Item 4 Management's discussion and analysis or plan of operation.

PlayBox (US) Inc. was incorporated in April 2005 to market music and related music items. Since then the business plan has changed to embrace and incorporate New and innovative building technologies through our purchase of Talsa Construction Ltd and Con-X Construction Ltd. We have agreement in principle for some building technologies and are in discussions with several other parties to acquire technology and distribution rights to other technologies which will assist us in expanding our business and branding ourselves as a company which is assisting others in the fight against global housing market. To this end we have acquired the operations of Talsa Construction and Con-X Construction and will continue to look for other innovative companies in the construction and building market.

PlayBox (US) Inc. has sufficient cash flow to service their current and anticipated future needs. We anticipate being able to complete future acquisitions through the issuance of our preferred shares, should the opportunity arise. Should the need arise for an injection of cash into the company we would offer our current shareholders the opportunity to invest before going outside and engaging the services of others.

Market Trends

The trend today is to focus on conserving energy both for the betterment of society and the conservation of resources. This trend is anticipated to increase over the next 20 years. PlayBox (US) Inc plans to position itself to benefit from this trend. PlayBox has acquired Con-X Construction Ltd. to enhance the position of Talsa Construction, which is positioned to benefit from the switch to energy efficient building products. Companies who do not change with the times will find themselves having a more difficult time to compete in their industry. PlayBox has developed a plan of action that will assist them to stay at the forefront of their industry and thus be able to remain more competitive in their market sector. The company is monitoring industry trends and adapting quarterly to these trends. There are numerous leading edge products being used outside North America for several years now which we are acquiring the rights to market which will place PlayBox at the front of their market sector.

Competition

There are many areas of business in these changing times which can apply sufficient pressure on a company to the extent that it would fail. Playbox has been actively researching the different market segments and we have found that companies are not changing with the times and adapting to the market demands. With our specialized approach we find we are more than capable to keep significant margins in the services we provide which will enable us to survive and grow while our competitors fall away because of their stagnant and outdated business practices. We look forward to the future. PlayBox (US) Inc. does not anticipate the need to use any off-balance sheet arrangements to accomplish our expansion goals.
