NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Corporate History

Healixa Inc. (f/k/a Emerald Organic Products Inc) ("EMOR", "Healixa", or the "Company") was incorporated in October 1977 as a Nevada corporation to engage in the retail sale of organic meat products and held minority interests in oil and gas property leases and owned production and marketing rights to a patented pet waste disposal product.

Effective November 28, 2018, EMOR entered into an agreement and plan of merger with EOP Merger Sub LLC, a newly-formed, wholly-owned Oregon limited liability ("EOP Merger Sub"), and Pura Vida Health LLC, an Oregon limited liability company ("Pura Vida"). On April 5, 2020, EMOR consummated the Pura Vida Merger Agreement with EOP Merger Sub and Pura Vida. Pursuant to the Pura Vida Merger Agreement, EOP Merger Sub merged into and with Pura Vida, with Pura Vida continuing as the surviving entity and the wholly-owned subsidiary of EMOR (the "Pura Vida Merger").

Immediately following the Pura Vida Merger, the Company had 772,704,794 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. The pre-Pura Vida Merger stockholders of the Company retained an aggregate of 78,391,132 shares of common stock of the Company, representing approximately 10% ownership of the post-Pura Vida Merger Company. Therefore, upon consummation of the Pura Vida Merger, there was a change in control of the Company, with the former owners of Pura Vida effectively acquiring control of the Company. The Pura Vida Merger was treated as a recapitalization and reverse acquisition of the Company for financial accounting purposes. Pura Vida is considered the acquirer for accounting purposes, and the Company's historical financial statements before the Pura Vida Merger have been replaced with the historical financial statements of Pura Vida before the Pura Vida Merger in future filings with the OTC.

Effective September 30, 2019, the Company entered into an agreement and plan of merger with EOP Vending Merger Sub LLC, a newly-formed, wholly-owned Nevada limited liability company ("EOP Vending Merger Sub"), and Bezalel's Jewelry, Inc., a California corporation ("Bezalel") (the "Bezalel Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the Bezalel Merger Agreement, EOP Vending Merger Sub merged into and with Bezalel, with Bezalel continuing as the surviving entity and a 51% majority owned subsidiary of the Company.

On April 1, 2020, the Company entered into an agreement and conditional plan of merger with EOP RX Merger Sub LLC, a newly-formed, wholly owned Florida limited liability company ("EOP RX Merger Sub"), and Dermserv LLC (d/b/a Bonsa Health) ("Dermserv"), a Florida Corporation (the "Dermserv Conditional Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the Dermserv Conditional Merger Agreement, 51% of Dermserv's outstanding equity units were to be exchanged for an aggregate consideration of up to 20,000,000 shares of Healixa's common stock. On June 17, 2020, Dermserv changed its name to CarieRx LLC ("CarieRx"). The Company has since discovered that it has meritorious causes of action against Dermserv and its principals, including for material breach of the Dermserv Conditional Merger Agreement and, as such, the Company will be taking appropriate legal steps to nullify the Dermserv Conditional Merger Agreement and cancel the shares paid as consideration.

Effective July 2, 2020, the Company entered into an agreement and plan of merger with Carie Health Inc., a Nevada corporation, Carie DMO Merger Sub Corp ("Carie DMO Merger Sub"), and DMO Holdings Corp, a Nevada corporation ("DMO Holdings") (the "DMO Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the DMO Merger Agreement, Carie DMO Merger Sub merged into and with DMO Holdings, with DMO Holdings continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

As of January 1, 2021, the Company sold off its Pura Vida Vitamins line in order to focus on its technology portfolio. Accordingly, the Company has reported the results of the Pura Vida business as discontinued operations in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations.

EMOR conducts business through its wholly and majority-owned subsidiaries, Friendly RX Master LLC (and series LLC underneath the master now and in the future), We Global BVI, Deposit.com JVA, and We Green BVI. (collectively, the "Company"). The Company is engaged in the creation, acquisition, development and deployment of ethically engineered healing technologies that have a positive impact. This includes technology that has an on impact the macro environmental challenges of our time and health technology that makes quality health care accessible to all people.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP have been omitted pursuant to the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC. These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes should be read in conjunction with our unaudited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022 included in the Company's Annual Report on the Annual Report and Initial Disclosure Statement filed with OTC Markets on July 14, 2022.

Principles of Consolidation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of EMOR and all of its wholly- and majority-owned subsidiaries. All inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, equity-based transactions, revenue and expenses and disclosure of contingent liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Business Combinations

The Company accounts for its business combinations using the acquisition method of accounting. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the acquisition date fair values of the assets transferred and liabilities assumed by the Company to the sellers and equity instruments issued. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition are expensed as incurred. Identifiable assets and liabilities acquired or assumed are measured separately at their fair values as of the acquisition date. The excess of (i) the total costs of acquisition over (ii) the fair value of the identifiable net assets of the acquiree is recorded as goodwill.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price of the acquired business over the estimated fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired. Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment at least annually at year-end, at the reporting unit level or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired. The goodwill impairment test is applied by performing a qualitative assessment before calculating the fair value of the reporting unit. If, on the basis of qualitative factors, it is considered not more likely-than-not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount, further testing of goodwill for impairment would not be required. Otherwise, goodwill impairment is tested using a two-step approach.

