

International Consolidated Companies (OTC: INCC) Acquires St. James Remedies, Inc.

DENVER, CO / Jan19, 2016 / International Consolidated Companies Inc., (OTC: INCC) today announced it's intent to acquire St. James Remedies, Inc.

St. James Remedies will be selling its products, a better, smarter delivery system technology for CBD, and licensing its brand to Marijuana Infused Products companies (MIPs) in the states where medical marijuana is state legal. The MIP will add THC to the CBD capsule, making it a salable item in the medical dispensaries.

St. James Remedies products currently include water soluble, thus bio-available, cannabidoil (CBD) based wellness drinks, and gel caps. More information about the many studies of CBD can be found at www.projectcbd.org

"We are very excited to be a part of the medical solutions without being directly involved in the addition of THC or direct sales of medical marijuana products," said INCC Chairman Antonio Uccello.

Additionally, INCC has been notified that the DTCC chill was lifted. "We are very excited to have the chill behind us!" Uccello commented.
