PERIOD ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2015

1) Name of the issuer and its predecessors (if any)

In answering this item, please also provide any names used by predecessor entities in the past five years and the dates of the name changes.

The name of the issuer is: Smart Energy Solutions, Inc. (the "Company"). The Company was organized under the laws of the State of Utah under the name Atomic Giant.com, Inc. on February 10, 1999. In May 1999, the Company filed a registration statement on Form 10-SB/12g with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") for the purpose of registering its shares of common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

On March 20, 2000, the Company filed a Proxy Statement on Schedule DEF 14A for, among other purposes, approval of the change of the Company's name to "Datigen.com, Inc." On July 29, 2005, the Company filed a Proxy Statement on Schedule DEF 14A pursuant to which the Company redomiciled/changed its state of incorporation from Utah to Nevada by the merger of the Company with and into its wholly owned subsidiary, Smart Energy Solutions, Inc., a Nevada corporation. As a result of such merger, the Company's name was changed to Smart Energy Solutions, Inc. in order to better reflect the Company's business operations.

SMART ENERGY SOLUTIONS, INC. Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation and Organization

Smart Energy Solutions Inc. is a shell company. On June 7, 2013 an order was received from the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey dated (the "Consent Order Approving Settlement") the Court authorized and approved the sale, transfer and assignment of all of the Company's assets to Aharon Levinas, free and clear of any liens, claims or encumbrances and granting Mr. Levinas effective control of the Company.

Subsequently, the Bankruptcy Trustee transferred substantially all of the assets of the Registrant free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances, to Mr. Aharon Levinas personally.

During November 2014 and March 2015 control was transferred to L.I.E. Pure Capital Ltd., Amir Uziel, Lavi Krasney and Itschak Shrem, each holding 138,570 shares representing 88.72% of the Issuer's outstanding shares of common stock.

Basis of Presentation:

We adopted "fresh-start" accounting as of July 1, 2013 in accordance with procedures specified by AICPA Statement of Position ("SOP") No. 90-7, "Financial Reporting by Entities in Reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code.

The Company was initially formed in 1999 as a Utah corporation under the name Datigen.com, Inc. On August 25, 2005, the Company changed its state of incorporation from Utah to Nevada by the merger of the Company with and into its wholly owned subsidiary, Smart Energy Solutions, Inc., a Nevada corporation. As a result of such merger, the Company's name was changed to Smart Energy Solutions, Inc. in order to better reflect the Company's business operations.

Until November 24, 2004, the Company had been involved in various activities, including development and marketing of various internet and internet related products and services, investment in trust deed notes secured by real property, and providing concrete cutting and finishing services to persons seeking to comply with certain provisions of the American Disability Act of 1991 that require the removal of "trips hazards" from public sidewalks and ramps. On November 24, 2004, a majority of the Company's outstanding common stock was purchased by Amir Uziel and six unaffiliated foreign individuals from certain of the Company's shareholders, including its then Chief Executive Officer, Joseph Ollivier.

Following such change in control, the Company ceased all of its prior business operations. From November 24, 2004 until March 23, 2005, the Company did not have any business operations.

On March 23, 2005, the Company acquired from Purisys, Inc., a New Jersey corporation, the intellectual property rights and certain other assets relating to a product known as the Battery Brain. The Battery Brain is a device that is attached to a motor vehicle battery for the purpose of protecting the vehicle from battery failure and theft. On such date, the Company, Purisys and Aharon Y. Levinas executed an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") pursuant to which the Company purchased all the intellectual property relating to the Battery Brain product and the goodwill associated therewith and certain of the equipment relating to the product. The purchased assets did not include the inventory which existed as of March 23, 2005 or the molds for the Battery Brain (which were located in Italy and China), which were purchased by us for $66,487.

