Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

Common stocks has 1 voting rights each

1. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

Series A preferred stock has voting rights on a one-for-one hundred (1:100) basis

- a) Dividends: The holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive dividends at a rate of twelve percent (12%) of the original purchase price per annum, payable when, as and if declared by and at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- b) Liquidation Preference: In the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary, distribution to the shareholders of the Corporation shall be made in the following manner:
 - i. The holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, in preference to the Common Stock (the "Common"), an amount payable in cash equal to the original purchase price for the Series A Preferred Stock plus declared and unpaid dividends (the "Liquidation Preference"). After the payment of the Liquidation Preference to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock, the remaining assets shall be distributed ratably to the holders of the Common and the Series A Preferred Stock (assuming the conversion of all Preferred Stock).
 - ii. A merger, reorganization or other acquisition-type transaction in which control of the Corporation or all or substantially all of its assets is transferred will be treated by holders of the Series A Preferred as a liquidation.
 - iii. Notwithstanding the above, the Corporation may, at any time, out of funds legally available therefor, repurchase shares of Common Stock of the Corporation issued to or held by employees, officers, directors, or consultants of the Corporation or its subsidiaries upon termination of their employment or services, pursuant to any agreement providing for such right of repurchase.
- c) Conversion: Series A Preferred Stock shall be convertible (a) until not later than the close of business on the fifth (5th) business day prior to the date fixed for redemption in any notice of redemption, at the option of the holder thereof; (b) at any time after the date of issuance of such shares, at the office of the Corporation or any transfer agent for such shares, into the aggregate of fifty-one percent (51%) of the Common Stock of the Corporation outstanding on the date of conversion.

- i. Mechanics of Conversion. Before any holder of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into full shares of Common Stock, the holder of Series A Preferred Stock shall surrender the certificate or certificates thereof, fully endorsed, at the office of the Corporation or any transfer agent of such Series A Preferred Stock, and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that the Holder elects to convert the same and shall state therein the Holder's name or the name or names of the Holder's nominees in which the holder wishes the certificate or certificates for shares of Common Stock to be issued. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver at such office to such holder or to the holder's nominee or nominees, a Common Stock to which the holder shall be entitled as aforesaid. Conversion shall be deemed to have occurred immediately prior to the close of business on the date such surrender of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted, and the person or persons entitled to receive the shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such shares of Common Stock on such date. Upon any conversion, accrued and unpaid interest on the Series A Preferred Stock shall be disregarded and not paid.
 - ii. Conversion into Common Stock. The number of shares of Common Stock into which each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted is on the basis of one (1) share of Series A Preferred Stock convertible into one hundred (100) shares of Common Stock.
 - iii. Anti-dilution Provisions. No adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, and the like are authorized. The conversion price will be adjusted on a weighted average basis (based on all outstanding shares of Series A Preferred and Common Stock) for issuances of additional equity securities at a purchase price below the then-effective conversion price (subject to standard exceptions).
 - iv. Voting Rights. Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to notice of any shareholders' meeting. Except as otherwise provided or required by law, the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote with the holders of the Corporation's Common Stock at any annual or special meeting or vote of the stockholders of the Corporation. The Series A Preferred Stock shall have voting rights of the Corporation's outstanding Common Stock on an as-converted basis. The Corporation shall not, without the written consent or affirmative vote of the ownership of Series A Preferred Stock has at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the then-outstanding capital stock of the Corporation, materially amend or waive any provision of its Articles of Incorporation in any manner whatsoever, including but not limited to, interference with the Company's capacity to receive funds from the sales of products, to issue communications with Shareholders or new releases, any violations of any state or federal securities laws, or any action, which could cause the bankruptcy, dissolution, or other termination of the Corporation or interruption with the conduct of business of the Company.
- d) Certain Adjustments: If the Corporation, at any time while the Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, (A) shall pay a stock dividend or otherwise make a distribution of shares on its Common Stock or any other equity or equity equivalent securities payable in shares of Common Stock; (B) adjusts the outstanding shares of Common Stock into a larger number of shares; (C) combines (including by way of reverse stock split) outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares; (D) reverse splits the shares of Common Stock; or (E) issues by reclassification of shares of the Common Stock any shares of capital stock for the corporation, the certificate shall be non-dilutive with respect to any corporation transaction or action, including, but not limited to reverse splits, stock dividends, the issuance of new shares of Common Stock for cash or cashless warrants or options by any corporate transaction being a merger, consolidation, purchase of assets, the purchase or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's business and shall at all times be convertible into 51% of the Common Stock of the Corporation outstanding at the time of conversion.

3. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders. Conversion rights: The Number of Common Stock in which each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted is on the basis of one (1) share of Series A Preferred Stock convertible into one hundred (100) shares of Common Stock. Nevada law, specifically, NRS 78.320 stipulates that, unless otherwise provided by law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, any corporate action requires the affirmative vote of the majority of shares entitled to vote on that matter and represented either in person or by proxy at a meeting where a quorum is present. This means that if a majority shareholder is present or represented at such a meeting, they can effectively approve corporate actions. Additionally, NRS 78.390 addresses amendments to the articles of incorporation after stock has been issued. It requires that such amendments be approved by a majority of the voting power of the corporation, unless the articles specify a different requirement. This provision allows a majority shareholder to effect changes to the articles of incorporation, provided they meet the specified voting thresholds.

4. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company’s securities that have occurred over the reporting period covered by this report. NA

3) Issuance History

The goal of this section is to provide disclosure with respect to each event that resulted in any changes to the total shares outstanding of any class of the issuer’s securities in the past two completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.

