternative wireless cable market.
