6) Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services

NuTech Energy Resources, Inc. (the "Company") is a Delaware Corporation that is a vertically integrated natural gas production company. Its current focus is on acquiring abandoned coalbed methane gas wells in the Powder River Basin of Wyoming, and to convert those wells into profitable producing assets. The Company has acquired a patent to use a proprietary technology to produce natural gas without pumping water out of the ground from inside a well. This device reduces overhead from conventional methods of natural gas production by as much as sixty percent (60%). In addition, the Company has ownership interests in new windmill technology as well as a technology that improves gas production within a well bore.
