In May and June 2021, the Board of Directors, upon the evaluation and advise of Company management, began a process to streamline and restructure the Company's operations, including discontinuing certain business operations related to employee staffing/leasing due to the significant loss of business directly linked to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Ongoing Litigation:

During the 3rd Calendar quarter of 2018, the Company's third-party lender discontinued operations and left the Company without an outlet with which to monetize its accounts receivable on a demand basis. Accordingly, the Company, in an emergency, entered into various agreements with several Merchant Cash Advance (MCA) lenders to provide liquidity within its accounts receivable portfolio.

Due to various disputes related to these arrangements, the Company was sued for collection in various Courts in New York and various judgments were granted against the Company and its various operating subsidiaries. Due to the misapplication of Law, in management's opinion, certain bank accounts of the Company and its operating subsidiaries, which are domiciled and maintained in Texas, were frozen. The Company is vigorously defending itself against these actions.

On October 27, 2018, the Company countersued various MCA lender(s) in the State of New York alleging misapplication of law, criminal usury in the first degree, and violation of Civil Practice and Rules. The Company is seeking unspecified damages in this action.

On December 16, 2018, new legislation was introduced into the U. S. Senate that would ban the use of Confessions of Judgment in commercial transactions. The ultimate passage of this legislation and the potential impact on this situation is unknown.

As a result of these actions, the Company acquired new sources of funding to monetize its accounts receivables and granted the new funding source a first lien against all the Company's receivables to minimize any potential interruption in the Company's cash flow going forward.

Management is of the opinion that the Company and its various affected operating subsidiaries does not anticipate any material adverse impact on either its operations or financial condition as a result of these actions.
