7) Legal/Disciplinary History

A. Identify and provide a brief explanation as to whether any of the persons or entities listed above in Section 6 have, in the past 10 years:

1. Been the subject of an indictment or conviction in a criminal proceeding or plea agreement or named as a defendant in a pending criminal proceeding (excluding minor traffic violations);

All priors have been removed by way of exchange cancelling large blocks and removed from > 5% ownership.

2. Been the subject of the entry of an order, judgment, or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, by a court of competent jurisdiction that permanently or temporarily enjoined, barred, suspended or otherwise limited such person's involvement in any type of business, securities, commodities, financial- or investment-related, insurance or banking activities;

None.

3. Been the subject of a finding, disciplinary order or judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction (in a civil action), the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, a state securities regulator of a violation of federal or state securities or commodities law, or a foreign regulatory body or court, which finding or judgment has not been reversed, suspended, or vacated;

None.

4. Named as a defendant or a respondent in a regulatory complaint or proceeding that could result in a "yes" answer to part 3 above:

In June 2024, the former Company was named in a civil action filed by Reich Brothers Inc. against Quantum Omega LLC, alleging unauthorized sale of 250 million shares and related claims.

The shares at issue were submitted to a private placement by Reich, who has a prior felony conviction and is considered a Disqualified Person under SEC Rule 506(d). Following discovery of additional malfeasance by Reich, the transaction was canceled and the shares were extinguished at nominal value ($0.00001/share). No proceeds, benefit, or enrichment were received by the Company.

The referenced shares relate to a corporate entity that was statutorily dissolved in 2014 following internal malfeasance attributed to Reich. The current Company has not revived, assumed, or continued any aspect of those defunct operations. There is no legal, financial, or operational relationship between the current Company and the prior entity. No duties, rights, powers, or obligations—including voting rights or equity recognition—are owed or conferred to Reich.

Certain discontinued operations are disclosed on the balance sheet solely for historical transparency and do not reflect any assumed liabilities. Reich is also alleged to have had prior financial obligations, which were offset against losses from the canceled transaction. Counterclaims may include not only issues related to disclosure and securities qualification, but also other acts of malfeasance by Reich during prior dealings.

Respondents have moved to dismiss the case with prejudice. The Company does not believe it has any liability in this matter. Any future developments will be disclosed under contingent liabilities consistent with GAAP (ASC 450-20) and applicable reporting standards.

This disclosure supersedes all prior disclosures related to this matter.

5. Been the subject of an order by a self-regulatory organization that permanently or temporarily barred, suspended, or otherwise limited such person's involvement in any type of business or securities activities.

None.

6. Been the subject of a U.S. Postal Service false representation order, or a temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction with respect to conduct alleged to have violated the false representation statute that applies to U.S. mail.

None.

Notes to the Financial Statements
For period Ending December 31, 2024

Note 1 - Organization and Business

Buyer Group International, Inc. (the Company), a Wyoming corporation, is a publicly traded company with its principal offices in Sheridan Wyoming, with advisory offices in Austin, TX and Las Vegas, NV. The core business of the Company is advisory services platinum metals exploration and extraction. The company also has researched and development its own proprietary commodity tracking software that tracks futures prices of markets in real-time.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash money, stocks for sale, derivatives for sale, money market funds, and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management believes that it is not exposed to any significant credit risk for cash.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present the consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of income and consolidated statement of cash flows of Buyer Group International, Inc. and its subsidiary. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated. Spin-outs, equity carve-outs, and split-offs have been recorded as impairments to Goodwill and against retained earnings, while income will be recorded under investments in the income portion of the financial statements.

Investment Trusts

In 2016, after advising principals BYRG made the decision to discontinue any affiliation with Trust parties due to litigation risk for non-compliance. Discontinuing Management of Hard Rock Assets - Value will no longer be carried over on goodwill but impairments will be charged against goodwill on an annual basis (not quarterly). Gains/impairments will accordingly go against Goodwill for long lived asset. The company is valuing the goodwill of said relationship at approximately (negative) -$2,882,226. BYRG does not carry this on its books.

Non-current Inventory

BYRG maintains no non-current inventory as of September 30, 2024.

Advertising

The Company's policy is to expense advertising costs as incurred and amount to $0.00 in December 31, 2024.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated over their expected useful lives using the straight-line method. Maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of assets are expensed as incurred. Expenditures which improve or extend the life of assets are capitalized. Leases that are not operational are capitalized. As of June 30, 2022 as liability on land equal $0.00, recorded under liabilities. ANNUAL FEES: Paid to BLM Are now recorded under assets on an ongoing basis per annum, attributed towards Goodwill as R&D expenditures are typically expensed, we will record the amounts under PP&E.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The company no guarantees and reporting is on a best efforts basis. For question, contact the company.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" (SFAS No. 109), which requires use of the liability method. SFAS No. 109 provides that deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, referred to as temporary differences. Deferred tax assets and liabilities at the end of each period are determined using the currently enacted tax rates applied to taxable income in the periods in which the deferred tax assets and liabilities are to be settled or realized for investments according to IRS Section 181 and Sections 199. These assets are now impaired and recorded as Net Assets of Discontinued Operations & their corresponding expenses from wind down as Retained Earnings (Carry Forward Loss) of ($534,957).

U.S. federal statutory rate – 21.00%

As of June 30, 2022, the Company has applied its net operating loss carry forward of approximately $534,957 for tax purposes, which will no longer be available to offset future taxable income. In 2020, the company experienced labor costs due to the planned spin-offs and has or will expense such activities and will record these under the cash flow statement financing activities. By June 30, 2021, the company completed a 5-year re-organization shedding assets and eliminating all past operations. The fee to the company was $72,500 per year for five years payable to David A. Bryant in stock for services rendered and cash infused into the company.

