Footnotes to Financial Statements for June 30, 2015

TAMINO MINERALS INC. (“TINO”)

Note 1 – Organization and Basis of Presentation

Organization and Line of Business

Tamino Minerals Inc. began its existence as Rom Tech, Inc. as a Pennsylvania corporation incorporated in July 1992 As Rom Tech, Inc. It was changed to Entertainment Games, Inc. (“eGames”) in March of 1999. On March 25, 2013, Tamino Minerals Inc. was authorized as a Pennsylvania corporation. It continues to operate in good standing as a Pennsylvania entity.

On April 4, 2012, the company (Entertainment Games, Inc., which is Tamino Minerals, Inc.’s predecessor) was de-listed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (by operation of an SEC 15-12G filing).

Tamino Minerals Inc. has transitioned to a mining enterprise. It is currently exploring in Mexico for precious metals including copper, lead and zinc. It has several properties in a highly prospective area for Gold in Mexico known as the “Las Amalias Mine” and it continues to evaluate and develop economic opportunities. Entertainment Games issued 65 Million Shares of its Common Shares in October 19, 2012 to the New Mining Exploration Group commanded by Messier Pedro Villagrán García.

Messier Pedro Villagrán García was then appointed President & CEO of Entertainment Games, Inc..

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The statements presented were prepared by the company based on operations during the year and prior period accounting records.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Principles of Consolidation

The financial statements are not consolidated. However, the financial statements do reflect the interest held by the company in an operating mining venture in Mexico.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand and cash in time deposits, certificates of deposit and all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less. The company maintains a business checking account in the United States at Chase Bank.

Prepaid Expenses

The company has a low amount of Prepaid Expenses to date which will be accounted for once we are audit ready. The amount is not too big and are mainly are expenses that the President/CEO made in the last several months.