The consideration paid by the Company for the Battery Brain assets included (i) the issuance to Mr. Levinas, the sole shareholder of Purisys, of shares of our common stock representing twenty (20%) percent of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, assuming new investments in the Company in the aggregate amount of $1,000,000, and (ii) a payment of $100,000. Pursuant to the Agreement, 10,421,750 shares of our common stock were issued to Mr. Levinas in August 2005. Pursuant to the Agreement, we agreed that if we raised $400,000 prior to June 23, 2005 we would issue to Mr. Levinas additional shares of our common stock in an amount equal to 20% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company; and if less than $400,000 is raised, then such share amount shall be pro rated based on the actual amount invested. Since we successfully raised more than the $400,000 in a private placement of units of our securities we were not required to issue additional shares to Mr. Levinas. Pursuant to the Agreement, we also agreed to use our best efforts within the next two years to (a) consummate an equity raise of not less than $1,500,000 dollars at a post-money valuation of not less than $12,000,000; provided, that all equity raises within 120 days after March 23, 2005 which are based on a post-money valuation which is $10,500,000 or greater, shall be counted toward the $1,500,000; or (b) generate revenue from the Battery Brain product in an aggregate amount of at least $2,000,000. If we failed to achieve either (a) or (b) at any time on or prior to March 23, 2007, then Mr. Levinas would be entitled to receive additional shares of common stock equal to 20% of the outstanding share capital on a fully-diluted basis (calculated as of said date). As further discussed below, by November 2005 we had raised an aggregate of $2,749,000 in a private placement of units of our securities; therefore, we achieved our obligation to consummate an equity raise of not less than $1,500,000 and Mr. Levinas is no longer entitled to receive the additional shares pursuant to the Agreement.

We agreed with Mr. Levinas to negotiate, in good faith, an agreement regarding the registration rights associated with the shares issued to Mr. Levinas pursuant to the Agreement, providing that Mr. Levinas is entitled to equal registration rights with our controlling shareholders, pro rata in accordance with their holdings, subject to a lock-up agreement, but have not executed a registration rights agreement with Mr. Levinas with respect to these shares as of the date of this report.

Pursuant to the terms of our March 23, 2005 asset purchase agreement with Purisys, Inc. and Mr. Levinas, our Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) members, and Mr. Levinas is entitled to appoint 40% of the directors. If for any reason we cease to manufacture, sell or otherwise cease to be involved in the Battery Brain product, then Mr. Levinas shall have the right to purchase the Battery Brain product from us; the price and other terms of such right shall be negotiated.

The only liabilities we assumed in the transaction are (i) the warranties and service of any Battery Brain products sold prior to the execution and delivery of the Agreement, (ii) any potential claims made by a person who alleges that he assisted in developing the Battery Brain product and (iii) any taxes incurred as a result of the Agreement.

Following the purchase of the Battery Brain assets, the Company focused on building a management team, establishing operations, and entering into contractual arrangements for the manufacture and distribution of Battery Brain products. The Company presently engages in the manufacturing, distribution, and sale of Battery Brain products.

In connection with the order of the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey dated June 7, 2013 (the "Consent Order Approving Settlement") the Court authorized and approved the sale, transfer and assignment of all of the Company's assets to Aharon Levinas personally, free and clear of any liens, claims or encumbrances and granting Mr. Levinas effective control of the Company.

The accompanying financial statements of the Company were prepared from the accounts of the Company under the accrual basis of accounting.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting within the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash on hand, cash accounts not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties, and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, we had cash and cash equivalents of $0 and $6,540, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues as sales agreement are signed for contractually defined periods of time. The Company recognizes revenue ratably over the term of the contract in accordance with ASC 605 (1) when the price is fixed and determinable, (2) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (3) delivery has occurred or services have been provided, and (4) collectability is assured.

Loss per Common Share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss attributable to the common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Fully diluted loss per share is computed similar to basic loss per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the bases of certain assets and liabilities for income tax and financial reporting purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified according to the financial statement classification of the assets and liabilities generating the differences.

The Company maintains a valuation allowance with respect to deferred tax assets. The Company establishes a valuation allowance based upon the potential likelihood of realizing the deferred tax asset and taking into consideration the Company's financial position and results of operations for the current period. Future realization of the deferred tax benefit depends on the existence of sufficient taxable income within the carryforward period under the Federal tax laws.

Changes in circumstances, such as the Company generating taxable income, could cause a change in judgment about the realizability of the related deferred tax asset. Any change in the valuation allowance will be included in income in the year of the change in estimate.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company estimates the fair value of financial instruments using the available market information and valuation methods. Considerable judgment is required in estimating fair value. Accordingly, the estimates of fair value may not be indicative of the amounts the Company could realize in a current market exchange. As of December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the carrying value of accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximated fair value due to the short-term nature and maturity of these instruments.

