

McCUSKER HOLDINGS CORP SYMBOL CHANGE TO MCCU

DALLAS, TX, April 30, 2017 /24-7PressRelease/ -- McCusker Holdings Corp (MHC) a leading national provider of help desk and warranty insurance is becoming increasingly concerned about completing the symbol change from ORRV to MCCU and the removal of the "yield sign" on May 01, 2017.

Implementation of the new symbol requires the completion of the custodianship change by the court. The documents required to change custodianship were submitted to Clark County on or about April 24, 2017. At the time of this Press Release, Clark County has yet to schedule a court hearing or sign a consent order completing the custodianship change. The custodianship change hearing date initially set for June 13, 2017 was a technical placeholder allowing McCusker to complete all necessary merger activities. Our legal team is working hard to expedite the Board Approved custodianship transfer, and complete the symbol change as quickly as possible. In short, the custodianship change is being viewed as an incidental formality and is expected at any moment.

MHC is dedicated to keeping all internal and external shareholders informed and is making every effort to do this in a timely manner. Much like our shareholders we are anxious to complete and communicate our transfer from ORRV to MCCU as quickly as possible, and the removal of the yield sign. Upon completion of the symbol change, MHC looks forward to provide additional information about our revenue growth, new contracts and our new acquisitions as they are completed!
