RE: County Line Energy, Inc. ("Issuer")

Dear Sir or Madam:

I represent County Line Energy, Inc., (Symbol: CYLC), a Nevada corporation (the "Issuer") as its legal counsel. My client has requested that I render a legal opinion as to whether there is adequate current information available on the OTC Disclosure and News Service for the Issuer and related matters relative to its Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2023. I am not an employee of the Issuer. Further, I have no agreement in place to receive future shares of the Issuer's stock in payment for services and I do not own, directly or beneficially, any shares of the Issuer's securities.

This opinion is meant to apply to the laws of the United States. I am a resident of the United States and licensed to practice in the state courts of Oregon and Washington and am also admitted to practice in the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon and in the U.S. Tax Court. I am also permitted to practice before the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and have not been prohibited from practice thereunder. I am not now nor have I ever been the subject of an investigation, hearing or proceeding by the SEC, the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), or any other federal, state or foreign regulatory agency. I am not now nor have I ever been suspended or barred from practicing in any state or jurisdiction nor have I ever been charged in a civil or criminal case.

This opinion does not rely on the work of other counsel.

I have examined the corporate records, documents and such questions of law that I consider necessary or appropriate for purposes of rendering this Opinion Letter. In my review I have met with the Board of Directors and management of the Issuer and have relied upon the representations of management and officers whom I believe to be reliable sources. I have reviewed the Issuer's corporate records including the following:

- Annual Information and Disclosure Report for the year ended December 31, 2022, (posted March 28, 2023)
- Quarterly Information and Disclosure Report for the quarter ended March 31, 2023, (posted May 30, 2023)
- Quarterly Information and Disclosure Report for the quarter ended June 30, 2023, (posted August 14, 2023)

April 11, 2024

- Quarterly Information and Disclosure Report (as Amended) for the quarter ended September 30, 2023, (posted April 8, 2024)
- Annual Information and Disclosure Report for the year ended December 31, 2023, (posted March 30, 2024)

In my review I have relied upon the representations of management and officers of the Issuer and on publicly available information regarding the Issuer including financial statements listed above.

I have spoken with Aarif Jamani, CEO and sole member of the Board of Directors. It should be noted that Mr. Jamani was secretary during the prior two quarters prior to the resignation of the prior CEO and, thus, is very familiar with the operations during the entire period covered by this opinion letter. All of the information I requested as a basis for this opinion has been provided to me and I believe the sources of information reviewed are reliable. In addition, I have reviewed the definition of current information set forth in SEC Rule 144(c)(2) under the Act ("Other Public Information") as well as the relevant provisions of Rule 15c2-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), and the OTC Markets Group's Pink Basic Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information. In my opinion, the information provided:

(A) constitutes "adequate public information" concerning the Securities and the Issuer and "is available" within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) of the Act;

(B) includes all of the information that a broker-dealer would be required to obtain from the issuer to publish a quotation for the Securities under Rule 15c2-11 under the Exchange Act;

(C) complies as to form with the OTC Markets Group's Guidelines for Providing Adequate Current Information, which is located at:

www.otcmarkets.com

(D) has been posted through the OTC Disclosure and News Service.

The Issuer represents that it is not now and has never been a "shell" corporation as defined in Rules 405 of the Securities Act of 1933 and 12b-2 of the Exchange Act of 1934. My research and analysis of public filings supports this statement.

The financial statements for the Issuer are the responsibility of Aarif Jamani, CEO, Burnaby, British Columbia. These financial statements have not been audited or presented as such. They were prepared by Lowell Holden, an accountant in Burnsville, Minnesota, who has extensive experience preparing financial statements for a wide variety of public and private corporations and is well qualified by experience to prepare these financial statements.

The transfer agent for the Issuer is Securities Transfer Corporation, 2901 N. Dallas Parkway, Suite 380, Plano, Texas 75093. The transfer agent is registered with the SEC. I have requested and obtained a copy of the shareholders' list provided to me by management and have confirmed that the number of shares issued is consistent with the corporate records of the Issuer. I have reviewed the disclosure documents currently published on otcmarkets.com for this Issuer, and have personally reviewed the information published by the Issuer on OTC Markets News Service, and have discussed the information with management.

I have confirmed with management that management is not aware of any investigation of the Issuer or of any beneficial owner, officer, director or legal counsel of the Issuer by any federal or state regulatory authority, including the SEC other than as disclosed in the Annual Disclosure Statement regarding Mr. Jafari. With regard to Mr. Jamani, he settled a violation of a Cease and Desist Order issued by the British Columbia Securities Commission on February 7, 2024. Among the conditions of that settlement was a provision that he arrange for new management of County Line Energy, Inc., within 60 days of the Settlement date. On April 5, 2024, the British Columbia Securities Commission issued a Variation Order which extended the time for Mr. Jamani to find a replacement officer and director for County Line to May 7, 2024. Mr. Jamani is currently engaged in an intense search for a replacement officer and director and, in fact, is currently negotiating with an individual who may accept that position. The British Columbia Order is effective in the jurisdiction of British Columbia and allows Mr. Jamani to trade under his own name provided that he provide a registrant with a copy of the British Columbia Order.

On March 27, 2024, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission served Mr. Jamani with a lawsuit alleging securities violations unrelated to County Line Energy, Inc. Mr. Jamani is vigorously defending himself in that action and asserting that there is clearly no violation of securities laws.

Nonetheless, Mr. Jamani, as stated above, is aggressively searching for a replacement officer and director for himself as soon as possible without prejudicing the public interest and is hopeful of achieving that within the next thirty days.

After a review of documents as set forth above, and consultation with management, it is my opinion that the information presently being provided by the Issuer to OTC Markets Disclosure and News Service in the Financial Reports and Disclosure Information constitutes adequate current public information concerning the Issuer within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) of the Act.

OTC Markets, Inc., is entitled and authorized to rely upon this letter in determining whether the Issuer has made adequate information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act of 1933. No person other than OTC Markets, Inc., is entitled to rely on this letter, but full permission is granted to OTC Markets, Inc., to publish this letter through the OTC Disclosure and News Service for viewing by the public and regulators.

Sincerely,

Vic Devlaeminck
Attorney for County Line Energy, Inc.