Disclosure under this item shall include, in chronological order, all offerings and issuances of securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares, or any other securities or options to acquire such securities, issued for services. Using the tabular format below, please describe these events.

B. Promissory and Convertible Notes

Indicate by check mark whether there are any outstanding promissory, convertible notes, convertible debentures, or any other debt instruments that may be converted into a class of the issuer’s equity securities:

NOTE REGARDING HISTORICAL DEBT WRITE-OFFS AND BOARD RESOLUTION

On May 27, 2025, the Board of Directors of American Premium Water Corporation formally adopted a resolution authorizing the write-off of certain historical debt obligations determined to be unverified, undocumented, or no longer enforceable. This action followed a comprehensive reconciliation process performed by Company management and legal advisors. The review identified legacy convertible notes and accounts payable entries for which no supporting agreements, payment history, or ledger activity could be found for multiple fiscal years.

This action reflects the Company's commitment to accurate reporting and responsible corporate governance. The Board also authorized Company officers to refer any disputed claims to legal counsel for final resolution and ensured the resolution was entered into the official corporate records.

The Company conducted appropriate due diligence in arriving at this decision, including third-party verification attempts, legal review, and compliance reconciliation. The write-offs have been reflected accordingly in the Company's financial records and this report to maintain transparency with shareholders and regulators.

ANNUAL REPORT
AMERICAN PREMIUM WATER CORPORATION
NOTES TO UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2025

NOTE 1 -SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business

American Premium Water was incorporated in the state of Nevada as Goldsearch Corporation on February 17, 1989. The Company was formally known as Expert Group, Inc., and has developed a new water source to produce high alkaline bottled water and is currently marketing the product throughout the United States. The Company has expanded into the cannabidiol (“CBD”) infused water market and is researching nanotechnology that enables the body to absorb higher percentages of CBD molecules. On March 6th, 2023 the Company changed its name to New Electric CV Corporation. On May 9th, 2024 the Company changed its name from to New Electric CV Corporation to AMERICAN PREMIUM WATER CORPORATION. The Company leases office space Las Vegas, Nevada on a month-to-month basis.

Accounting Basis

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting and accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP" accounting). The Company has adopted a December 31 fiscal year end.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for the financial statements to be not misleading for the periods presented have been reflected herein.

Going Concern

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis of accounting, which contemplates continuity of operations, realization of assets and liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The accompanying unaudited financial statements do not reflect any adjustments that might result if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. The Company does not generate significant revenue, has negative cash flows from operations, which raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and appropriateness of using the going concern basis is dependent upon, among other things, additional cash infusion.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company places its cash with a high credit quality financial institution. The Company's account at this institution is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) up to $250,000. As of June 30, 2025, the Company had no bank balances exceeding the FDIC insurance limit. To reduce its risk associated with the failure of such financial institution, the Company evaluates at least annually the rating of the financial institution in which it holds deposits.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company follows FASB ASC 820, “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures” (“ASC 820”), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements.

ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:

Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities Level 2: Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data, which require the use of the reporting entity's own assumptions.

Cash and cash equivalents include money market securities that are considered to be highly liquid and easily tradable as of June 30, 2025. These securities are valued using inputs observable in active markets for identical securities and are therefore classified as Level 1 within our fair value hierarchy. As of June 30, 2025, there were not any cash equivalents.

In addition, FASB ASC 825-10-25 Fair Value Option expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.

The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for cash, accounts receivable, note receivable, accrued expenses, notes payable and due to officers and related parties approximate their estimated fair market value based on the short-term maturity of these instruments. The carrying amount of the notes and convertible promissory notes approximates the estimated fair value for these financial instruments as management believes that such notes constitute substantially all of the Company's debt and the interest payable on the notes approximates the Company's incremental borrowing rate.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Most significant estimates in the accompanying unaudited financial statements include the valuation of deferred tax assets, valuation of stock-based advisor and vendor awards, valuation of warrants issued with debt, and the measurement of derivative liabilities. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that the Company considers reasonable given the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources.

Concentration of Credit Risks

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, which could, at times, exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts; however, amounts in excess of the federally insured limit may be at risk if the bank experiences financial difficulties.

Basic Income (Loss) Per Share

Basic income (loss) per share is calculated by dividing the Company's net loss applicable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares during the period. Diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing the Company's net income available to common shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. The diluted weighted average number of shares outstanding is the basic weighted number of shares adjusted for any potentially dilutive debt or equity. As of June 30, 2025, the Company had convertible notes outstanding that could be converted into approximately 7,768,869,766 common shares. These are not presented in the statement of operations since the company incurred a loss and the effect of these shares is anti-dilutive.

NOTE 2 Property and Equipment

The Company purchased some equipment for mining diverse cryptocurrencies on Year 2022 and depreciation over five years. For the three months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 depreciation expense amounted to $10,454 and $9,547, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2025 and 2024 depreciation expense amounted to $20,106 and $19,074, respectively.

NOTE 3- Intangible Assets

The Company record cryptocurrencies as intangible asset and measured at fair value on a recurring basis, as required by ASC 820.

NOTE 8 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying unaudited financial statements are prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As of June 30, 2025, the Company had an accumulated deficit of approximately $112 million, the net cash used in operating activities for the year ended June 30, 2025 totaled $(146,006).

These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from the issue date of this report. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon increasing sales and obtaining additional capital and financing.

Management believes that the Company will be dependent, for the near future, on additional equity capital to fund operating expenses. The Company intends to position itself so that it may be able to raise additional funds through the capital markets.

However, there are no assurances that the Company will be successful.
