Ladies/Gentlemen:

You are entitled to rely on this letter in determining whether Glink Arts Global Group, Inc., formerly Sports Pouch Beverage Company, Inc., (the “Issuer”) has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933.

I am a resident of the United States and have been retained by the Issuer for the purpose of rendering this letter and related matters. This firm’s relationship with the Issuer includes, over and above writing this letter, serving as special securities counsel for the Issuer, which duties include preparing or reviewing disclosure information and press releases, interfacing with the chief financial officer and independent accountants, and giving general legal advice to management. The firm does not own any shares of the Issuer’s securities and has no plans, agreements nor intention of receiving any such shares in the future, in payment for services.

I have examined such corporate records and other documents and such questions of law as I have considered necessary or appropriate for purposes of writing this letter. In all such examinations, I have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to me as copies and the authenticity of all originals of such documents submitted as copies. Further, in all such examinations, I may have relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Issuer, and other sources, and represent that all such sources are believed to be reliable.

I have not ever been suspended or barred from practicing in any state or jurisdiction, and I have not been charged in a civil or criminal case. Further, I have not in the past 5 years been the subject of an investigation, hearing or proceeding by the SEC, the US Commodity Futures Trading Commission, FINRA or any other federal, state or foreign regulatory agency.
