

Central Wireless Retains Investor Relations Firm As it Plans Business Transformation

Los Angeles, November 14, 2017 — Central Wireless, Inc. (OTC: CWIR) today announced it has retained PondelWilkinson Inc. as its investor relations and strategic public relations firm to advise on communications matters, as the company restructures its business focus under new management as an acquisition holding company.

PondelWilkinson will serve Central Wireless as its liaison to Wall Street and investors, handle media relations, and structure communications surrounding mergers and acquisitions, along with providing corporate communications counsel in connection with an eventual corporate name change and up-listing to a major exchange.

“We are beginning to build our team and believe PondelWilkinson will be a valuable resource, as we transform the company and implement our growth strategy and plan,” said Harry Orfanos, who assumed the leadership and was named Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Central Wireless in September 2017.

Founded in 1968, PondelWilkinson has deep roots on Wall Street and provides a full complement of communications services for emerging and established publicly traded, pre-public and privately-owned companies in a wide range of industries.