Estimates

The financial statements are prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities As of December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, and expenses for the twelve months ended December 31, 2015. Actual results could differ from those estimates made by management.

Fair Value Measurements

As defined in ASC 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820-10"), fair value is based on the price that would be received to sell an asset or pay to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In order to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements, ASC 820-10 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used to measure fair value into three broad levels, which are described below:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for assets or liabilities. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to Level 1 inputs.

Level 2: Other inputs that are observable, directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities or market corroborated inputs.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs are used when little or no market data is available, which requires the Company to develop its own assumptions about how market participants would value the assets or liabilities. The fair value hierarchy gives the lowest priority to Level 3 inputs.

In determining fair value, the Company utilizes valuation techniques in its assessment that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Impact of Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In September, 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-16, Business Combinations (Topic 805) ("ASU 2015-16"). Topic 805 requires that an acquirer retrospectively adjust provisional amounts recognized in a business combination, during the measurement period. To simplify the accounting for adjustments made to provisional amounts, the amendments in the Update require that the acquirer recognize adjustments to provisional amounts that are identified during the measurement period in the reporting period in which the adjustment amount is determined. The acquirer is required to also record, in the same period's financial statements, the effect on earnings of changes in depreciation, amortization, or other income effects, if any, as a result of the change to the provisional amounts, calculated as if the accounting had been completed at the acquisition date. In addition an entity is required to present separately on the face of the income statement or disclose in the notes to the financial statements the portion of the amount recorded in current-period earnings by line item that would have been recorded in previous reporting periods if the adjustment to the provisional amounts had been recognized as of the acquisition date. ASU 2015-16 is effective for fiscal years beginning December 15, 2015. The adoption of ASU 2015-016 is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In August, 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-14, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606): Deferral of the Effective Date ("ASU 2015-14"). The amendment in this ASU defers the effective date of ASU No. 2014-09 for all entities for one year. Public business entities, certain not-for-profit entities, and certain employee benefit plans should apply the guidance in ASU 2014-09 to annual reporting periods beginning December 15, 2017, including interim reporting periods within that reporting period. Earlier application is permitted only as of annual reporting periods beginning after December 31, 2016, including interim reporting periods with that reporting period.

In April 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2015-03, Interest—Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30) ("ASU 2015-03"), which changes the presentation of debt issuance costs in financial statements. ASU 2015-03 requires an entity to present such costs in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the related debt liability rather than as an asset. Amortization of the costs will continue to be reported as interest expense. It is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016. Early adoption is permitted. The new guidance will be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented. The Company is currently in the process of evaluating the impact of adoption of ASU 2015-03 on its balance sheets.

On November 2014, The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standard Update No. 2014-16—Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815): Determining Whether the Host Contract in a Hybrid Financial Instrument Issued in the Form of a Share Is More Akin to Debt or to Equity (a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force). The amendments in this Update do not change the current criteria in GAAP for determining when separation of certain embedded derivative features in a hybrid financial instrument is required. That is, an entity will continue to evaluate whether the economic characteristics and risks of the embedded derivative feature are clearly and closely related to those of the host contract, among other relevant criteria. The amendments clarify how current GAAP should be interpreted in evaluating the economic characteristics and risks of a host contract in a hybrid financial instrument that is issued in the form of a share. The effects of initially adopting the amendments in this Update should be applied on a modified retrospective basis to existing hybrid financial instruments issued in the form of a share as of the beginning of the fiscal year for which the amendments are effective. Retrospective application is permitted to all relevant prior periods.

On November 2014, The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standard Update No. 2014-17—Business Combinations (Topic 805): Pushdown Accounting (a consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force). The amendments in this Update provide an acquired entity with an option to apply pushdown accounting in its separate financial statements upon occurrence of an event in which an acquirer obtains control of the acquired entity. The amendments in this Update are effective on November 18, 2014. After the effective date, an acquired entity can make an election to apply the guidance to future change-in-control events or to its most recent change-in-control event. However, if the financial statements for the period in which the most recent change-in-control event occurred already have been issued or made available to be issued, the application of this guidance would be a change in accounting principle.

