FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These financial statements have not been audited but have prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Baron Capital Enterprise, Inc. has no reason to believe that the financial statements cannot be audited in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The public entity initially filed for a public offering in 1996 in the Thrift Management business that operated a string of Thrift stores in Florida. The Company has been involved in two other business ventures since going public before becoming Baron Capital Enterprise, Inc. The Company's Sole Officer and Director has been an Officer and Director with the Company since January of 2004.

Baron Capital Enterprise, Inc., became the official name of the entity in December of 2011 at which time the goal was to setup and operate several subsidiary companies to service the needs of private and public companies. Baron Capital was to become a one-stop shop servicing client's needs in-house and using clients from one subsidiary as leads to generate income for the other subsidiaries.

Baron Capital entered into an arrangement with Timmy L. Howard to become the Company's sole officer and director and change the name of the Company to Southern Contracting, Inc. The issuer is a general and utilities contractor located in Southwest Florida and a leader in innovative solutions for complex small and large scale civil infrastructure works; project experience ranges from WWTP plants to Roadway construction to complete subdivision development.

In addition to reviewing available current and future civil infrastructure projects to bid, Baron Capital is negotiating with a few private commercial property owners for management and/or work on construction projects. The private projects include modifications to existing commercial structures, development of vacant land and repairs from Hurricane Irma.