The first step involves comparing the fair value of the reporting unit to its carrying amount. If the fair value of the reporting unit is determined to be greater than its carrying amount, there is no impairment. If the reporting unit's carrying amount is determined to be greater than the fair value, the second step must be completed to measure the amount of impairment, if any. The second step involves calculating the implied fair value of goodwill by deducting the fair value of all tangible and intangible assets, excluding goodwill, of the reporting unit from the fair value of the reporting unit as determined in step one. The implied fair value of the goodwill in this step is compared to the carrying value of goodwill. If the implied fair value of the goodwill is less than the carrying value of the goodwill, an impairment loss equivalent to the difference is recorded.

Convertible Instruments

The Company accounts for convertible instruments (when it has determined that the embedded conversion options should not be bifurcated from their host instruments) in accordance with professional standards when "Accounting for Convertible Securities with Beneficial Conversion Features," as those professional standards pertain to "Certain Convertible Instruments." Accordingly, the Company records, when necessary, discounts to convertible notes for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in debt instruments based upon the differences between the fair value of the underlying common stock at the commitment date of the note transaction and the effective conversion price embedded in the note. Original issue discounts ("OID") under these arrangements are amortized over the term of the related debt to their earliest date of redemption. The Company also records when necessary deemed dividends for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in preferred shares based upon the differences between the fair value of the underlying common stock at the commitment date of the note transaction and the effective conversion price embedded in the note.

Leases

Leases in which the Company is the lessee are comprised of corporate offices. All of these leases are classified as operating leases.

Advertising and Marketing Costs

The Company expenses advertising and marketing costs as they are incurred.

Stock Based Compensation – Non Employees

The Company issues share based payments to non-employees for services performed or expected to be performed. These share based payments are measured at the grant date fair value based on the Company's stock price and are reflected in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets, including tax loss and credit carry forwards, and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is "more likely-than-not" that deferred tax assets will not be realized.

On a regular basis, the Company evaluates the recoverability of deferred tax assets and the need for a valuation allowance. Such evaluations involve the application of significant judgment. The Company considers multiple factors in its evaluation of the need for a valuation allowance. The Company's net deferred tax assets consist of assets related to net operating losses and credits. The Company's net operating losses and credits have a finite life primarily based on the 20-year carryforward rule for federal net operating losses (NOLs) generated through March 31, 2022. At June 30, 2022 and 2021, the Company has recorded a full valuation allowance on its deferred tax assets.

Until an appropriate level of profitability is attained, the Company expects to maintain a full valuation allowance on its deferred tax assets. Any tax benefits or tax expense recorded on its unaudited condensed consolidated statement of income will be offset with a corresponding valuation allowance until such time that the Company changes its determination related to the realization of deferred tax assets. In the event that the Company changes its determination as to the amount of deferred tax assets that can be realized, the Company will adjust its valuation allowance with a corresponding impact to the provision for income taxes in the period in which such a determination is made.

For uncertain tax positions that meet a "more likely-than-not" threshold, the Company recognizes the benefit of uncertain tax positions in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company's practice is to recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense in the Unaudited

Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations.

At June 30, 2022, the Company does not believe it has any uncertain tax positions that would require either recognition or disclosure in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company's 2019 to 2021 tax returns remain subject to examination by taxing authorities.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash, prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses, stock payable, and due to affiliates approximate their fair values based on the short-term maturity of these instruments. The carrying values of the convertible debentures and loans payable approximates the estimated fair value for these financial instruments as interest approximates the Company's incremental borrowing rate.

Net Loss per Common Share

Net loss per common share is computed by dividing the net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. All vested outstanding warrants are considered potentially outstanding common stock. The dilutive effect, if any, of warrants are calculated using the treasury stock method. Convertible notes are considered as if converted. Since the effect of common stock equivalents is anti-dilutive with respect to losses, the warrants and convertible securities have been excluded from the Company's computation of net loss per common share for the three months ended June 30, 2022 and 2021.

The following table summarizes the securities that were excluded from the diluted per share calculation because the effect of including these potential shares was antidilutive due to the Company's net loss position even though the exercise price could be less than the average market price of the common shares:

	June 30, 2022
Convertible Notes	2,322,283
Warrants	8,000,000
Total	10,322,283

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

All issued but not yet effective accounting pronouncements have been deemed to be not applicable or immaterial to the Company.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date that the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements were available to be issued. No material subsequent events have been identified that would require adjustment to or disclosure in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

The Company considers all new accounting pronouncements and management has determined that there have been no other recently adopted or issued accounting standards that had or will have a material impact on its financial statements.
