C. the issuer's primary and secondary SIC Codes;

The issuer's primary SIC code is 1000.

D. the issuer's fiscal year end date;

The issuer's fiscal year end is September 30

E. principal products or services, and their markets;

The company is currently prospecting, developing and expanding economic potential of its gold mining claims as well as developing its gold trading business in the African and Australasian region. Gold is historically characterized as one of the most sought after commodity in the precious metal industry. The company's principal product is gold and the origins of our resources are currently from Ghana as well as Mali for supply to the South East Asian markets. The Company delivers its products to the buyer's designated gold refineries. The Company is expanding its gold resources from Mali and also other countries in the African and Australasian region. The company will encounter significant competition in connection with all aspects of its business operations where such competitive conditions may adversely affect the Company's revenue, profitability, and ability to expand. In the gold trading business, competition will include other seasoned and established gold buyers as well as other producers who can compete with more attractive offers. The Company will be subject to overwhelming demand for gold and the supply of this product is very scarce. There is no assurance for the suppliers of this product to renew our purchase contracts and the Company may not have enough new suppliers to support prevailing market demand. The Company will be subject to market demand under its gold trading business and there can be no assurance of customer loyalty. However, the product is historically one of the most sought after commodity in the precious metal industry and the demand for this product has been rising significantly. The Company will be subject to the extensive regulation of its gold business operations in Ghana, Mali, Papua New Guinea and other jurisdiction where it operates. There can be no assurance that additional local, state or federal statutes or regulations in the countries which the Company operate will not be enacted or that existing laws and regulations. The company will always comply with all current governmental regulations and obtain all necessary approvals and clearances.
