NOTE 1 - GENERAL ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS ISSUES

The Company is a brand owner of craft hemp beer, spirits and Delta 8 products. It forms strategic partnerships with craft breweries, distilleries and licensed cannabis manufacturers to produce its products. The Company markets and sells its products via local and national distributor partners.

By integrating with or acquiring other businesses, the Company aims to expand its market presence, diversify its product offerings, and strengthen its competitive position in the industry. This strategic move is intended to enhance the Company's financial performance and establish a more robust foothold in its target markets.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

It is calculated by deducting the fair value of the net assets acquired from the consideration given and represents the value of factors that contribute to greater earning power, such as a good reputation, customer loyalty we assess goodwill of individual subsidiaries for impairment in the fourth quarter of every year, and when circumstances indicate that goodwill might be impaired.
