

TELECORP ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF HOSTING ACQUISITION

Barrie, Ontario Canada – November 2nd, 2015 – Telecorp, Inc. (OTC Markets: TLNUF) (“Telecorp” or the “Company”), a growing provider of software communications solutions, announced today that it has completed the acquisition of the Hosting Division of Dev Datamedics & Software Pvt Ltd (“Dev Datamedics”).

Headquartered in Chandigarh, India, Dev Datamedics owned and operated Host4gains as a separate divisions of the company. This division was not for sale until recently and after a visit to the office in India. The company looks after Domains and offers Hosting services to over 50 companies.

“We are excited to obtain the complete company including the hosting business and all the other services as it just made sense even though there are some logistic issues that we will need to overcome.” said Paul Phillips, President and CEO of Telecorp Inc. “

With this added acquisition, the company will acquire a modest monthly income and extend the services to include Telecorp’s present servers. Telecorp will offer competitive monthly service fee of $9.99 a month and also offer package pricing on web/domain/hosting.

It is anticipated that monthly revenues will increase between $500.00 and $1,000 monthly starting in January 2016, generating a yearly revenue that should exceed $15,000 monthly after 12 months. This revenue will be reflected on Telecorp’s income statement and, with the expected additional cash flow, the Company intends to clear off approximately $225,000 in debt off its balance sheet.

The changeover is expected to occur on November 15th, whereby Dev Datamedics and hosting business will be completely integrated into Telecorp, and will complement the Company’s existing CRM business.