On August 2014, The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standard Update No. 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements – Going Concerns (Subtopic 205-40): Disclosures of Uncertainties about an Entity's Ability to Continue as a Going Concern. The amendments require management to assess an entity's ability to continue as a going concern by incorporating and expanding upon certain principles that are currently in U.S. auditing standards. Specifically, the amendments (1) provide a definition of the term substantial doubt, (2) require an evaluation every reporting period including interim periods, (3) provide principles for considering the mitigating effect of management's plans, (4) require certain disclosures when substantial doubt is alleviated as a result of consideration of management's plans, (5) require an express statement and other disclosures when substantial doubt is not alleviated, and (6) require an assessment for a period of one year after the date that the financial statements are issued (or available to be issued). The amendments in this Update are effective for the annual period ending after December 15, 2016, and for annual periods and interim periods thereafter. Early application is permitted.

In June 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2014-10, "Development Stage Entities". The amendments in this update remove the definition of a development stage entity from the Master Glossary of the ASC thereby removing the financial reporting distinction between development stage entities and other reporting entities from U.S. GAAP. In addition, the amendments eliminate the requirements for development stage entities to (1) present inception-to-date information in the statements of income, cash flows, and shareholder equity, (2) label the financial statements as those of a development stage entity, (3) disclose a description of the development stage activities in which the entity is engaged, and (4) disclose in the first year in which the entity is no longer a development stage entity that in prior years it had been in the development stage. The amendments in this update are applied retrospectively. The adoption of ASU 2014-10 removed the development stage entity financial reporting requirements from the Company.

In June 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-12, Compensation – Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Accounting for Share-Based Payments When the Terms of an Award Provide That a Performance Target Could Be Achieved after the Requisite Service Period. The new guidance requires that share-based compensation that require a specific performance target to be achieved in order for employees to become eligible to vest in the awards and that could be achieved after an employee completes the requisite service period be treated as a performance condition. As such, the performance target should not be reflected in estimating the grant-date fair value of the award. Compensation costs should be recognized in the period in which it becomes probable that the performance target will be achieved and should represent the compensation cost attributable to the period(s) for which the requisite service has already been rendered. If the performance target becomes probable of being achieved before the end of the requisite service period, the remaining unrecognized compensation cost should be recognized prospectively over the remaining requisite service period. The total amount of compensation cost recognized during and after the requisite service period should reflect the number of awards that are expected to vest and should be adjusted to reflect those awards that ultimately vest. The requisite service period ends when the employee can cease rendering service and still be eligible to vest in the award if the performance target is achieved. This new guidance is effective for fiscal years and interim periods within those years beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted. Entities may apply the amendments in this Update either (a) prospectively to all awards granted or modified after the effective date or (b) retrospectively to all awards with performance targets that are outstanding as of the beginning of the earliest annual period presented in the financial statements and to all new or modified awards thereafter. The adoption of ASU 2014-12 is not expected to have a material impact on our financial position or results of operations.

In June 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-10: Development Stage Entities (Topic 915): Elimination of Certain Financial Reporting Requirements, Including an Amendment to Variable Interest Entities Guidance in Topic 810, Consolidation, to improve financial reporting by reducing the cost and complexity associated with the incremental reporting requirements of development stage entities. The amendments in this update remove all incremental financial reporting requirements from U.S. GAAP for development stage entities, thereby improving financial reporting by eliminating the cost and complexity associated with providing that information. The amendments in this Update also eliminate an exception provided to development stage entities in Topic 810, Consolidation, for determining whether an entity is a variable interest entity on the basis of the amount of investment equity that is at risk. The amendments to eliminate that exception simplify U.S. GAAP by reducing avoidable complexity in existing accounting literature and improve the relevance of information provided to financial statement users by requiring the application of the same consolidation guidance by all reporting entities. The elimination of the exception may change the consolidation analysis, consolidation decision, and disclosure requirements for a reporting entity that has an interest in an entity in the development stage. The amendments related to the elimination of inception-to-date information and the other remaining disclosure requirements of Topic 915 should be applied retrospectively except for the clarification to Topic 275, which shall be applied prospectively. For public companies, those amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2014, and interim periods therein. Early adoption is permitted. The adoption of ASU 2014-10 is not expected to have a material impact on our financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The Registrant has no present operations. Management determined to direct its efforts and limited resources to pursue potential new business opportunities. The Registrant does not intend to limit itself to a particular industry and has not established any particular criteria upon which it shall consider and proceed with a business opportunity.

