

TORON, INC. (OTC:TRON) PROVIDES CORPORATE STATUS UPDATE

MIAMI, FLORIDA – June 15, 2017 - Toron, Inc. (OTC Pink: TRON) provided its stockholders today with a corporate update.

Toron’s Chief Executive Officer, Rene Ortiz Morentin, announces that Toron has also successfully completed its first round of funding to empower the Company to begin implementation of its business plan.

On June 9, 2017, the Company was officially removed from custodianship from Barton Hallow, LLC and Adam Tracy pursuant to a Nevada District Court Order. On June 14, 2017, Custodian case was formally closed. Today, the Company updated its filing with the Secretary of State of Nevada reflecting the removal of Mr. Tracy as a director and seating its new board of directors. Additionally, the Company has filed an amendment of the articles of incorporation, with the board of director’s approval, with the Secretary of State of Nevada to reduce its total authorized shares of common stock from 2,500,000 to 1,000,000. Mr. Ortiz Morentin stated “I can see no reason to support a dilution event for Toron shareholders”.

Toron is pleased to announce that we have secured new SEC counsel, Matheau J. W. Stout, Esq. of Baltimore, Maryland, <http://www.otclawyers.com>.

Statements in this press release that are not historical fact may be deemed forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Although Toron, Inc. believes the expectations reflected in any forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, Toron, Inc. is unable to give any assurance that its expectations will be attained.
