

NIFL Seeks New Commissioner for their Upoming Inaugural Season

July 05, 2016 Dallas, Texas

The National Indoor Football League ("NIFL") has announced they will seek a New Commissioner for their upcoming season. As the fastest growing Sport in America, This is great Timing for the League and the Cities getting Teams in 2017.

The Commissioner will be chosen at the upcoming League Meetings. The League is seeking qualified individuals interested in the opportunity. Please let the league office know of their interest and qualifications by email at admin@niflfootball.com. Team owners will have the final decision on the League's New Commissioner.

NIFL Owners will enter the league meeting with varied ideas about what they expect from their new Commissioner. Will they vote for the candidate with the largest background in marketing and revenue production? Will they lean their vote toward the person with the most experience in the operations of the game of Indoor Football? Or will the NIFL owners seek the candidate that brings the best background in television as the television market is such a large revenue generator for the league and teams?

In NIFL's search for Candidates, they are looking at individuals with a varied background to meet the changes needs of the NIFL in this period of time.

NIFL President, Carolyn Shiver's comments on the new Commissioner were, "We are hoping to reach out to the professional sports world and find the perfect mix in our new Commissioner of high revenue production, television experience and professional sports league experience. This is a decision that will make a major difference in the future of the NIFL teams and the Teams are taking this very seriously. It will be the first major decision of teams. Remember in professional sports, we compete on the field and are partners in the boardroom. It is our hope that all the teams will make a beneficial decision.

National Indoor Footall League

The National Indoor Footall League, NIFL, is the only Indoor Football League in America partnered with the NFL for officiating in 2004. The NIFL is projecting revenues of $600 million in their first playing year. NIFL will have national television contracts with Time Warner, Charter, and Comcast as well as Dish Network and Directv. Each week most of the games will be nationally televised on television, aired on IPTV and on mobile apps. Uniquely, NIFL is a strong supporter of local ownership and is requiring every team to take on a limited number of local owners that invest and have ownership in their team. NIFL is "Bringing the fastest growing sport in America to American markets all over the US, Canada, and Mexico.