There is currently no active trading market in the Registrant's shares nor do we believe that any active trading market has existed for the last 3 years. There can be no assurance that there will be an active trading market for our securities following the Company again becoming current by filing this Annual Report with the OTC Markets. In the event that an active trading market commences, there can be no assurance as to the market price of our shares of common stock, whether any trading market will provide liquidity to investors, or whether any trading market will be sustained.

Management would have substantial flexibility in identifying and selecting a prospective new business opportunity. The Registrant is dependent on the judgment of its management in connection with this process. In evaluating a prospective business opportunity, we would consider, among other factors, the following:

- costs associated with pursuing a new business opportunity
- growth potential of the new business opportunity;
- experiences, skills and availability of additional personnel necessary to pursue a potential new business opportunity;

- necessary capital requirements;
- the competitive position of the new business opportunity;
- stage of business development;
- the market acceptance of the potential products and services;
- proprietary features and degree of intellectual property; and
- The regulatory environment that may be applicable to any prospective business opportunity.

The foregoing criteria are not intended to be exhaustive and there may be other criteria that management may deem relevant. In connection with an evaluation of a prospective or potential business opportunity, management may be expected to conduct a due diligence review.

The time and costs required to pursue new business opportunities, which includes negotiating and documenting relevant agreements and preparing requisite documents for filing pursuant to applicable securities laws, cannot be ascertained with any degree of certainty.

Management intends to devote such time as it deems necessary to carry out the Registrant's affairs. The exact length of time required for the pursuit of any new potential business opportunities is uncertain. No assurance can be made that we will be successful in our efforts. We cannot project the amount of time that our management will actually devote to the Registrant's plan of operation.

The Registrant intends to conduct its activities so as to avoid being classified as an "Investment Company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940, and therefore avoid application of the costly and restrictive registration and other provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

At present, the Registrant has no specific business plan or purpose. The Registrant's business plan is to seek new business opportunities or to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unidentified company. As a result, the Registrant is a blank check company and any offerings of the Registrant's securities need to comply with Rule 419 under the Act. The Registrant's common stock is a "penny stock," as defined in Rule 3a51-1 under the Exchange Act. The penny stock rules require a broker-dealer, prior to a transaction in penny stock not otherwise exempt from the rules, to deliver a standardized risk disclosure document that provides information about penny stocks and the nature and level of risks in the penny stock market. The broker-dealer also must provide the customer with current bid and offer quotations for the penny stock, the compensation of the broker-dealer and its sales person in the transaction, and monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account. In addition, the penny stock rules require that the broker-dealer, not otherwise exempt from such rules, must make a special written determination that the penny stock is suitable for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written agreement to the transaction. These disclosure rules have the effect of reducing the level of trading activity in the secondary market for a stock that becomes subject to the penny stock rules. So long as the common stock of the Registrant is subject to the penny stock rules, it may be more difficult to sell the Registrant's common stock.

The future of the Company is dependent upon Management success in its efforts and limited resources to pursue and effect a business combination.

These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might arise from this uncertainty.

NOTE 3 - "FRESH START" ACCOUNTING

On June 7, 2013, upon the application of Patrick J. Spina, Esq., the Court Appointed Receiver for Smart Energy Solutions, Inc. (the "Company"), a Consent Order Approving Settlement was filed with the Superior Court of New Jersey (the "Order"). Pursuant to the Order all assets together with effective control of the Company were transferred to Aharon Levinas. We adopted "freshstart" accounting as of July 1, 2013 in accordance with procedures specified by AICPA Statement of Position ("SOP") No. 90-7, "Financial Reporting by Entities in Reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code."

On May 23, 2013, Patrick J. Spina, Esq., the Trustee for the Company and Aharon Levinas, Inc. entered into a contract that was subject to Court approval, providing for the sale of all of the Company's assets, free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances. On June 7, 2013, the Court granted a Consent Order approving the contract and finding that Aharon Levinas is a good faith purchaser.

