

Videolocity International Inc. (VCTY) Awaits New Merger Completion, Cancels Proposed Name Change

- Filing -

Henderson, NV, November 15, 2010 -- Videolocity International, Inc. (VCTY; www.videointernationalcorp.com) management announced that the company has ceased its application for a name change, and will remain Videolocity International, Inc., with the symbol VCTY.

In light of recent developments, namely, Merger with Ameta and possibility of vending out subsidiaries Tactician University (TCU) and Avtar Singh Construction Co (ASCC), and intensifying merger discussions with Ameta International Co. Ltd. - VCTY has decided to rescind the name change to Odessa Corporation.

Ameta is a profitable technology sales company with 25 employees, national sales representation throughout Canada, and $3 million USD in annual revenue. The company is engaged in sales and distribution of security and closed circuit monitoring services.

As previously announced, VCTY is considering proposals for TCU and ASCC on an all-cash basis to reduce its current outstanding share structure. For TCU the purchaser is in the process of completing its due diligence, while currently for ASCC all options remain open.

The company will keep shareholders informed on all developments as they unravel.