Organizational Expenses

In accordance with IRC Section 181 of the IRS tax code, 100% of organizational expenses (R&D) are accumulated and carried against investment for a 100% tax deduction off-setting our taxable income by same.

Note 3 - Subsidiaries

No subsidiary relationships currently exist.

Note 4 - Commitments and Contingencies

Claims

4. Named as a defendant or a respondent in a regulatory complaint or proceeding that could result in a "yes" answer to part 3 above:

In June 2024, the former Company was named in a civil action filed by Reich Brothers Inc. against Quantum Omega LLC, alleging unauthorized sale of 250 million shares and related claims.

The shares at issue were submitted to a private placement by Reich, who has a prior felony conviction and is considered a Disqualified Person under SEC Rule 506(d). Following discovery of additional malfeasance by Reich, the transaction was canceled and the shares were extinguished at nominal value ($0.00001/share). No proceeds, benefit, or enrichment were received by the Company.

The referenced shares relate to a corporate entity that was statutorily dissolved in 2014 following internal malfeasance attributed to Reich. The current Company has not revived, assumed, or continued any aspect of those defunct operations. There is no legal, financial, or operational relationship between the current Company and the prior entity. No duties, rights, powers, or obligations—including voting rights or equity recognition—are owed or conferred to Reich.

Certain discontinued operations are disclosed on the balance sheet solely for historical transparency and do not reflect any assumed liabilities. Reich is also alleged to have had prior financial obligations, which were offset against losses from the canceled transaction. Counterclaims may include not only issues related to disclosure and securities qualification, but also other acts of malfeasance by Reich during prior dealings.

Respondents have moved to dismiss the case with prejudice. The Company does not believe it has any liability in this matter. Any future developments will be disclosed under contingent liabilities consistent with GAAP (ASC 450-20) and applicable reporting standards.

This disclosure supersedes all prior disclosures related to this matter.

Going Concern

As indicated via financial statements, as of December 31, 2024, the Company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets . These factors create an uncertainty about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management has developed a plan to reduce its liabilities through the sale of assets and raising additional capital. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on acquiring this additional capital. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 5 - Stockholders' Equity

In 1994, originally authorized 400 million shares in Nevada common stock ($.001 par). Subsequent reorganization leads to the current standing:

Super majority Class A Preferred $.0001 par value w/ superior voting rights – 1,000,000 shares authorized.
Common Shares : 13 billion common authorized.

The company had authorized 1 million of its super majority Class A Preferred stock allocated to David A. Bryant in July 2016, issued to David A. Bryant as of December 31, 2022, with 952,866 reported outstanding.

As of December 31, 2024 the company had outstanding shares of 13,000,000,000 of its common stock not allocated to treasury, canceled, or exchanged.
As of December 31, 2024 the company had outstanding shares of 1,372,940,118 of its common stock not allocated to treasury, canceled, or exchanged.

Note 6 - Line of Credit, Warrants & Options

The company carries no other indebtedness in the form of warrants, options, or lines of credit.

The officers and directors of the Company are involved in other business activities and may, in the future become involved in other business opportunities. If a specific business opportunity becomes available, such person may face a conflict in selecting between the Company and their other business interest. The Company has not formulated a policy for the resolution of such conflicts.

Note 7 - Investment Notes, Loans and Notes Payable, Contingent Liabilities

Investment Notes

In 2008, the company obtained the development and marketing rights of two plots of land approximating 20 acres each or 1,470,000 sq. ft. Broker price opinions on each property reflected $1,960,000 and $200,000. using the sq. footage method. Current outstanding debt on the properties is $0.00 BYRG had issued a guarantee obligation in the form of promissory note totaling $2.2 million convertible at par value into common stock or payable in cash at redemption. June 3, 2021 the principals' sold this land at zero redemption value and BYRG retained $350,000 total cash value for the long term management of the opportunity in exchange for additional paid in capital by David A. Bryant to the company. The options expired in 2018 and no obligations currently exists. Accounts payable carry any expenditures for services rendered by parties/principals involved.

Loans & Notes Payable

As of December 31, 2022 the Company has one account payable to the Small Business Administration totaling $24,500 payable over 30 years at $100 per month and no other outstanding debt, convertible or otherwise outside of accounts payable.

Stock Subscriptions Receivable

Goodwill does not include prior Cap Table of Defunct Operations Adjustments - 1,050,000,000 Shares Extinguished Permanently by Tristan V. Stonger (Bad Actor). In separate instances, 192 Million Extinguished Permanently by Stratos Group LLC and 250 Million Extinguished by Quantum Omega LLC after Settling Debtor Receivables of $500,000 owed from Reich Brothers Inc. (Bad Actor) Israel GoldReich. Company has non-adjusted impairments on a non-capital basis, as it has no legal connection to the current cap table, and is not applicable to the Company through receivables or subscriptions, or any other type transactions. The shares were from debt conversion of a prior defunct operations and indebtedness owing $102,000 and $61,200 which have since been discharged, due to the wind-up of prior Corporate Activities from 2014 dissolution, maintained under Discontinued Operations in nominal value. These are now categorized as "fraud recoveries" from bad actors.

Contingent Liabilities

This portion of the balance sheet is a reflection of a potential liability, contingent upon declaration by the Issuer of a dividend to the recipient based upon the placement of utilization of assets. In the past the company chose to carry contingent expense amortized but has since made changes to its policy and will no longer bear such future potential expenses as a liability. As of Q4 2024 BYRG entered a Vendor dispute with Hard Rock Consulting LLC for a total of $27,282. This is recorded here, not under accounts payable as it is a contingent liability only, and outcome of the dispute is uncertain, noted per ASC 450.