In accordance with SOP No. 90-7, the reorganized value of the Company was allocated to the Company's assets based on procedures specified by SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations". Each liability existing at the plan sale date, other than deferred taxes, was stated at the present value of the amounts to be paid at appropriate market rates. It was determined that the Company's reorganization value computed immediately before July 1, 2013 was $0. We adopted "fresh-start" accounting because holders of existing voting shares immediately before filing and confirmation of the sale received less than 50% of the voting shares of the emerging entity and its reorganization value is less than its post-petition liabilities and allowed claims.

NOTE 4 - CAPITAL STRUCTURE

On November 18, 2014 the Company decreased its capital stock from one billion shares to five hundred and one million shares of capital stock consisting of five hundred million shares of common stock and one million shares of preferred stock.

In addition, on November 18, 2014, the Company implemented a reverse split of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock on a one for one thousand and five hundred (1:1,500) basis.

On May 1, 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with the two founders of the Company to issue 550,000 shares of common stock in exchange for $29,250. During the period ended December 31, 2013, the Company received payments in the amount of $1,750 as partial payments of the agreement and were recorded as a stock payable as of that date and the shares were to be issued upon receipt of full payment of the remaining funds. During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company received the remaining $27,500 and issued the 550,000 shares to the founders.

On December 31, 2015 there were approximately 168 holders of record of the Company's common stock, the Company has 624,783 shares of common stock authorized with $0.00001 par value. All common shares are entitled to one vote per share in all matters submitted to the shareholders. No preferred shares are issued and outstanding at December 31, 2015 and 2013.

Dividends

The Company has not declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock nor does it anticipate paying any in the foreseeable future. Furthermore, the Company expects to retain any future earnings to finance its operations and expansion. The payment of cash dividends in the future will be at the discretion of its Board of Directors and will depend upon its earnings levels, capital requirements, any restrictive loan covenants and other factors the Board considers relevant.

Securities Authorized for Issuance under Equity Compensation Plans

None

NOTE 5 - CHANGE OF CONTROL

In July 2013 and as a result of the Court's entry of the Consent Order of Settlement, Mr. Aharon Levinas was appointed to the board of directors of the Company and to serve as its sole executive officer.

L.I.E. Pure Capital Ltd. and Amir Uziel acquired 415,711 and 138,570 shares, respectively, thereby acquiring control in connection with a Private Securities Purchase Agreement dated November 16, 2014 between Mr. Silberman and Amir Uziel as purchasers, and Aharon Levinas and his adult son, Tamir Levinas, as sellers for 554,281 shares of common stock, adjusted for the recently effective 1 for 1500 reverse split, representing 88.72% of the Issuer's outstanding shares of common stock.

Subsequently during March 2015 L.I.E. Pure Capital Ltd. sold a total of 277,140 shares to Mr. Lavi Krasney and Mr. Itschak Shrem in equal parts.

As a result as the issuer's control persons are L.I.E. Pure Capital Ltd., Amir Uziel, Lavi Krasney and Itschak Shrem, each holding 138,570 shares. In aggregate the control persons hold 554,281 shares of common stock, adjusted for the recently effective 1 for 1500 reverse split, representing 88.72% of the Issuer's outstanding shares of common stock.

NOTE 6 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

On May 1, 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with the two founders of the Company to issue 550,000 shares of common stock in exchange for $29,250. During the period ended December 31, 2013, the Company received payments in the amount of $1,750 as partial payments of the agreement and were recorded as a stock payable as of that date and the shares were to be issued upon receipt of full payment of the remaining funds. During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company received the remaining $27,500 and issued the 550,000 shares to the founders.

Note 8- NOTE PAYABLE

During 2015 a non-related third party paid the amount of $5,000 to the company's transfer agent for settlement of past due fee. This payment on behalf of the company is recorded as a note payable. The note has a maturity date of December 31, 2016.

Note 9- SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

As defined in FASB ASC 855-10, "Subsequent Events", subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

The Company evaluated all events and transactions that occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date and prior to the date on which the financial statements contained in this report were issued, and the Company determined that no such events or transactions necessitated disclosure.

Information contained in a Financial Report is considered current until the due date for the subsequent Financial Report. To remain in the OTC Pink Current Information tier, a company must post its Annual Report within 90 days from its fiscal year-end date and Quarterly Reports within 45 days of its fiscal quarter-end date.
